STAR OCEAN

First Departure™

CHARACTERS

Prologue

An unknown power threatens to hurl us into a new age of civilization. Is it the will of the gods, or just the whimsy of fate? Whatever it is, the human race continues to advance into the great unknown, into what they called...the "Star Ocean."

But on the Planet Roak, life is tranquil. Although primitive, the Roakians enjoy an idyllic existence. Will the arrival of strange beings from a universe previously unknown to them threaten to shatter their peaceful existence? Or is contact with an alien species the only way to prevent their destruction?

I ponder these questions as I review the rules of the Underdeveloped Planet Preservation Act. The very law designed to maintain the sanctity of primitive planets and cultures also binds our hands in Roak's greatest time of need.

As I consider my next move, I wonder what impact my decision today may have upon Roak. Is the Time Gate of Planet Styx a miracle that could help us rescue a civilization, or a curse that could alter the course of history and destroy the universe?

But if I would leave them in other hands, or to the unknown forces we face, would their fate be any different?

Key to Special Arts & Spells

Each character's special arts and/or spells are listed below their likeness and description, along with the following statistics:

MP Cost: The amount of MP subtracted from the character's total for each use. The amount listed is required to use the special art.

Element: Any elemental quality of the attack, such as Fire, Water, Light, Dark, etc. Also, any status ailments that may be inflicted are shown.

Target: Specifies the number of targets affected by one attack.

Learn: The character learns the special art or spell at the experience level listed. In the case of augmentation by a SFT technique (Four Beasts, Gods of War, Omega, Bagua, Divine Fury, Feline, Wyrn King), the character has a chance to learn the skill by practicing the requisite special art listed at the rate indicated after learning the SFT skill mentioned. Refer to the "SFT Special Art Rate of Learning" table in this section to determine the speed of learning attack per SFT skill level.

Base Effect: For spells only, this number factors into the amount of healing or damage inflicted, possibly combined with a multiple or fraction of the character's MAG.

Multiplier: Damage inflicted equals the character's attack multiplied by the number in this field. A multiplier of 1 equals 100% of the character's Attack, whereas a multiplier of 0.75 equals 75% of the character Attack, and so forth.

Max Hits: The maximum number of hits you can chain on a target at Rank 0.

Rank Up: The general number of times an attack must be used before an increase in rank. / The maximum uses.

Changes: Changes that occur to an attack during a rank up, such as an increase in damage.

Max Rank: The maximum rank a skill can achieve. All special arts start at Rank 0.

Effect: Description of the special art.

PHIA MELLE

RACE: Highlander

AGE: 21

Obtaining the Gods of War SFT

When Phio joins the party the first time you arrive in Autanim or Astral City (depending on your previous choices), she does not possess the Gods of War SFT. However, if you have six or fewer characters in your party when returning to the castle in Astral City with the Van Emblem, Phia offers to join the party. At that point, she possesses the Gods of War SFT, which allows her to learn all of her special arts.

Phia is a member of the Astral Knight Corps. She practices the Hisho-ken sword technique, with which she utilizes two short blades as gracefully as a falcon uses its wings and just as deadly as any bird-of-prey. She often worries about Cyuss—whom she has known since childhood—but she attempts to hide these feelings. Wanting to prove herself as a valiant knight, she is hard-bitten and sometimes rather stern.

ASHLAY BERNBELDT

Teaching Raddick the Wyrn King SFT

Ashlay wishes to pass his knowledge to Raddick. Raddick can learn several additional special arts by acquiring Ashlay's Wyrn King SFT. Use Ashlay as a Battle Member in boss fights and initiate Private Actions related to Ashlay to increase his feelings for Raddick to a score of 9 or higher.

Specifically, initiate Private Action #50 with Ashlay at Van City and speak with him in the Weapon Shop. Agree to be his pupil to score additional affection points. After that, continue the game until the Eye of Truth is obtained from the Purgatorium Inner Sanctum. When this occurs, initiate Private Action #103 at Silvalant City and speak to Ashlay in the castle courtyard to teach Raddick the Wyrn King SFT.

Ashlay is renowned for his meritorious deeds as a young warrior in the Demonic Wars. Despite having moved on in years and losing his left arm in battle, his skill with the sword remains undeniable. A wise veteran, he seeks to pass along his knowledge to a deserving pupil.

To learn Welch's most devastating attack, obtain the Smooth Crystal from Level B30 in the Cave of Seven Stars (part of the Oracle Cave). Teach Welch the Crofting specialty and expend Skill Points to raise the skill to Lv10. Next, have Welch use Crofting on the Smooth Crystal to obtain a Symbol of the Gods. Use this item on Welch to teach her "Nibelungaling!"

DORNE MURTOUGH

RACE: Fellpool

AGE: 19

Dorne is another member of the Kratus Defense Force. Cheerful and jovial, he brings life and energy to the everyday boredom often found in Kratus. Dorne has been friends with Roddick and Millie since they were children. He has feelings for Millie, but he recognizes her feelings for Roddick and is unable to express himself to her.

CHARACTERS

For convenience, the following charts show the progression of certain characters and their ability to learn new special arts by using one previously attained through leveling, after learning the appropriate SFT skill. SFT skills are learned in one of three ways: during the course of story events; by completing certain side quests; and by opening certain treasure chests.

GAMEPLAY

STAR OCEAN: First Departure is a remake of the original STAR OCEAN, published by Enix Corporation in Japan in July of 1996 on the Super Famicom. The game is an action RPG that follows a group of humorous and heroic fantasy adventurers as they embark on a science fiction odyssey through time and space.

The game utilizes party-based action combat wherein the player controls one character, with the ability to assume control of other characters as soon as their most recent action is complete. The objective of the game is to enjoy the story, meet and recruit new characters into your party, collect items and equipment, build your characters' skills and combat aptitudes, and eventually defeat the game's villain.

Since scenario branching prevents recruiting all of the possible characters during a single playthrough of the game, multiple playthroughs are encouraged. This chapter presents all functions and facets of the game for the sake of general player knowledge.

Title Screen

After booting the UMD game disk on your PlayStation Portable (PSP) system and watching the demo animation, the Title Screen appears. The Title Screen menu contains four options:

New Game: On your first playthrough with no data stored on the Memory Stick, this is the only selectable option. Select this to begin a new game.

Continue: With at least one STAR OCEAN: First Departure save game stored on the Memory Stick, choose this option to resume your adventure.

Movie Gallery: This option becomes available once the player has begun a new game and created a save game. Additional movies are unlocked in the gallery as the game progresses.

Voice Gallery: This feature is unlocked when the player saves at the final Save Point in the game. This option allows the player to listen to the voice tracks of recruited characters.

Map Navigation

STAR OCEAN: First Departure features three modes of play: map navigation, camp menu browsing, and combat. Within this chapter, each mode is broken down and thoroughly explained. It's important to note that the control configuration changes slightly in each mode.

In map navigation mode, the player controls the hero, who represents the entire party. The player can move the hero, explore the environment, and travel to new areas.

Default Controls: Navigation Mode

BUTTON PRESS	WHAT IT DOES
Directional buttons/ Analog Stick	Moves character
⊗ button	Talk, search, confirm choice
Ⓜ button	Private Action (World Map only)
Ⓢ button	Walk, cancel choice
Ⓜ button	Open Comp Menu (pauses game)
L/R buttons	Rotate View (World Map only)

MOVEMENT

In map navigation mode, main protagonist Roddick represents the position of the entire party. Use the directional buttons or analog stick to move the character around the environment and explore.

WALK

By default, the on-screen character runs. Holding the Ⓢ button while moving causes Roddick to walk at normal speed. While this helps improve the accuracy of movement, it does not reduce the occurrence of random encounters in hostile areas or the World Map.

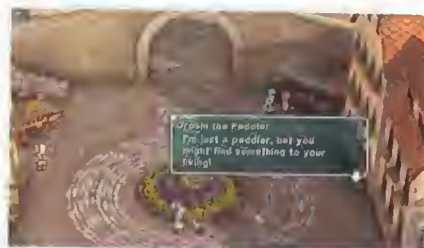

SEARCH OR SPEAK

Interact with objects in the environment and other characters by pressing the ⊗ button. By speaking to other characters, the player can learn additional information about the world and improve character relationships within the party. The player can also collect items from treasure chests.

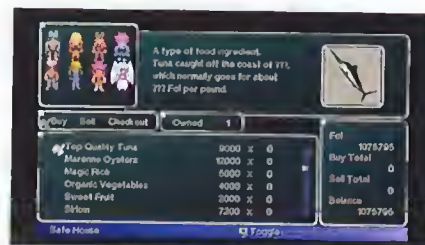

Shops and Merchants

Throughout Roak, the towns and cities feature various shops where the player can acquire goods and services. To purchase items, the party must possess enough "Fol," the universal currency of the land. In some cities, merchants stand in the streets and hock their wares. To view a seller's inventory, approach the counter or approach them in person and speak to them.

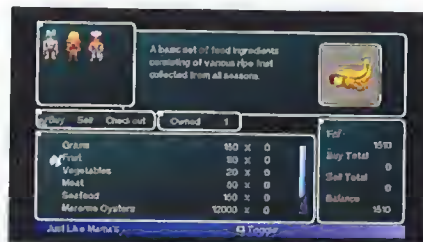

First, choose whether to buy or sell goods. After choosing "buy," move the cursor down the inventory list. To purchase an item, press the right directional buttons or move the analog stick to the right to increase the quantity of an item to buy. To decrease the quantity desired, press the left directional button or move the analog stick to the left. Monitor the total price of the purchase and your funds remaining in the lower-right window. When the desired quantities of the items you wish to purchase are all numbered, press the ⊗ button and then confirm your purchase or move the cursor up to "checkout" and press the ⊗ button to confirm.

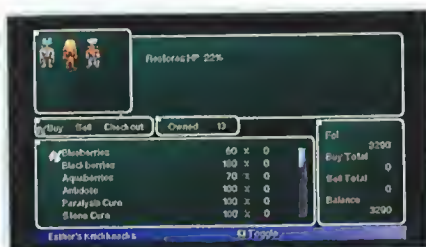

FOOD SHOPS

Food shops sell ingredients such as Grains, Vegetables, Eggs and Dairy, and so on. These items can be combined into highly restorative dishes by a character with a high Cooking skill level.

ITEM SHOPS

Item shops sell a variety of curative items the party can typically use during or after combat, such as Blueberries, Blackberries, status ailment cures, and many others. Item Shops sometimes sell valuable accessories and items related to specialties, such as music instruments, writing pens and paper, art supplies, minerals, and more.

While perusing an Item Shop's inventory, press the  button to view any additional information about the item.

IMPORTANT ITEMS

There are a few "essential adventurer" items that the party should have on hand in plentiful supply whenever leaving a town. Stock up on these items whenever you visit an Item Shop.

BLUEBERRIES

Recover HP. The amount restored can be enhanced via the Herbology skill.

BLACKBERRIES

Restore MP. The amount restored can be enhanced via the Herbology skill.

MEDICINE BOTTLE

Completely cures all status ailments. Dropped by several enemies and sold in towns on the Silvalant continent.

RESURRECTION ELIXIR

Resuscitates a party member. Sold in towns on the Astralian and Silvalant continents.

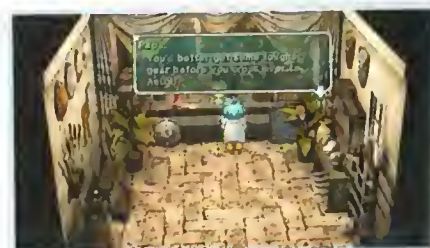

SPECTACLES

A magic pair of glasses a character can use in combat to "see" enemy data (name, current HP, current MP, weaknesses, and strengths). Spectacles are also used by the Appraising specialty to determine the identity of items that begin with a question mark. (?ITEM, ?HERB, ?MINERAL, ?ARMOR, and so on). This item proves handy while exploring dungeons.

WEAPON SHOPS

Weapon Shops provide armaments, armor, and accessories at a price. While the cursor highlights an equipment piece, the window in the upper-left corner displays who can equip the item and whether equipping it raises or lowers the character's statistics.

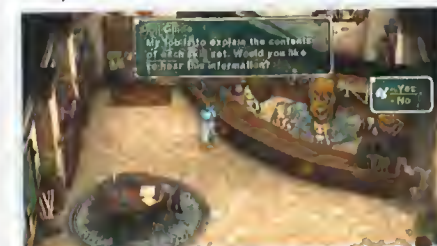

INN

The party can rest at Inns to fully recover HP and MP and to remove all status ailments, including Incapacitation (0 HP). Inns charge a fee based on the number of characters in the party, usually 30 Fol per person.

SKILL GUILDS

Many towns and cities feature Skill Guilds, wherein the party can purchase skill sets and learn new skills. Three employees usually operate each Skill Guild. The person typically centered behind the counter sells the skill sets. Each skill set can only be purchased once. Another person behind the counter, typically located off to the side, lists the skills included in each set.

Many Skill Guilds also feature an advisor who stands on your side of the counter. Speak to this person for advice on developing your characters' skills and specialties. Skill advisors typically make references to enemies appearing in the area, and how to tailor character's skills to dominate in combat.

ROTATING THE VIEW

While traveling the World Map from one location to another, you can rotate the view by pressing and holding either the L button or the R button.

Mini-map

While the party explores the World Map, a small, semi-transparent mini-map appears in the lower-right corner of the screen. The default display shows the entire World Map. Red dots on the mini-map represent towns and important locations, while the red arrow indicates the party's location and the direction in which they are facing. Press the START button to change the display; the mini-map zooms in closer and rotates to match the camera view. Press the START button again to remove the mini-map from the screen, and press it a fourth time to return to normal display.

Mini-map normal view.

Mini-map zoomed.

Mini-map turned off.

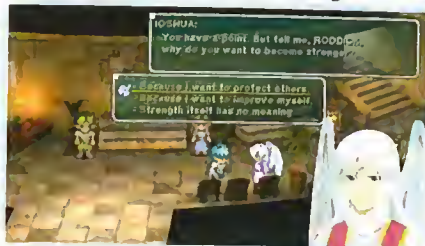

Private Action

When approaching certain towns and cities, the Private Action logo may appear in the upper-right corner of the screen. When this occurs, press the button to enter the town as individuals rather than as a party.

During Private Action mode, Roddick explores the town alone. Additional NPCs may appear during a Private Action and speaking to them may trigger a bonus scene.

Additionally during a Private Action, the party members appear in town and can be spoken to. Doing so often triggers additional dialog scenes. Activating these scenes and making dialog choices during them may improve relations between characters in the party, which can boost combat abilities and unlock bonus scenes during the ending.

Camp Menu

Press the button during map navigation to enter the Camp Menu. The menu allows you to view tons of information about your party, use items, equip new gear, learn skills, develop specialties and use them, rename characters and view overall status, change game settings, configure party alignment and behavior during combat, and save your game. The control scheme changes slightly when the Camp Menu is open.

Default Controls—Camp Menu

BUTTON PRESS	WHAT IT DOES

button	Select option
button	Toggle additional information (items)
button	Cancel, go back

SPECIAL ARTS

As characters achieve new experience levels, they learn powerful special arts and/or spells that can be deployed in battle. Any special art must be assigned to the L button or R button before it can be used in combat. Button assignments can be made in the Special Arts/Spells screen. Simply select a character, then choose a button to assign and choose a special art.

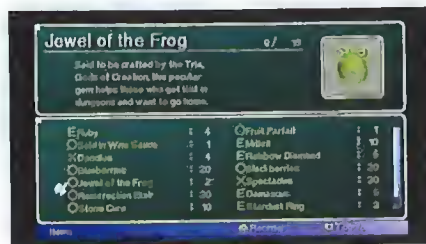

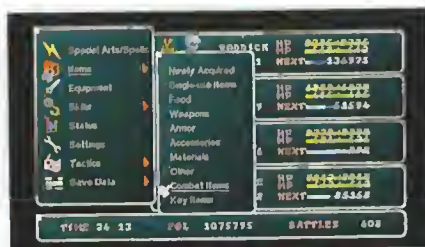

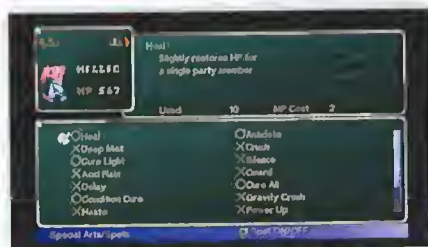

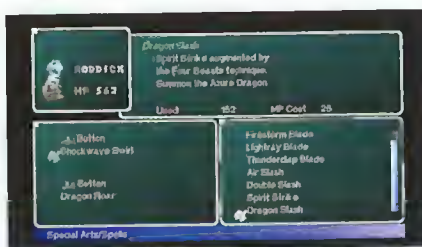

Spells are slightly different from special arts. Although spells can be assigned to the L or R buttons for quick use in combat, the spell caster is not limited to only these two. When controlling a character knowledgeable of spells, press the △ button during combat to open the Control Circle. Select “Symbology” and then choose a spell to cast. Select your targets, if necessary, and press the ⓧ button to confirm.

Healers such as Millie and Ioshua learn two types of spells. Healing or status curing spells cannot be assigned to the L or R buttons. To use them during combat while controlling a healer, select "Symbology" from the character's Control Circle, and then choose a spell to cast and whom to cast it upon. Healing and status curing spells can be used between battles by selecting the Spell Usage option on the healer's Special Arts/Spells screen.

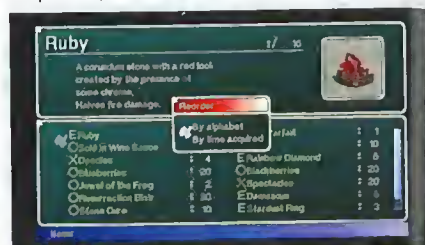

ITEMS

To say that items play a large role in STAR OCEAN: First Departure is a tragic understatement. Items not only allow party members to recover from damage and status afflictions, they can also be used in Item Creation and other specialties to create new and better items. Items are categorized and viewable in lists by type in the Camp Menu.

While viewing any item list, move the cursor to an item to view its likeness and description. Press the  button to view additional information about the displayed item.

Press the  button in any item list to open the Reorder menu. Items can be ordered alphabetically (making them easier to find during combat) or by time acquired, from most recent to least.

NEWLY ACQUIRED

The 16 most recently acquired items are displayed in this category, regardless of type.

SINGLE-USE ITEMS

This category features healing and curative consumables for use in combat or the field. Most single-use items restore HP, MP, or cure persistent status ailments.

FOOD

Items in this category include fully prepared dishes ready to be eaten for a variety of effects, mostly restoring HP and MP for one or all.

WEAPONS

This category displays and allows the equipment of items that raise characters' Attack and Hit statistics, among others. Some weapons also provide the user with elemental attack advantages. Each character can only equip certain weapon types. To equip an item, highlight it with the cursor, press the  button, and choose a character capable of equipping the weapon.

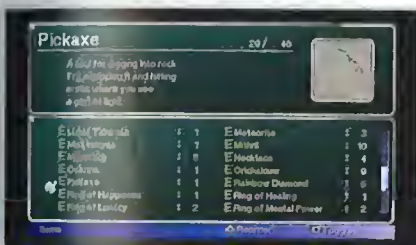

ARMOR

Equipment pieces in this category include Armors, Shields, Helmets, and Greaves that raise Defense. These pieces may also increase other statistics or add elemental protection.

ACCESSORIES

This category features items that characters can equip in either of their two Accessory slots. Accessories offer a wide variety of benefits—and sometimes penalties—to the wearer, such as statistical increase, elemental protection or vulnerability, MP usage decrease, and more.

The Accessories category is also the home of tools that can be equipped and used in certain locations. A Pickaxe, for instance, can be equipped and used to mine shiny spots for minerals. The Flint can be used to create explosions in areas where flammable gas vents, revealing new areas in the process. The Ocarina can be used to call upon a lonely kitty. To use tools, equip them in the Accessory slot of any party member and press the \times button at the appropriate location to use the tool.

MATERIALS

The Materials category includes items for use with specialties, such as cooking, music playing, writing, weapon customization, and more. Some materials can be consumed or equipped for minor benefits, but prove more useful when refined or combined with other items using specialties or super specialties.

OTHER

Contained in the "Other" category are items that have unique uses, such as Cinderella Glass (lowers prices in a shop), Jewel of the Frog (allows escape from dungeons to the World Map), or Bunny Whistle (makes World Map travel fast and uneventful). The Other category also houses keepsakes, art pieces, books, fanfics, and musical instruments used with the Music specialty.

COMBAT ITEMS

This category is a sorting option, allowing you to view the items that can heal allies or damage enemies during combat. Healing items in this category can be used to recover HP, MP, or status ailments in the field.

KEY ITEMS

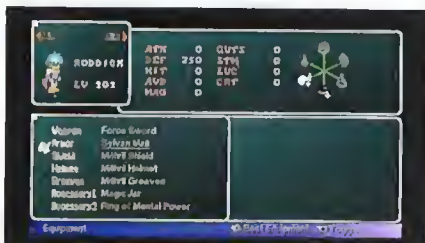

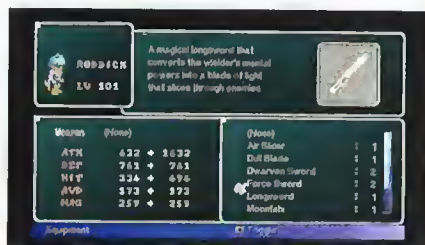

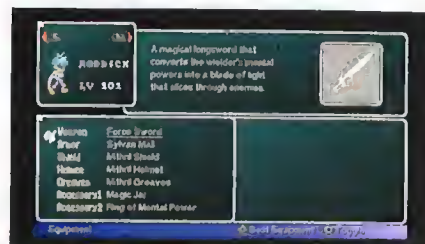

Key items are obtained during the course of story events. Oftentimes, the party cannot access certain areas or trigger certain events without possessing the proper key item.

EQUIPMENT

The Equipment screen allows the player to equip characters with Weapons, Armor, and Accessories to promote their abilities in combat. While viewing the Equipment screen, press the Δ button to automatically equip the character with the strongest available weapons and armor.

Choose an equipment slot to open the Inventory List screen. The party's inventory displays on the right, while the character's statistics appear on the left. As you move the cursor to highlight equipment pieces, the statistics in the left window show the change in the character's statistics, should that piece be equipped. Press the \times button to change the character's equipment to the highlighted piece.

On any Equipment screen, press the \square button to display extra information about a piece, including statistical increases and elemental benefits or penalties.

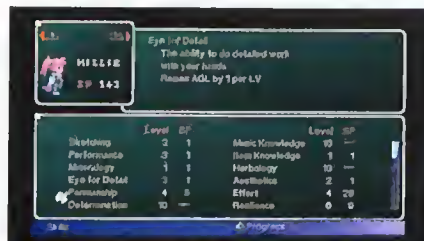

Skills

The Skills options enable the player to increase character skill levels, thereby learning new specialties and super specialties in the process. The player can then use character specialties to work with items, possibly creating new and greater treasures in the process!

LEARN SKILLS

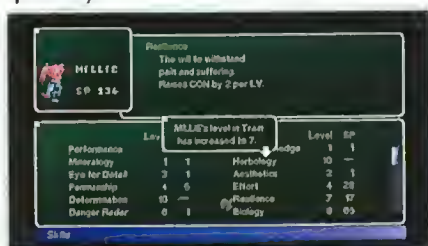

This option opens the Learn Skills screen, displaying the skills available to the first character in the party order. Press the L and R buttons to cycle through party members.

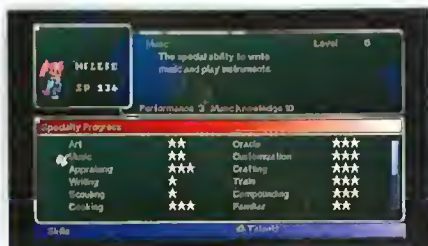

Skills can be purchased in sets from Skill Guilds, as mentioned previously in this chapter. Once a skill is purchased, Skill Points accumulated by leveling up in combat can be exchanged to raise a character's skill level.

When certain combinations of skills are raised, the character learns a new specialty. When two or more characters know the same combination of specialties, the party learns a super specialty.

To view a character's progress toward learning specialties or super specialties, press the △ button on the Learn Skills screen to open the Progress screen. Use the cursor to highlight specialties and super specialties the character is in the process of learning. A description of each specialty and the required skills are displayed in the upper half of the screen.

Remember that talents are a key factor in the success or failure of using a specialty. There is no point in teaching a specialty to a character if he or she does not have the capacity to develop the talents required for successful use. On the other hand, some characters can develop talents if they attempt to use a specialty often enough. Press the △ button while viewing the Progress screen to display the character's current talents. More about talents is detailed in the section about the Status screen.

COMBAT SKILLS

Skills learned by purchasing "combat" skill sets function in a different capacity. Combat skills are displayed in a green font on the Learn Skills screen. Spending Skill Points to level up combat skills improves the character's speed and prowess in battle. Combat skills can also be deactivated by pressing the □ button while highlighting a combat skill on the Learn Skills screen.

Special Fighting Tactics (SFT) can only be obtained through game events. When an SFT skill is acquired and leveled up, the character has a high chance of learning new special arts and spells each time he uses some other special art or skill. More on this is detailed in Chapter 1: Characters of this guide.

ITEM CREATION

The Item Creation screen allows characters who know certain specialties to practice and perfect them through item identification, modification, reproduction, and creation. Any specialty that requires the use of one or more items is included on this screen, including:

Art: The special ability to breathe life into paintings and sculptures created by your character.

Customization: The special ability to modify one's weapons into something new and improved.

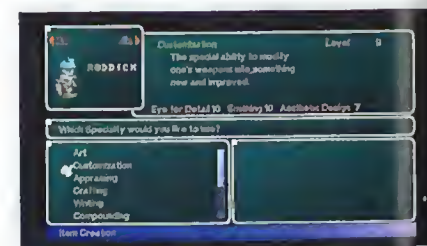

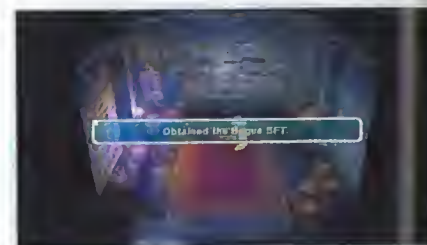

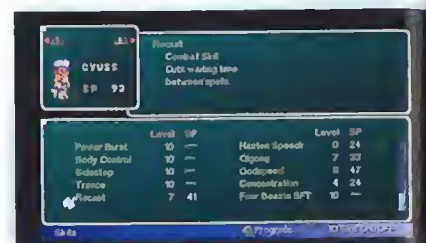

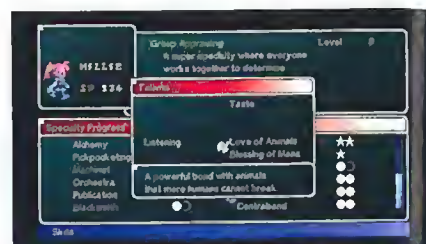

Appraising: The special ability to identify items with names that begin with a question mark.

Crafting: The special ability to craft gems and precious metals into original accessories.

Writing: The special ability to pen books on skills you have learned that raise the reader's skill level.

Compounding: The special ability to compound two herbs to create medicine.

Cooking: The special ability to process raw ingredients into food.

Alchemy: The special ability to turn iron into gems and other precious metals.

Survival: The special ability to forage an area of the World Map for useful items; costs 4 MP per attempt.

Replication: The special ability to create an exact replica of an item.

Machinist: The special ability to create a variety of useful machinery for an adventurer.

SPECIALTY

The Specialty screen allows the player to utilize or change settings for characters who know specialties that do not involve the creation or consummation of items, including:

Oracle: The special ability to pick up useful (or not) messages from the Tria, the gods of creation.

Music: The special ability to write music and play instruments.

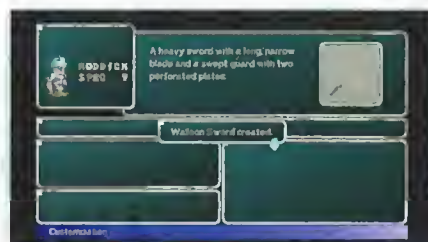

Train: The special ability to lower one's attributes in return for gaining more EXP in battle.

Scouting: The special ability to raise or lower the frequency of battles at will.

Familiar: The special ability to train an animal to leave dungeons and other places to go shopping.

SUPER SPECIALTY

The Super Specialty screen allows the player to use or change settings for specialties learned by one or more party members.

Status

The Status screen displays all the statistics and data that determine a character's combat prowess and abilities to learn and excel in new specialties. The Status screen also allows the player to change a character's display name.

CHANGE NAME

The display name for the character is at the top of the Status screen, with his or her full name in parentheses below. The display name can be changed, but the character's full name cannot. Change the display name by pressing the △ button while viewing the person's Status.

On the Input Name screen, press the ○ button to delete characters, or highlight "Delete" with the cursor and press the × button. Move the cursor to the desired letter and press the × button to type it in the name line. When finished, press the START button or highlight "Return" with the cursor and press the × button to confirm the character's new display name.

RACE

The character's race is displayed on the Status screen. There are five races involved in the events that transpire in STAR OCEAN: First Departure:

Fellpool: The main citizenry of Roak. They are humanoid with pointy ears and furry tails.

Lesser Fellpool: A minority citizenry of Roak. These people are humanoid with tails like Fellpools but marked by larger ears, fangs, and catlike features.

Highlander: A royal citizenry of Roak. Highlanders closely resemble Fellpools, but also have body and facial stripes.

Featherfolk: A rarely encountered citizenry of Roak. Featherfolk are frail creatures resembling humans with wings.

Human: Space travelers from the Planet Earth. They have rounded ears and lack tails.

CHARACTER STATISTICS

Each character's statistics determine his or her prowess in combat. The higher the statistics, the greater ease with which he or she can defeat opponents.

Character Statistic Explanation

ABBREV.	WHAT IT MEANS
HP	Health (current/maximum)
MP	Magic points (current/maximum)
LV	Current level
EXP	Experience points obtained so far.
NEXT	Experience points needed to reach the next level.
STR	Strength
CON	Constitution
DEX	Dexterity
AGL	Agility
INT	Intelligence

ABBREV.	WHAT IT MEANS
ATK	Attack Power
DEF	Defensive Strength
HIT	Attack hit accuracy
AVD	Ability to evade attacks
MAG	Magic force. Determines power of magic spells.
LUC	Luck
STM	Stamina
GUTS	When high, the character can perform critical hits more often and can withstand normally fatal attacks.

ELEMENTAL STATUS

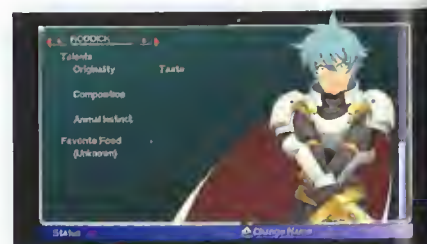

The Elemental Status icon of a character indicates if a character is receiving any elemental benefits (+) or penalties (-) from the equipment worn. Elemental bonuses to attack can increase damage if the target is weak against a particular element. However, elemental bonuses can be nullified or absorbed to heal the target if the target is strong against a particular element. If a character's attacks are healing an enemy (as indicated by green damage numbers instead of white ones), then change the character's equipment to something without an elemental bonus.

TALENTS

A character's talents indicate his ability to succeed when using certain specialties. Each character has a base chance to possess a talent at the start of the game. If the character does not have a certain talent at the start, using an associated specialty can sometimes develop it. This is known as learning the character's "Secret" talent.

However, since the talent is required for a chance of success in using the associated specialty, keep in mind that this paves the way for many failures during Item Creation and other specialty use before successful acquisition of the talent.

Talent List

NAME	DESCRIPTION	SUCCESS W/SPECIALTY	LEARNED FROM
Originality	The ability to modify objects based on your sense of style.	Customization +5%, Crafting	Crafting
Taste	The ability to discover flavors that can wow the masses.	Cooking	Cooking
Nimble Fingers	The ability to move your fingers exactly as willed.	Crafting, Pickpocketing, Mochinist	Crafting, Mochinist
Design Sense	An ability required in the arts that is governed by inspiration.	Art, Mochinist	Art, Mochinist
Composition	The ability to transfer your ideas onto paper.	Writing	Writing
Rhythm Sense	The ability to grasp the rhythms of a piece of music.	Music	Music
Listening	The ability to grasp the tones of a piece of music.	Music	Music
Love of Animals	A powerful bond with animals that mere humans cannot break.	Familiar	Familiar
Animal Instinct	A primal instinct that can sense what cannot be put in words.	Scouting	Scouting
Blessing of Mana	A magical talent that can only be acquired at birth.	Alchemy	None

The following tables indicate each character's chance to possess a talent at the start of the game. If the character does not possess it, the starting chance to learn it as a "Secret" talent is listed. The secret development chance starts with a base chance and increases by one point with each attempt. If a character develops a "Secret" talent, 100 Skill Points are earned!

Using Talent Development Tables

As shown here, Ilia bears a good chance to possess several talents at the start. However, she can never develop Originality, Animal Instinct, or Blessing of Mono. Therefore, it is useless to teach her specialties such as Crafting or Customization, Scouting, or Alchemy, since she has no chance to succeed with them while lacking the requisite talents. Ilia has an 80% chance to possess the Composition talent from the start. But if she does not, she begins with a great head start on developing Composition as a secret talent by using the Writing specialty repeatedly, despite failures.

Ronyx, on the other hand, has a very slim chance of possessing the Nimble Fingers talent. He can eventually develop the skill through the use of specialties like Crafting and Mochinist, but can you afford the many failures it will take to achieve success?

Settings

The Settings screen offers a variety of options for changing the operation of the game.

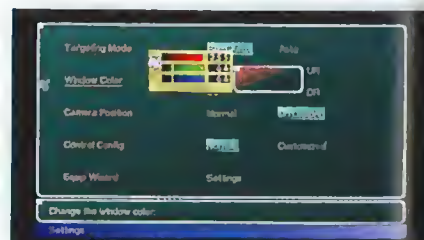

TARGETING MODE

With this option, you can change between Semi-Auto targeting and Auto targeting (default). Refer to "Targeting and Battlefield Overview" in this chapter to read about the slight differences between the two modes.

WINDOW COLOR

This option allows the player to change the color of the message and menu windows. Move the cursor left or right to select one of the corners of the window, and press the button to access an RGB adjustment window. Adjust red, green, and blue to create the desired color for that corner of the window, then press the button to exit. After setting all four corners to the desired colors, press the button again to return to the Camp Menu. The window screen changes to the custom color.

CAMERA POSITION

The player can use this option to determine how the camera behaves during combat:

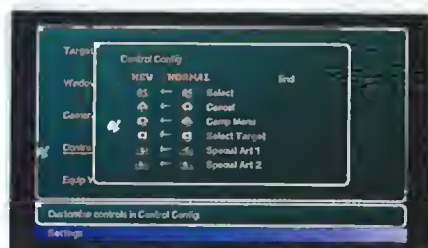

Normal: The camera stays on the player-controlled character most of the time. If a spell caster or healer casts a spell, the camera tilts toward that character during the casting.

On Leader: The camera stays on the player-controlled character and does not move to show spell casters or healers casting spells. This option reduces the amount of camera movement and may prove easier on the eyes.

CONTROL CONFIG

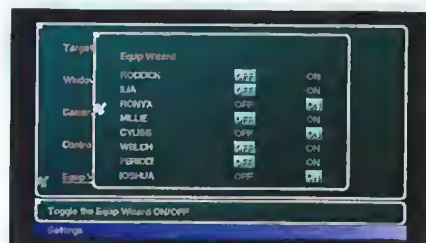

The Control Config option allows you to change between the default control scheme and a custom configuration of your design. To customize your controls, move the cursor to highlight "Customized" and press the X button to open the Control Config screen.

Move the cursor down the Control Config screen to the button you want to change and press the button you want to use instead. The two buttons involved swap functions. When finished, move the cursor to "End" and press the SELECT button (whatever button you've changed it to). To resume using the default control configuration, simply return to this option and move the cursor back to "Normal."

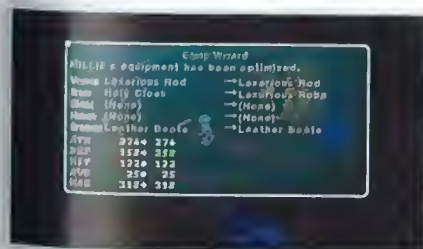

EQUIP WIZARD

This option allows you to activate or deactivate the Equip Wizard function for each character in the party. When this setting is on, the Equip Wizard activates any time a new piece of equipment (weapon or armor) is acquired, whether from a shop or an item chest. The Equip Wizard checks to see if the equipment piece is greater in statistics than the one currently equipped by the character. If so, the new piece is equipped automatically, with a message displaying the change.

If several characters' Equip Wizards are activated, the game starts with the character at the top of the party order and goes down the list. This function may be deactivated automatically after changing a character's equipment manually.

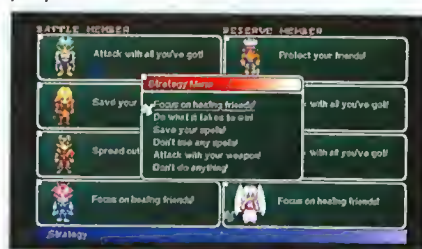

Tactics

The Tactics options allow the player to control how the party enters the battlefield as well as how AI-controlled characters behave.

STRATEGY

The Strategy screen displays all eight party members and the settings that control their combat behavior. The settings determine how the characters fight when controlled by AI, and not the player.

Strategy Settings: Melee Fighters (Roddick, Phia, Dorne, Mavelle, Ilia, Pericci, Cyuss, Welch, T'nique)

STRATEGY	BEHAVIOR
Attack with all you've got!	Attacks and uses special arts.
Protect your friends!	Targets enemies that are attacking allies.
Save your special arts!	Uses special arts 1 out of 5-8 attacks.
Spread out and attack!	Attacks a different target than other allies are attacking.
Stay away from enemies!	Moves if enemy comes within short range.
Don't do anything!	Character takes no action.

Strategy Settings: Spell Caster (Ronyx)

STRATEGY	BEHAVIOR
Attack with all your MP!	Casts spells repeatedly, does not use weapon.
Save your spells!	Casts spells 1 out of 8-10 attacks.
Spread out and attack!	Attacks a different target than other allies are attacking.
Don't use any spells!	Only uses assigned special arts and melee attacks.
Attack with your weapon!	Melee attacks only.
Don't do anything!	Character takes no action.

Strategy Settings: Healers (Millie, Ioshua, Erys)

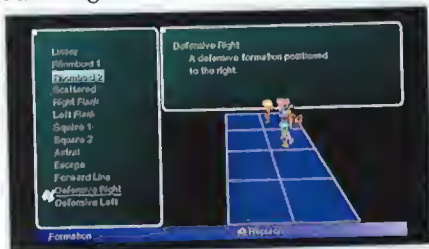

STRATEGY	BEHAVIOR
Focus on healing friends!	Only casts healing spells on wounded characters.
Do what it takes to win!	Casts healing spells on allies and uses special arts against enemies.
Save your spells!	Only casts healing spells when ally HP is critical (orange).
Don't use any spells!	Only uses assigned special arts and melee attacks.
Attack with your weapon!	Melee attacks only.
Don't do anything!	Character takes no action.

REPLACE

The Replace screen displays all eight characters in the party and allows you to switch out any two. Use this function to move members from the battle party into the reserves and vice-versa.

FORMATION

This option changes the starting positions of the four party members on the battlefield. Typically, characters at the top of the party order are placed in forward positions, while characters in the last two slots are placed in protective positions in the rear. The formation chosen helps determine how fast the allies and enemies collide on the battlefield and who gets the advantage.

The default formation is "Linear," which features the characters lined up at the back of the battlefield. While this formation helps to counter ambush situations, it also spreads the party too thin and enables fast-moving enemies to easily divide and conquer.

"Rhomboid 2" and "Forward Line" are two aggressive formations that allow the party to charge the enemies and fight together. "Defensive Right" and "Defensive Left" are impressive formations to use when you are expecting great difficulty, such as during a boss fight.

LEADER

Sets one character as the party leader. When battle begins, the player controls this character.

Save Data

When standing on the World Map or at a Save Point, you can save your progress to a Memory Stick inserted in the PSP unit. Otherwise, the option to save is unavailable while exploring towns and dungeons. The options to load a save game or delete a file are always available.

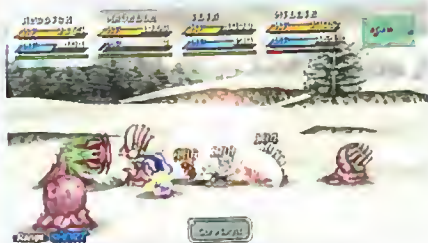

Make Multiple Saves!

Sometimes heading in the wrong direction by mistake can lead into a boss fight and then out of an area before you've collected all the items or reaped all the benefits. Or, you may suddenly realize that an earlier choice has led to a grave mistake. With 32 save files available, it's best to save your game at key points, such as before boss battles or sailing far new continents. To avoid having to replay the game from scratch, do not overwrite or erase these saves.

Combat

While traversing the World Map and hostile areas such as dungeons and enemy lairs, the party encounters random enemies. When this occurs, the screen blurs and the game enters combat mode. Combat mode decides the outcome in the clash between the party and their enemies.

During combat, the four-character ally party squares off against the enemy party. The player controls the leader, but may switch characters at any time between spell animations (press the button). Move the character you control using the directional buttons or analog stick. Press the button when in short range to attack an enemy. Employ devastating special arts by pressing the L or R buttons.

- 1 Character Status: Includes each character's HP and MP gauges, plus the casting time gauge that indicates the time before another spell can be cast.
- 2 Radar: Battle overview graphic. Blue dots indicate ally positions, while red dots indicate enemy positions. The circled blue dot is the player-controlled character.
- 3 Item Use: The item use indicator flashes after an item has been used. Another item cannot be used until the gauge vanishes from the screen.
- 4 Range: Indicates the distance between your character and the targeted enemy. This determines the effectiveness of attacks and special arts.
- 5 Damage: White numbers illustrate damage sustained, while green numbers indicate health recovered.
- 6 Special Art/Spell: Identifies the special art or spell used.

BASIC ATTACK

Press the \otimes button during combat to perform a character's basic attack. Or, press the attack button three times to perform a 3-hit combo. Basic attacks are only successful when the character is at short range from the target.

PARRY

If a character is facing an enemy and not attacking or performing another action, there is a high chance that he or she will parry the normal attacks of an enemy. Therefore, it is not wise to constantly press the \otimes button and hope for the best. Try to watch your target between combos and look for their movements, which may indicate an impending attack. Parry and then counter for the win!

TARGETING AND BATTLEFIELD OVERVIEW

Targeting options can be changed in the Camp Menu between battles. The options are as follows:

Auto: Targeting is handled automatically by pressing the \otimes button. The player character automatically approaches and attacks the nearest enemy. The character changes targets if another enemy is closer when the \otimes button is pressed. Pressing the \blacksquare button while in this mode causes the camera to zoom out for an overview of the battlefield.

Semi-Auto: The character automatically targets, approaches, and attacks the nearest enemy. The character pursues and continues attacking that enemy until the foe is defeated. Press the \blacksquare button to pause the game and change targets. While the game is paused, use the directional buttons or the analog stick to highlight an enemy with the cursor. Press the \otimes button to resume battle and attack the new target. Note that this mode of targeting displays the enemy names, without needing to use Spectacles.

Change Character

Press the  button during combat to pause the game and select a new character to control. While the game is paused, use the directional buttons or the analog stick to highlight a character with the cursor. After deciding who to control, press the  button again to resume the battle in control of the new character. If the character was engaged in casting a spell or other action during the changeover, he or she will finish the action before you can input commands.

When to Change Characters

With the proper setting of every character's strategy, there is little need to switch to other characters during a battle. However, if a character's strategy setting turns out to be something other than what you had in mind, then take control of that character during the battle and use the Tactics option from the Command Circle to make them behave differently.

If the character you control is defeated, paralyzed, or turned to stone, you must switch to another character to regain control over the battle. Otherwise, your allies may be too busy to rush to your aid!

Special Arts

As characters achieve higher experience levels, they learn devastating special arts and spells for use in and out of combat. Special arts take various styles, including double attacks, attack-all in an area attacks, and long-range projectiles where you can attack enemies outside their reach. Press the L button or R button to perform a special art. Note that special arts must be assigned to the L and R buttons in the Special Arts/Spells screen prior to battle.

Status Ailments

Many enemies can inflict status ailments on characters as a result of their attacks. Status ailments affect the characters' combat abilities and may also hamper their progress in the field. Certain items and spells remove status ailments during or after combat.

POISON

Healing item: Aquaberries, Antidote, Medicine Bottle, among others.

HP diminishes over time. Poison continues after the battle has ended. When navigating the map, walking causes HP loss.

PARALYSIS

Healing item: Paralysis Cure, Medicine Bottle, and others.

The character becomes unable to move. This ailment continues after the battle.

PETRIFICATION

Healing item: Stone Cure, Medicine Bottle, among others.

The character becomes unable to move. This ailment continues after the battle.

SILENCE

Healing item: Medicine Bottle

The character is unable to cast spells. This wears off after the battle.

DAZE

Healing item: None

The character is unable to move for a short period of time. Leveling up the Body Control skill can shorten the duration of effect.

INCAPACITATED

Healing item: Resurrection Elixir, Resurrection Mist, and others.

A character collapses when his or her HP reaches zero. An incapacitated character is unable to perform any actions while in this state. This ailment continues after the battle.

Surprise Attacks

Sometimes battles begin with a surprise attack by the enemy. When this occurs, your party starts the fight in a dazed state. The enemies may get first strike advantage, depending on each character's Body Control skill level and any accessories equipped that help characters recover from daze status.

Types of surprise attacks: Back Attack: Enemies appear behind the party; Ambush: Enemies drop in the midst of the party from above; Surround Attack: Enemies surround the party to the front and rear.

Command Circle

Press the  button to open the Command Circle during combat. The Command Circle appears over your character's head. Use the directional buttons or analog stick to scroll left or right through the options, and press the  button to select one. If necessary, the select window opens, allowing you to select items to use, spells to cast, or a new combat strategy for the character when he or she is controlled by AI.

Item: Use an item on an ally or the enemy party; opens the selection window. Allow the cursor to hover over each item momentarily to view the use of each item.

Symbology: Cast a spell; for spell casters only.

Tactics: Change the character's strategy (AI behavior during battle). Must change control to another character to observe the effect.

Escape: Attempt to flee the battle. The chance to escape as well as the time required is determined by the average statistics of the party members compared to the average level of the remaining enemies.

Victory

When the last enemy is defeated, the battle is won. The camera centers on the character who delivered the final blow. A series of messages follow that display how much experience and FOL the party has acquired. Additional messages indicate whether a character leveled up and how many Skill Points he or she received. Combat mode then ends and the game returns to map navigation mode.

Battle Tips

Here are a few general battle tips to follow.

- As mentioned previously, do not attack with wild abandon. Attempt a combo, parry the enemy's counter, and then attack again.
- Team up with others to attack a single foe. A good way to dominate the battlefield is to quickly remove enemies from it. Then, the stragglers are easier to overwhelm.
- Monitor the status of other characters as well as the one you control. Don't wait for spell casters to heal comrades, or they may surprise you by casting another spell.
- If there are no spell casters in the group, stack up and use items like Flare Bombs to damage all enemies at once.
- Conserve MP for major battles. If a character is constantly using special arts and is short on MP, they rapidly drain your supply of Blackberries and Saur Syrups. Either take control of the character until he regains some MP after a few battles, or change his strategy to "Save your special arts!"
- Use Spectacles after a few rounds against tough bosses to determine how far they are from defeat, and use items or spells to refresh comrades' HP and MP accordingly.
- If there are no healers in the group, stock up on Blueberries before leaving any town.
- Save rare items (like Faerie Elixirs and Resurrection Mists) for the final battles of the game.
- Leveling up makes characters stronger, thus making battles easier. If enemies in a new area seem more difficult, then buy better equipment, raise skill levels, and fight a few extra battles against weaker foes to help ease the challenge.

But if Ilia's affection score for Roddick is less than 9, she will not react the same way if he falls in front of her. Love doesn't always go both ways...

Private Action Choices

Use of super specialty Contrabond (50% chance of -1 per relation)

Each character starts with a base affection score for every other character. Thus, it is easier for some characters to reach the high mark in affection for other characters, especially if the two fight several bosses together.

Choices made in character recruitment and areas visited affect the game's story events as well as future recruitment. For instance, the first character to offer to join the party, Cyuss Warren, significantly affects the game. If you recruit Cyuss, then you can never recruit Ashlay Bernbeldt at the Tatroi Arena or Erys at the Old Race Ruin. And there's more:

- If the party stays at the Portmuth Inn 20 times instead of going to the pirates' hideout, then you cannot recruit Pericci later in Kraat.
- If you do not recruit Cyuss or Ashloy, then Phia can be permanently recruited much earlier in the game. Otherwise, you can only recruit her after receiving the Astrol Emblem in Astral City Castle, if there are six characters or less in the party.
- Erys can be recruited at the Old Race Ruin only if Ashloy is in the party, but you deny recruitment to Ioshua.
- T'niqne can always be recruited, as long as there are six party members or less when you defeat him in the D Rank challenge at the Tatroi Bottle Arena.
- Welch can always be recruited, as long as there are seven party members or less when you visit her hut at the southernmost tip of the Silvalant continent.
- After the events in Astral City, if you choose not to go to the Purgatorium to look for the Eye of Truth, then you cannot recruit Ioshua, Mavelle, or Erys. That's quite a missing body count based on one choice, if you think about it!

As you can tell, there are several possible paths through the game and 13 possible final parties. However, this doesn't even account for variations in dialog based on character relationships and Private Actions! To make following the various scenario branches easier, we've created and included Story Flowcharts throughout Chapter 3: Main Quest. These flowcharts illustrate how actions and decisions affect the game. The Game Overview Flowchart at the end of Chapter 3 shows how all the pieces tie together to determine outcome and recruitment.

MAIN QUEST

This chapter contains a complete summary and breakdown of all areas and events occurring during the main quest of STAR OCEAN: First Departure. Each area summary contains a map depicting all locations and items found therein, accompanied by a list of randomly encountered enemies with combat-related data. Each section contains a Story Flowchart describing the order of events and objectives, including any scenario branches that occur. Paragraphs within a section expound upon complex actions the player must complete. Boss encounters with strategy suggestions are contained in boxed sections. Elsewhere in the text, you may notice Character Notes, Tips, Notes, Warnings, and Upgrade Suggestions. It's a good idea to read and follow the advice given in these side sections to get the most benefit from this guide.

The yellow "PA" icons indicate where a specific Private Action will occur. These are also listed in the Story Flowchart that appears at the start of each section.

The purple numbered icons on the area maps indicate the location of potential pickpocket victims. These numbers correspond to the numbers listed in the pickpocket tables.

Items are identified by black-and-white text on the area maps. Note that some items have a pickaxe icon next to them; this means you must use the pickaxe to obtain the item.

The "AP" sidebars refer to specific actions that affect a character's "affection points" (or AP) for other characters.

STORY FLOWCHART

Roddick Farrence

Roddick is a young Fellpool—a race of people with tails—who lives on Planet Roak. He and his friends comprise the Defense Force, a security squad that patrols the village of Kratus. Unfortunately, not much happens in Kratus and Roddick often bemoans his tedious job.

Roddick is mainly a melee fighter. Make sure he has the best equipment at all times, since he is in the party for a majority of the game. At higher experience levels, Roddick learns special arts that he can use in battle to deliver an extra punch.

Millie Chliette

Millie is a cheerful and dynamic girl who utilizes healing symbology magic she learns from her father, Martoth. She helps Roddick and Dorne protect the village of Kratus and keeps them both alive in the process.

Millie's greatest benefits to the party are her abilities to heal and cure status ailments. Her physical attack and defense stats are somewhat weak. The best advice is to set her Tactics to heal others in the Camp Menu and let the game's AI control her a majority of the time. Enemies may target Millie as an easy prey, so it's important to protect her.

Dorne Murtough

A close friend of Roddick and Millie since childhood, Dorne also belongs to the Defense Force of Kratus. He's a big-hearted guy with a core of steel who brings the group together.

Dorne is a heavyweight melee fighter with great ability for physical attack as opposed to special arts use. When controlled by the game's AI, he tends to be a bit reckless. Therefore, switch to controlling Dorne every once in a while to make sure he doesn't needlessly lose HP by getting into bad situations.

EXPLORING KRATUS

While catastrophic events unfold elsewhere in the universe, the Defense Force members lounge around their "headquarters" on a sunny day. The job of the Kratus Defense Force, which includes Roddick, Dorne, and their hyperactive friend Millie, is to protect the village from hostile invasion. Unfortunately, not much happens in Kratus and the village never falls under attack.

Open the chest in the back corner of the Defense Force HQ to obtain Blackberries, an item that restores a single character's Magic Points (MP). Exit the HQ and open the two chests outside to obtain a Flare Bomb and a Resurrection Elixir.

Except for Millie's occasional outburst, not much happens in Kratus.

Open chests in the streets and interiors of Kratus to stock up on various consumables.

Continue to explore the rest of Kratus and speak to all the people in the area. To speak to a person, simply approach them and press the \otimes button. Townspeople, merchants, and other Non-player Characters (NPCs) often divulge useful clues or general world information.

Speak to the townspeople of Kratus to learn about major characters and the game world.

Trade Lines Closed!

Due to trouble in Coule, none of the shops are currently selling items or equipment. However, the clerks are still at their posts and they're happy to entertain the locals.

SPEAK TO MARTOTH

Millie's House is the rectangular domicile in the southeast corner of Kratus. Visit her house and speak to her father, Martoth. Although this may seem like a minor action, this conversation is necessary to keep the main quest moving along. Don't miss the chest in the lower southwest corner of the interior, as the chest contains Blueberries, an item that restores one character's Hit Points (HP).

Engage Martoth in conversation inside Millie's House.

BANDITS ATTACK!

After speaking to at least five people in Kratus, head back toward the Defense Force HQ. As you ascend the steps outside the HQ, bandits attack the village! Descend the stairs and approach the closest group of bandits to engage them in battle.

Approach the bandits to engage them in battle.

Battle Tactics

Under the default tactics settings, the player controls the Party Leader while the other two party members act according to their settings in the Tactics screen in the Comp Menu. Press the ○ button to control another character. Use the cursor to highlight the character you want to control and press the ○ button again to confirm.

Standard enemies that are frequently encountered can be easily dispatched with a few normal attacks. Press the × button to attack with the character's equipped weapon. Press the attack button repeatedly while striking an enemy to perform a 3-hit combo. This input is sufficient to eliminate most commonly encountered enemies.

TAKE IT UP WITH THE BOSS!

Head west into the second area of Kratus, as bandits prowl on the raised level. Approach them to engage them in battle and defeat them. Afterward, the Kratus Defense Force confronts the bandits' boss, Baird.

Baird arrives after the party clears out the other bandits.

BAIRD

HP	260
WEAK VS.	None
ITEM DROP	Blackberry (78%), Fanfic X (10%)

Under the default tactics settings, AI-controlled Dorne should rush out to engage the enemies. Follow him into the fray and eliminate the two Thieves accompanying Baird. Don't allow either Thief to slip past, or they will attack Millie. Since Millie is your healer and doesn't have strong Defense, allowing enemies to attack her is a bad idea.

The heavyset boss doesn't move fast, but avoid letting him slip past Roddick or Dorne to attack Millie. Attack him from both sides with both Dorne and Roddick, and press the attack button repeatedly to perform full combos.

Finance Your Dreams

It's worth noting that Baird will drop Fanfic X about 10% of the time. This item sells for 125000 Fol! Such funding should provide an excellent start for intrepid adventurers just starting out.

AFTERMATH

The next day, Millie stands outside the Defense Force HQ. Speak to her to go inside. There, the Captain rewards the trio with Blueberries x5 and Twice-cooked Pork. Exit the town of Kratus. Explore the continent of Muah if you like and take part in random battles while exploring the continent.

Return to Defense Force HQ to reap your rewards.

Exit Kratus, explore the World Map a bit, and then return.

URGENT REQUEST

Return to Kratus and enter the Defense Force HQ. The Captain hands over a SOS letter from Coule, the town to the north of Kratus on the World Map. Millie's father Martoth enters and forbids the heroes to travel to Coule; he goes instead. After a few more events, Millie leaves the party and heads to Coule on her own. Roddick and Dorne must pursue her.

Pursue Millie to Coule.

Martoth warns the heroes to leave Coule and never return.

CHECK ON DORNE

Martoth has contracted the disease afflicting Coule. Heartbroken, the heroes return to Kratus automatically. During the night, exit Roddick's house and approach Dorne near the north gate of Kratus.

Approach Dorne during the night to continue the quest.

RETURN TO COULE

Exit Kratus and cross the World Map, heading north. Return to Coule and continue through town to the northern exit. Follow the mountain path on the World Map to reach Mt. Meteor.

Enemies encountered on the path to Mt. Meteor tend to be a little stronger than previous foes.

THREE HEROES, ONE PATH

Follow the linear path from area to area through Mt. Meteorx. At several points, the party may encounter Fellworms. These foes are a bit stronger than enemies previously encountered. Switch often between controlling Roddick and controlling Dorne during battles to make sure neither one uses too many skills or allows their HP to drop too much.

In the fourth area, examine the pond and drink its water to restore the HP and MP of the entire party!

Examine the twinkle on the ground northwest of the recovery pond to find a Rose Hip.

SPACE TRAVEL

In the sick bay onboard the spaceship Calnus, approach the Save Point for a brief explanation. Upon touching a Save Point, a small audio chime occurs. While standing in this spot, the Save function becomes available in the Camp Menu.

Save Points allow you to record your progress in dungeons and other special indoor areas. Always take advantage of Save Points wherever encountered.

DEALING WITH STOWAWAYS

Return through the Connection Corridor to the 3F Elevator Hall. Step on the pad and select a floor. Levels 4F (Bridge) and 2F (Break Areas) are optional. You can visit those floors and speak to the Calnus crewmembers to learn more about space exploration and life aboard a star cruiser.

Ride the elevator to 1F to view a brief scene about the airlock. Ilia explains that going outside the ship is a very bad idea. Next, use the elevator to return to 3F. A party of Fellworms slipped onboard during your teleport and they're about to attack!

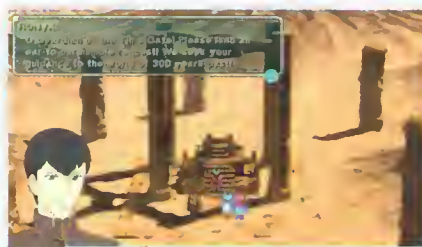

Take the opportunity to explore the Calnus. Visit every floor and then return to 3F to continue the story.

With just Millie and Roddick in the party, it's mainly up to the blue-haired protagonist to expel the intruders.

TRAVEL BACK THROUGH TIME

Following a long series of events, the heroes go through the time portal on Planet Styx. This allows them to travel back in time to Planet Roak's past in order to stop the disease ravaging the planet.

The heroes go through the time portal on Planet Styx to put an end to the current calamity on Roak.

Pickpocketing Charts

Pickpocketing requires a character with the Nimble Fingers talent, or the ability to develop it, the Pickpocketing specialty, and the Thief's Glove equipped. The Thief's Glove is available for sale in Ionis. To steal from an NPC, approach the person and press the  button. Each NPC's difficulty level determines how easy or difficult it is to steal items from them, ranging from 1 to 16. The higher the thieving character's Pickpocket specialty skill level, the better the chances of stealing an item. Note that party members (or player characters) must be in your current party and pickpocketed during a Private Action.

PROPER ATTIRE

The heroes are accidentally separated while entering the time portal on Planet Styx. Millie has left the party for the time being and Ilia from the Calnus takes her place. Roddick and Ilia are now in Roak's distant past, when Kratus was still called Kraat.

Ilia decides that her futuristic clothes may not go over well with the natives. If the first option is chosen, there are three ways to find clothes for Ilia: buy, borrow, or steal. To give Ilia the clothes, return to the south entrance. She then joins the party.

At this point, a choice occurs. If you choose, "I'll go look around", Ilia's affection for Roddick increases by 2 points. If you choose "Don't worry about it", her affection decreases by 1 point. Affection points affect the way characters react to one another in battle, and also affect the game's ending.

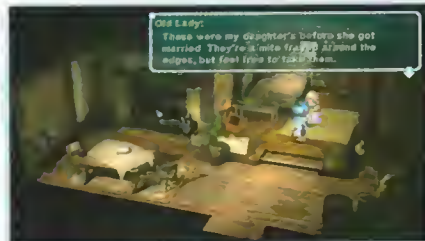

Ilia and Roddick find themselves stranded in the post.

The Item Shop owner tries to sell some clothes for 10 Fol. Since there are two ways to obtain clothes free of charge, this is not recommended.

Check the clothesline in the center of town. You can steal some clothes hanging from the line, but can you live with yourself?

Speak to the Old Lady in the home at the north end of town. Choose the option to "Ask her about clothes." and she gives you some clothes for free.

Ilia Silvestri

Ilia is an officer from the Terran Alliance battleship Calnus. She is highly intelligent, holds a Ph.D., and is thoroughly trained in martial arts. Ilia attacks barehanded, with gloves, or with knuckles, and the special arts she learns also involve martial arts or brawling.

Unless you want Ilia to use all her MP immediately, set her strategy to "Save your special arts!" When controlled by the game's AI, she tends to dive into battle and quickly get into trouble. Choose a tight party formation so that you can stay by Ilia's side and make sure she doesn't get surrounded.

Private Actions

Upon exiting Kraat, the Private Action icon appears on-screen. This indicator appears when the party approaches the entrance of a previously visited location and indicates that a Private Action may be available. Press the  button to activate Private Action mode.

During a Private Action, the party splits up to explore the town individually. While controlling Roddick, you can interact with other party members appearing elsewhere in town. These interactions can sometimes bolster character relationships.

During the first Private Action in Kraat, find Ilia in town. Speak to her to engage a long scene about postal services on Roak and also to view a scene that shows Ronyx and Millie in transit.

Private Actions are listed on the Story Flowchart at the beginning of each section in the walkthrough, at the point during which they become available. More details on Private Actions are documented in Chapter 4: Extra Quests.

UNSUITABLE FOR THE JOB

Enter the Item Shop on the mid-level of Haute. After overhearing Badam's and Dean's conversation, approach Badam and speak to him. Choose the option "I'd like to buy some tools" to view his inventory of sale items. Choose the option "I'd like to talk" to discuss the mission he offers. He agrees to let you do it, but he insists that you find a proper sword first. Accept the job and leave the store to find a sword.

Badam has a job that pays, but he's too worried to send out unequipped greenhorns like Ilia and Roddick.

Who better to ask for a sword than the Master? This refers, of course, to the slippery merchant previously seen arguing with an adventurer near the entrance of Haute. Speak with him and agree to buy his questionable wares. An "adventurer" steps in, warning the heroes not to buy the item from him.

Return to Badam. Roddick and Ilia learn that Badam already assigned the job to the "adventurer." Although the honorable warrior offers to step aside, Badam asks him to join Roddick and Ilia on the journey. The young man finally introduces himself as Cyuss Warren, sword master extraordinaire! Cyuss joins the party on a temporary basis and Badam hands over 200 Fol, the permit, and a Longsword.

Speak to the "Master" near the south entrance to try to purchase a sword.

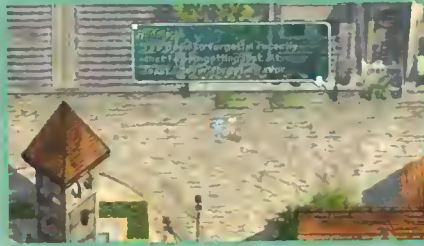

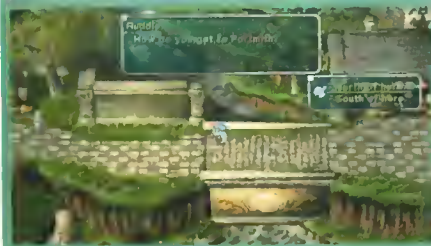

Cyuss Warren briefly joins Roddick and Ilia on their journey to Partmith.

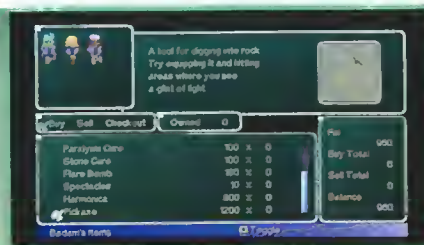

Help Poor Ruddle

Ruddle stands on the mid-level of Haute, looking confused about traveling in Muoh. Tell Ruddle to go "north" to reach Partmith. When you get there, look for him in the first area and speak to him to receive a Faerie Elixir!

Equip for Mining!

Although the Pickaxe is a pricey item, it is necessary for mining ore and hidden items in certain caves that the party explores at a later point in the game. The Pickaxe is available here and in Partmith, so buy it as soon as your funds allow.

Cyuss Warren

Cyuss is a Highlander youth who has left his past behind to seek out adventure and prove himself as the strongest swordsman in the world. Enduring hard times recently, his personality is a little rough around the edges. However, he is a good guy in the guise of a "friendly rival."

Cyuss is a powerhouse on the battlefield, capable of inflicting great damage with his Broadsword attacks. Like Ilia, he doesn't mind diving into the thick of battle and sometimes gets into trouble. Use a tight formation when Cyuss is in the battle party to ensure that you can cover his back. Even when set to "Attack with all you've got," Cyuss won't likely use his special arts too frequently.

Want the Skills? Gotta Pay the Bills.

In Haute, the Skill Guild shares retail space in Badam's Items. Speak to the Guildmaster to purchase the level 1 skill set for Knowledge, Sense, Technical, or Combat. Learning skills improves the characters' abilities in battle and also improves the party's item appraisal and item creation specialties. For information regarding the skills acquired by purchasing each skill set, speak to the woman with blue hair behind the counter ("Skill Guide"). For some advice on building characters' skills, speak to the Advisor standing in the corner at the end of the counter.

To start off on the right foot, consider purchasing the Combat 1 skill set and the Technical 1 skill set if funds allow. But keep in mind that all sets include a mix of skills that prove beneficial to specialties and crafting as well as combat.

QUICK PICKUP

Portmith is the biggest town visited so far. Take in the scenery by visiting every area and each residence and speak to all the citizens to get a true sense of the ancient world.

If you sent Ruddle north from Haute, you can find him near the entrance to receive a reward for helping him get here!

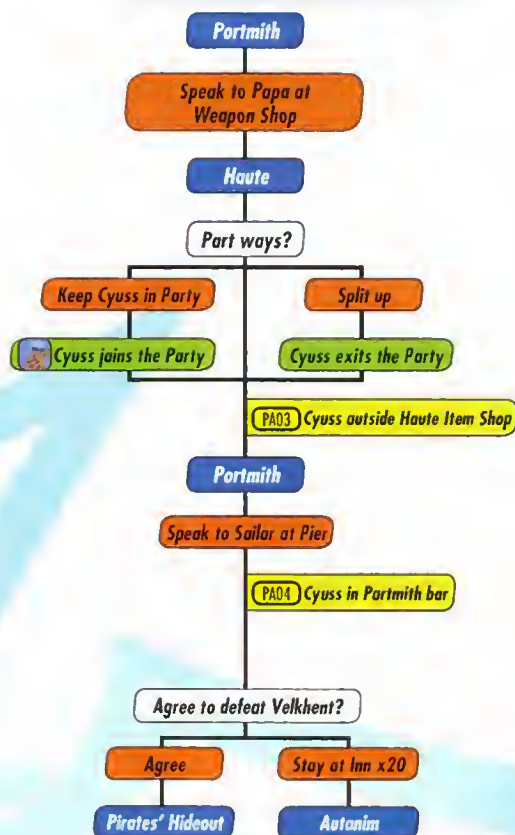

The Sense 2 skill set is for sale at the Skill Guild for only 1600 Fol.

Ascend the north stairs to the upper level of Portmith, then head east to find an obscured set of stairs leading down to the Weapon Shop. Inside, the clerk gives the party a bizarre item to take to Badam.

Couriers must sometimes deliver some unique parcels.

STORY FLOWCHART

BACK TO HAUTE

Badam seems happy you fulfilled your duties and brought him the item, whatever it is...

Return to Haute and enter Badam's Item Shop. He takes the strange statue and gives the party 600 Fol as a reward. Exit the shop after restocking the party's supplies.

CRITICAL DECISION

Outside the shop, Cyuss mentions leaving. From the options provided, choose "Treasure hunt?" to learn more about what Cyuss is looking for at Mt. Metorx. Choose the option "Can you go with us?" to ask Cyuss to join the party permanently, or "Let's split off here" to send him packing for the rest of the game. Refer to the "Game Overview Flowchart" at the end of this chapter to see how recruitment choices affect whether or not other characters will join the party.

The decision to recruit Cyuss into the party or send him away has long-lasting ramifications on events and character recruitment for the remainder of the game.

DELIVER ITEM TO BADAM.

All party members +1 for each other

CHOICE:

"Can you go with us?": Cyuss +1 for Roddick

"Let's split off here.": No affection points

WARNING! Abandon the Abandoned Mine!

If you asked Cyuss about his treasure hunt and allowed him to join the party, he mentions something about searching for a special treasure in an abandoned mine in the Mt. Meteor area. While returning through Mt. Meteor after completing Bodom's mission, Cyuss stops the party to reveal the hidden entrance to the mine (behind the boulders of the far end of the first oreo).

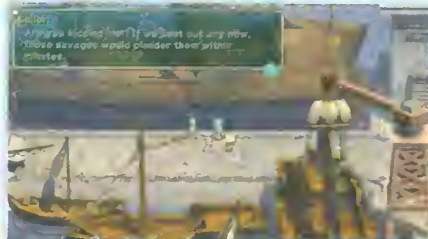

Enemies encountered in the abandoned mine are far too strong for a rookie party. The difficulty cannot be managed until a much later point in the game. Look for another tip later in this guidebook that indicates a good time to try.

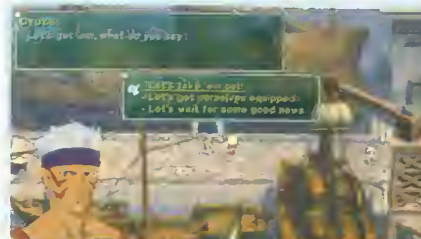

SEA TROUBLES

Return to Portmith, rest and buy equipment. After doing so, head to the pier on the west side of town and speak to the Sailor on the northern dock. The sailor explains that traveling to the Astralian continent is too dangerous because of a group of pirates led by the Velkhent.

Choose the option "Let's take 'em out" to travel to the pirates' hideout and defeat their leader, or choose the option "Let's wait for some good news" and stay at the Portmith Inn 20 times to skip the pirates' hideout stage entirely. The latter option costs a lot of Fol and prevents the party from gaining some much-needed loot and experience. For the sake of all first-time adventurers, accept the mission to take out the pirates.

Speak to the Sailor to learn about the situation with the pirates preventing travel to Astral.

Accepting the mission to wipe out the pirates is crucial to character development, as well as securing free travel to Astral.

SAILING TO THE PIRATES' HIDEOUT

When you're ready, approach the small skiff on the south side of the top pier and choose the option "Yeah! Let's go!" to travel to the pirates' hideout.

Approach the skiff on the south side of the north pier to sail to the pirates' lair.

Prepare to Prevent Poison!

Purchasing some Antidotes and anti-poison accessories is a good idea before sailing off to the pirates' hideout. Some of the enemies encountered there inflict poison during combat. Poison is a permanent condition that drains a character's health continuously until a cure is administered. Preparation is the best way to avoid consuming all of your recovery items too quickly.

Enter the pirates' hideout and head east. One plan involves navigating the eastern branch, collecting all the treasures located there, and then returning to Portmith for a short stay at the Inn. Buy new equipment if possible and return to the hideout to finish the stage.

THE LOCKED STAIRWELL

Descend to Level B1. Collect the four items from the corridor to the east before proceeding south. The party encounters a barred door; head east to the dead end, where a chest contains a Necklace. Pull the switch next to the chest to remove the barrier.

Use the Save Point near the beginning of Level B2 to record your progress. Proceed to the next area and slide across the ice at an angle to reach the north door. Go through the door to encounter the first boss.

USING THE FLINT

The defeated Velkhent drops a Flint. Equip this item in one character's Accessory slot. When standing in a location where methane gas vents from the ground, press the \otimes button to spark the Flint and create an explosion. The blast destroys rock walls and reveals new areas. For instance, return to level 1F and head west from the ice patch. Use the Flint to demolish the area with the gas vents to reveal a hidden chamber; the chest inside contains a Resurrection Elixir.

Use the Flint to create explosions at locations where methane gas vents from the floor.

VELKHENT

HP	2500
WEAK VS.	Earth, Water, Fire, Wind, Light, Dark
ITEM DROP	Green Beryl (8%)

A Robber Axman and a Bushwhacker accompany the Velkhent. The strategy to employ here depends on whether or not Cyuss is in the party. If Cyuss is not in the party, then stay together, attack the same enemy simultaneously, and wipe out the enemy troops one by one. If Cyuss is in the party, then triangulate by moving either Roddick or Cyuss behind the enemy group.

Set the strategy of all characters to "Attack with all you've got!" so that AI-controlled characters use their special arts repeatedly to wipe out the enemies faster. The Velkhent is weak against virtually any elemental attack, so use Roddick's Firestorm Blade repeatedly to finish him.

B3F

SWEET SYRUP

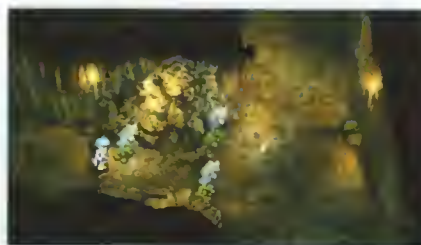

Another gas vent area is located across from the stairs between 1F and B1. Use the Flint at this location to reveal a passage that connects to the rest of the hideout.

Using the Flint at the beginning of B1 reveals a whole new area to explore.

THE TRICK GAS VENTS

Explore the rest of B1 and collect the remaining items before heading south to the stairs down to B2. Avoid the poison gas cloud blocking a curved corridor in the south area. Traveling through the poisonous gas continuously lowers the party's HP. Also, avoid using the Flint at a T-junction to the southeast. This creates a barrier that forces the party to go through the poisonous gas cloud just to get back on track.

Using the Flint at this location will block off the passage, forcing the party to travel south through a poisonous gas cloud. Do not spark up here!

THE TRUE BOSS CHAMBER

Continue down to Level B3. Follow the passage to the end and use the Flint to reveal a chest containing Sweet Syrup. Next, backtrack to the wooden door in the corridor and continue onward until you reach a Save Point. Save your progress before entering the nearby door.

A Sweet Syrup item hidden here should prove useful in the boss battle to come.

BOSS FIGHT!

VELKHENT CHIEF

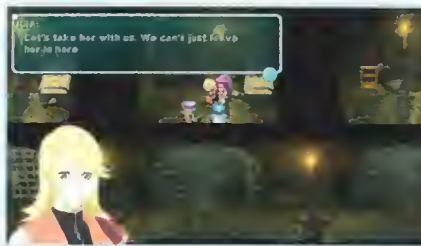

HP	5000
WEAK VS.	Earth, Water, Fire, Wind, Light, Dark
ITEM DROP	Crystal (8%)

A Velkhent guards the Chief, so you must eliminate two tough enemies. As before, both foes are extremely weak against any type of elemental attack. Use Fire Storm Blade, Lightroy Blade, or Thunderclap Blade repeatedly to weaken the enemies. Since both have such high HP, focus on wiping out the Velkhent first so that the party can gang up on the Chief.

THE PRISONER

Following the battle against the Velkhent Chief, Ilia notices an interesting side passage leading out of the room. Head up the stairs to the west into the prison area, where the heroes hear someone making beautiful music. Collect the items from the first two cells, then enter the third cell and speak to the Lesser Fellpool girl. The party automatically travels back to Portmith, which is certainly more convenient than backtracking through the entire hideout.

Free the Lesser Fellpool from captivity in the hideout's prison. Perhaps you'll meet again?

The Ocarina

Don't forget to pick up the Ocarina here. If you don't do so before leaving town, it will not be possible to pick it up later. Without the Ocarina, you can't recruit Pericci or acquire the Bunny Whistle later in the game.

SAILING FOR ASTRAL

Finish all business in Portmith, then speak to the Sailor on the north pier. As a reward for defeating the pirates, your first trip to Astral is free of charge!

ESCORT TO TATROI

If Cyuss Warren was refused admittance to the party, Phia greets Roddick and Ilia at the Autanim dock. Agree to let her accompany the party in Astral and she joins the party temporarily.

Phia greets the party's arrival in Autanim if Cyuss is not in the party. At level 20, she provides great assistance in reaching Tatroi.

AP ESCORT SERVICE

AGREE TO CLEAR THE MONSTER'S

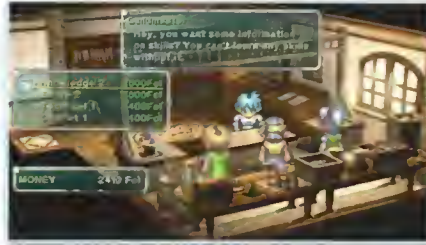

Phia joins party at Autanim: Phia +1 for Roddick

ARTISTRY IN AUTANIM AIN'T WHAT IT SHOULD BE

A "Self-styled Painter" in the area next to the docks offers to draw portraits of Roddick or Ilia for 10 Fol. He is unskilled as an artist, though, and creates useless Doodles—the same item that results when a character fails when using the Art specialty. Avoid supporting this hack.

Meili and her friends stand on the top of the stairs in the area north of the entrance plaza. They're selling a Fonfic for 800 Fol.

The "Trove of Knowledge" Skill Guild sells Knowledge 2 and Sense 2, in addition to Technicol 1 and Combat 1.

The artist in Autanim gladly takes your Fol in exchange for useless Doodles.

Stay at the Inn to view a scene with Millie and Ronyx, safe in Tonis.

Phia Melle

Phia is an Astral Knight who practices the Hishio-Ken sword technique, utilizing two blades with all the grace, speed, and deadliness of a soaring falcon. Although she has known Cyuss all her life and worries about him, she tries to hide her feelings. As a woman trying to prove herself in the Astral Knights, she can sometimes be rather strict.

Phia is a devastating addition to the party. When controlled by the game's AI, she can wander the battlefield and eliminate enemies effortlessly with her skills. Set her strategy to "Attack with all you've got" and let her work wonders!

ROAK WORLD MAP (ASTRAL CONTINENT)

WARNING! Stick to the Road!

Enemies on the Astralian continent are quite a bit tougher than the ones encountered in Muah.

Low-level parties must take care not to venture outward overzealously. For each step taken on the World Map, there is a chance of a random encounter occurring. The terrain walked on determines the frequency of enemies encountered. The terrain type with the fewest enemy encounters per step is the road. Therefore, stay on the road when traveling to your next destination. Otherwise, characters may perish quickly in combat and recovery items may run low.

Grind Some Levels!

The best way to overcome the sudden jump in difficulty encountered when setting out from Autanim is to spend some time wandering around the area surrounding the port, fighting random battles until the party gains several levels. When HP and/or MP runs low throughout the party, return to Autanim and rest at the Inn. Characters at level 14-19 should have an easier time surviving the events that unfold on the Astralian continent. Accumulate experience through random battles until the characters reach such levels.

After gaining levels and accumulating Skill Points, raise the Skill levels of your characters' attacking and healing skills. Raising skills like Knife and Herbology is a good way to bolster novice characters in a short period of time.

Astralian Continent Combat Tactics

Consider changing the party's formation in the Tactics menu to something more tightly grouped than the default "Linear." The "Forward Line" formation allows all melee-attacking characters to reach the enemies quickly and stay in a group. This way, you can defend your allies' backs in every battle with less chance of the enemies dividing and conquering the party. Also, make Iliia the leader. Controlling Iliia manually provides more control over her MP usage as well as the damage she receives.

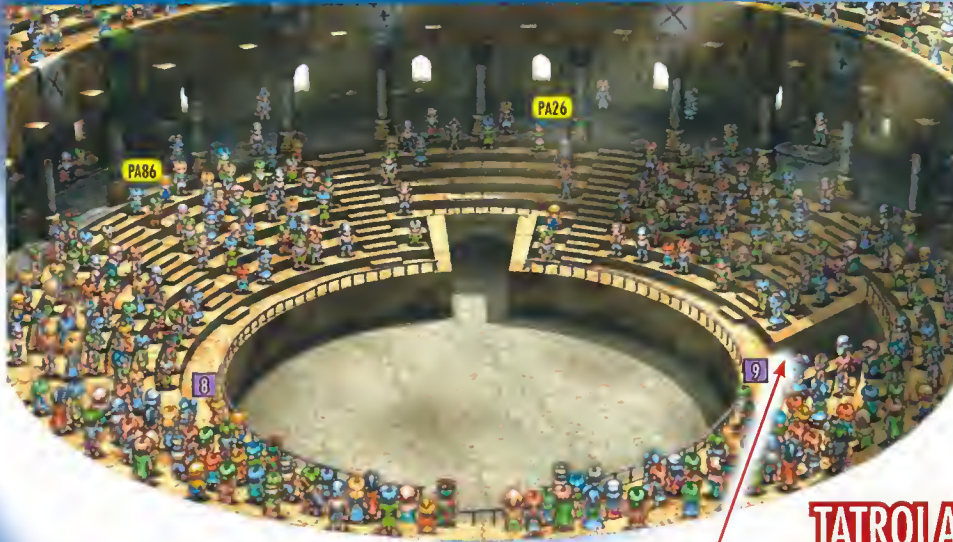

Avoid using fire-based special arts or spells against Sandworm enemies. Rather than damaging the Sandworms, fire attacks heal them instead!

DUNGEON MASTER PUFFY

Puffy stands between the doorways of the Inn and the Home in the first area. For 600 Fol, you can get her to play an old-school RPG. Puffy describes an adventure and leaves the choices at each stage up to you. If you pick the right choices each time, you will win items and prizes!

The first time you play with Puffy, select the following options to win 120 Fol and a Flare Bomb, one time only:

- "I'm going left."
- "Search the corpse."
- "Let me search it already."

After that, select the following options to receive a Murky Potion at the expense of the Flare Bomb:

- "Pray for him."
- "I'll use a Flare Bomb."

If you have a Nuclear Bomb in your possession, choose the following options to win the game and collect 100 Skill Points, 600 Fol, and a Saber, as many times as you like:

- "I'll use an item."
- "Nuclear Bomb."

In the choices afterward, avoid using a Murky Potion or you won't be able to play until you revisit Tatroi.

ARENA

Compete in the Arena with one character to achieve ranking. The higher the rank cleared, the greater the prizes!

AP THE MASTER

FREE TO CLEAR THE MONSTERS.

Ashley joins the party: Ashley +1 for Roddick

Puffy offers prizes and adventure for the imagination, just outside Tatrai's inn.

RECRUIT ASHLAY

If Phia is in your party, she leaves upon the party's arrival at Tatroi. You must find a third member to round out the lineup! If Cyuss is not in the party, visit the Arena to find a suitable party member. Inside, head to the right and go upstairs to enter the spectator area, then go west around the ring. Ashlay is the blue-haired guy standing on the west side of the north entrance to the battle ring. Speak to him and he walks away with a huff. Go back inside the lobby area and head west to the registration desk. Fight and clear one rank in the Arena.

Find Ashlay at the Arena to begin the process of recruitment.

Clear any one rank in the Arena to impress Ashlay.

Afterward, return to the dock at the southeast corner of Tatroi. Ashlay waits at the port and offers to accompany the party to Astral City. Pick the top choice during the conversation to make him join the party.

Agree to accompany Ashlay to Astral City and he joins the party.

Recruit Ashlay Before Visiting Astral Cave

Note that boating to Astral City or entering the Astral Cave prior to the steps noted previously removes Ashlay from the Arena, thereby making him unavailable for the remainder of the game.

PROCEED TO ASTRAL CITY

The only way to reach Astral City is by one of two routes leading out of Tatroi. Either go through the Astral Caves, or speak to the Sailor standing on the dock at the eastern end of Tatroi. Going through the caves allows the opportunity to collect treasures and improve your characters' stats. Sailing directly to Astral City triggers the events that occur there upon the party's arrival. The party must eventually explore the Astral Caves either way and the choice does not affect future events in the game.

Ashlay Bernbeldt

Ashlay is an aging hero from the Demonic Wars. Despite his years and losing his left arm in battle, his sword skills remain undeniable. He is a master seeking a pupil deserving of the knowledge he can pass along.

Ashlay is a fearsome warrior on the battlefield, capable of roaming alone (under the control of AI) and eliminating multiple enemies with ease. Ashlay truly contributes to the battle if set to "Protect your friends!"

SCENARIO BRANCHES

The party experiences a series of events upon their arrival. The events transpiring branch into several scenarios; these scenarios are based on whether or not Cyuss or Ashlay has joined the party.

WITH CYUSS

If Cyuss is in the party, events follow the action to the Astral Oasis Inn. While at the Inn, choose the option "Let's walk around town for a bit" in order to gander at the wares in the local shops. When you're done exploring Astral City, return to the Inn and speak to the Master to resume the story line.

Since you cannot exit to the World Map from Astral, use the Save Point near the south exit to save your progress.

Stay at the Inn to continue events in Astral City.

ACCOMPANIED BY ASHLAY

If Ashlay is in the party, you get to rest in Lord Lias's mansion. Choose to explore the town a bit, rather than turn in. Exit the room and head downstairs. Approach the door to the east underneath the stairs to trigger a short scene.

Exit Lord Lias's mansion and explore Astral City to your heart's content. After doing so, return to the mansion and rest in the same room on the second floor. After an attack on the mansion, Ashlay rejoins the group. Exit and head to the Astral Caves.

BUST OUT PHIA

If Cyuss and Ashlay are not in the party, then choose to rest at the Inn. After Roddick and Ilia hear bells during the night, head to the Astral Castle jail and speak to the guard to go inside. Phia is in jail, accused of attempting to murder Lord Lias. Choose the options to break her out, then move Roddick out of jail to attack the guard. Phia then joins the party.

Head through the Astral Caves to Tatroi. The party does not encounter Darth Widow as in the other scenarios. At Tatroi, Phia proposes that you travel to the Purgatorium. If you accept, she stays with the party.

Leave Phia in jail: Ilia -2 for Roddick; Phia -3 for Roddick

CHOICE 2:

SHINING IN THE DARK

Route explanations in this section follow the concept that you previously sailed directly to Astral City from Tatroi. If the party is entering this stage under other conditions, simply use the maps provided to explore and collect items.

Save at the Save Point near the entrance from Astral City and examine the goddess statue near the opposite wall to completely recover the entire party's HP and MP. Note that the door near the entrance is one-way only from the south side.

Follow the cave to the southeast. In the third area, examine the glinting crystals on the left side while one character has a Pickaxe equipped to obtain Silver.

Return to the goddess statue near the exit to Astral City to regain full health and MP whenever needed.

A Pickaxe is required to obtain items from the shining points of crystals throughout the Astral Caves.

At the intersection, continue southeast and collect the items along the route. Next, return to the intersection and head west. At the next T-intersection, take the east path to find a chest containing a Necklace. Finally, resume heading southwest through the next several areas.

THE ROUNDABOUT

Upon reaching a large roundabout area, head west to obtain Phia's Gladius from a chest. Then return to the roundabout and take the east passage. Use a Pickaxe to mine a Crystal from the shimmering minerals located there.

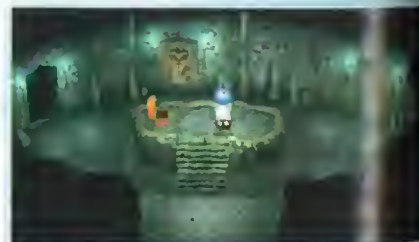

Head west and east from the roundabout to find useful items before traveling south.

Take the south passage from the roundabout to reach another Save Point. Head north from the Save Point and collect the items along the way.

WHAT'S BEHIND DOOR NUMBER THREE?

After crossing the bridge, the path leads to a room with a switch and three doors. Pluck the Sinclair from the nearby chest, then pull the switch to open the west door. Collect the items from the connecting cave, then return to the main room and pull the switch twice to open the east door. Collect the Flare Bomb from the east chest, then return and pull the switch twice again to open the north door.

Pull the switch on the raised platform repeatedly to open the surrounding doors.

DARTH WIDOW

HP	10000
WEAK VS.	Fire
ITEM DROP	None

STROPER (X3)

HP	520
WEAK VS.	Earth
ITEM DROP	Medicine Bottle (10%)

Darth Widow employs three Stroper bodyguards. Any of the enemies can easily inflict about a few hundred hit points to a character per hit. If they gang up on a character, expect the worst. Be ready to press the button and employ recovery items as needed, since no one in your party has healing skills.

Fire Slash and Double Slash special arts are highly effective against Darth Widow, but Phia is the most valuable character. Her "Three Way" special art is just what the doctor ordered, especially at close range. Make sure she is equipped with it prior to the battle.

Use a Pickaxe to mine the minerals in the passageway. The door at the north end of the passage leads back to the starting point, where the Save Point and the restorative statue are located. However, the door is one-way only, meaning if you go through it, you must navigate all the way back to the south Save Point again. Assess the condition of your party and determine if the Save Point and restorative statue are needed at this point. Whichever path you choose, return to the south Save Point and save the game. If Cyuss or Ashlay are in the party, then head south to confront the assassin.

The door at the north end of this passage is one-way only. Although a visit to the goddess statue might be worthwhile, it means starting over from the initial path.

BOSS FIGHT!

SPOILS AND CHOICE OF PATH

The rewards are given at the Inn if Cyuss is in the party, or in the Throne Room if Ashlay is present.

Following the defeat of Darth Widow when Cyuss or Ashlay is in the party, the heroes return to Astral City and receive a Lunar Talisman, a Cinderella Glass, and 200 Skill Points in reward.

Whatever scenario is followed, someone indicates that the party should head to the Purgatorium to the north and search for the Eye of Truth. The Purgatorium is an optional dungeon, but well worth exploring for experience and treasures. If you agree to go to the Purgatorium, the person explains how to access the dungeon from the front entrance as well as a hidden back door. Head north from Tatroi and follow the line of mountains to the right until you reach the Highland Caves. Go through the Highland Caves and then north to reach the Purgatorium's front entrance. The rear entrance is to the northwest. If you decide to skip the Purgatorium, then proceed across the World Map to the port of Tropp on the western coast of Astral. Flip to that section in this walkthrough for more details.

FINDING THE BACK DOOR

The rear entrance of Purgatorium is located in a hidden area on the World Map, on the back side of the mountains where the Purgatorium front entrance is located. After leaving the front entrance, simply follow the mountains around to the back and your party should automatically find the area.

The rear entrance cannot be found if you chose to skip the Purgatorium back in Astral.

THE SEEKER

If Cyuss or Phia are in the party, the group meets a Featherfolk named Ioshua at the hidden entrance. If Ashlay is in the party, then Ioshua is met a little further inside. Ioshua joins the party at least temporarily as the party explores the dungeon.

Ioshua is a healer. While he's in the party, protect him from harm and he thankfully returns the favor.

AP RUBBED WRONG BY FEATHERFOLK

CHOICE (CYUSS IN PARTY):

Stop them: Entire party +1 for Roddick

Keep watching: Ilia -2 for Roddick

AP MEETING WITH IOSHUA

CHOICE (PHIA IN THE PARTY):

Refuse to help Ioshua: Ilia, Phia -1 for Roddick; Ioshua -2 for Roddick

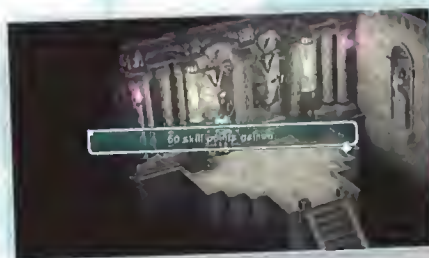

Ioshua Jerand

Ioshua is a Featherfolk from Silvalant who seeks information regarding his sister Erys, from whom he has been separated since a tragic incident in their youth. The party meets him at the Purgatorium, where he seeks the Eye of Truth, an item that may help him locate his sister.

Ioshua is an excellent healer who also learns many holy and elemental special arts. His stats are weaker than other characters, so set him to "Focus on healing friends" and leave him in the back. Because enemies encountered at this stage of the game are typically more aggressive, make sure that no foes penetrate the lines and attack Ioshua. He cannot help the party if he's forced to flee.

THE GIVEAWAY

In the first area, go through the northwest door and throw the switch in the room to unlock the northeast door in the previous area. Continue north and take the first right. Examine the two braziers in the room at the end of this side passage. Each party member accumulates 50 Skill Points from each brazier, for a total of 100!

Take a moment after touching these columns to level up in combat-improving skills, such as Biology, Knife, and others.

THE SLIME ROOM

Return to the main corridor and continue north. The party arrives in a room full of moving slimes of various colors. Touching the slimes produces a variety of results based on the color of slime touched.

- Red slime: Combat! The red slime disappears from the map for a moment afterward.
- Orange slime: Teleports the party back to the orange tile near the entrance.
- Green slime: Teleports the party to the east platform, where a chest contains a Froghead helm.
- Blue slime: Teleports the party to the west platform and the exit.

Touch the slimes moving about the room to reach new areas.

BIGGER PROBLEMS

In the corridor just past the slime room, head west and south to find a room with two more braziers. Touching each of them bestows 50 Skill Points to each party member. Return to the corridor and enter the north door.

Continue racking up those free Skill Points, as long as you can get them!

After reading a clue about the next room from the monolith, proceed through the north door to find another chamber full of moving slimes. The situation is similar, but more complex this time around.

Use the green slimes to reach items on platforms in the chamber.

- Red slime: Battle! The red slime disappears from the map for a few seconds afterward.
- Stationary green slime, east of entrance: Touching this slime transports the party to the highest ledge, where a chest contains a Ring of Resistance.
- Stationary green slime, northwest corner: Teleports party to the ledge with a chest containing a Resurrection Elixir.
- Blue slime: Teleports the party to a platform with the exit, but the exit is locked.
- Orange slime: Returns the party to the entrance tile, but also changes the movement pattern of the blue slime.

To unlock the exit door on the north platform, you must avoid the moving slimes in the room and go through the east and west doors. Follow the east and west corridors to rooms containing switches. Pull both switches, return to the central room, and then touch the blue slime to teleport to the platform where the exit is located. Use the Save Point in the next room and read the inscription on the nearby stone, then proceed to the next room.

Pull the two switches in the side chamber to unlock the exit door, then reach it by touching the blue slime.

Slip the Slimes

It's fairly easy to avoid the slimes to reach the west door. After pulling the west switch, return to the main room. To reach the west door more easily, use the blue slime. If the blue slime is moving near the bottom of the screen, touch an orange slime to change its movement pattern so that it patrols the back of the area. Continue up the center path and touch the blue slime. Wait near the blue slime on the exit platform and watch the blue slime below. When the blue slime below moves into the northeast corner of the chamber, teleport to that corner and quickly run through the east doorway.

THE FINAL SLIME

Slime overkill is in full effect! Touch the blue slime moving east to west on the ground level to teleport the party to the highest platform on the west wall. Touch the next blue slime and then a green slime to teleport to a central platform, where a chest contains a ?MINERAL. (Appraising it reveals it to be a Rune Metal.) Avoid touching the other blue slime on the ground floor, since the path it leads to returns the party to the entrance.

Touch the orange slime on the ground floor to teleport the party to the platform in the northeast corner of the room. Touch the orange slime on that platform to teleport to the lower platform on west side of the room, where two orange slimes bounce around. Touch the orange slime to the left to teleport to the exit platform.

Touch the blue slime on the ground moving east to west to reach the chest above.

Touch the orange slime on the ground to reach this platform; touch the orange slime to continue.

Touch the orange slime to the left to reach the exit platform.

SIDE ROOMS FIRST

In the final corridor, first check the rooms to the left and right before heading north. The east room contains two braziers that bestow 50 Skill Points to each party member. Touch the yellow brazier in the west chamber to fully restore the HP and MP of all party members, then proceed north to encounter the dungeon bosses.

Rejuvenate the party by touching the yellowish brazier in the room west of the final corridor before confronting the dungeon bosses.

BOSS FIGHT!

RECRUITING IOSHUA

Ioshua's recruitment significantly affects future recruitment.

After the boss fight, proceed north into the final chamber to clear the dungeon. Following a few last events, the party is teleported back to the front entrance. To recruit Ioshua permanently into the party if Cyuss or Ashlay are in the party, choose the options "Stop him" and "Could you join us?" during the subsequent conversation. If Phia is in the party, she offers to leave the party with Ioshua. Only the fourth choice causes Phia and Ioshua to stay in the party.

ITEM DROP	None*

*Although Wolf Spirits typically drop Rune Metal (20%), they do not during this battle.

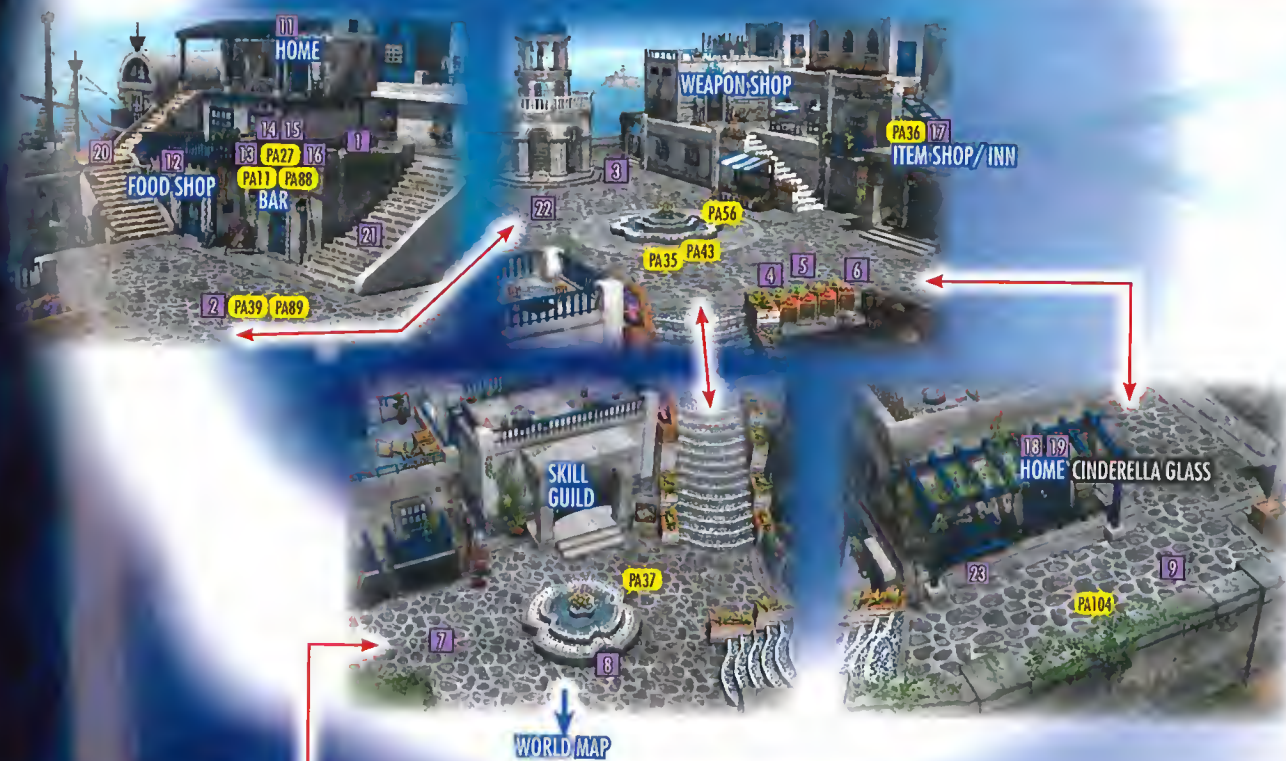

The four Wolf Spirits spread out and each one attacks a party member, including Ioshua. Control any character except Ioshua, then use your character's talents to protect the Featherfolk healer at all costs. If Ioshua is too busy running from a Wolf Spirit, then he cannot render aid to the others as needed. You can finish the battle in a quicker fashion by setting each character to "Attack with all you've got" in the Strategy menu to ensure that they quickly eliminate the Wolf Spirit's with special arts.

FIRE IN THE SKY

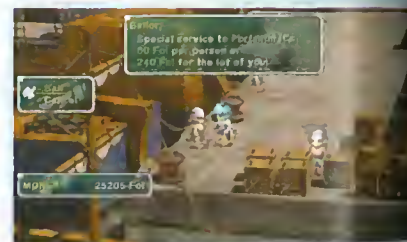

Upon entering Tropp after dealing with the Purgatorium, the party witnesses the crash of the Celestial Ship. A special service available at the pier in Tropp allows the party to sail back to Muah for only 60 Fol per person. You must visit the crash site just north of Kraat to enable sailing from Tropp to Eckdart.

Once the party returns to Tropp from the crash site, speak to the other Sailor on the pier to travel to Eckdart on the Silvalant continent.

Take Some Private Time

If Iashua is in the party, the trip is well worth it. Stop by Totrai for two Private Actions, and then view another scene in Kraat.

Visit the crash site by asking the Sailor at the docks to travel to Portmith.

REUNION OF FRIENDS

If both Ashlay and Ioshua are in the party, then not much happens in Eckdart. Visit the shops, rest at the Inn if needed, then set out across the continent of Silvalant, heading toward Mt. Eckdart or Ionis.

If only Ashlay, only Ioshua, or neither is in the party, then Millie makes an appearance at the Eckdart pier. Follow her to the Inn, where she rejoins the combat ranks. Millie is now level 30, and has many more special arts and spells under her belt.

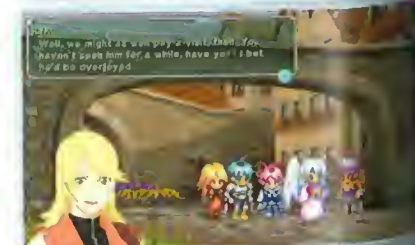

Eckdart Item Shops specialize in the types of items offered for sale.

Millie typically rejoins the party at the Eckdart Inn. If not, she rejoins in Silvalant.

The Skill Guild in Eckdart offers Sense 3 for 2700 Fol and Technical 3 for 3600 Fol, in addition to Knowledge 2 and Combat 2.

If Ioshua is in the party, he mentions visiting his foster father in nearby Mt. Eckdart as the party leaves town.

FOSTER FEELINGS

Navigate through the forest until the party reaches a small cabin. If Ioshua is in the party, entering this area triggers a reunion with Ioshua's foster father, coincidentally named Foster. Inside his residence, Foster asks the party to clear the monsters out of Mt. Eckdard so that he may safely resume hunting. Agree to "Take them out," and Foster gives the party an Elven Bow after completing the task.

To eliminate the monsters, enter the forest area north of Foster's cabin. At least one monster (each representing monster parties of Gerels or Dragonflies) roams each map area. Approach the monster to trigger a battle. When all monsters are defeated, return to Foster's cabin to receive your reward.

With Ioshua, eliminate the enemies in the woods behind Foster's cabin to receive a reward.

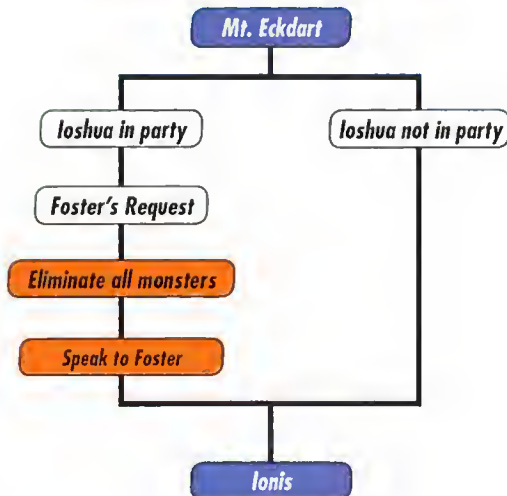

Touch a monster in each area and defeat the enemy set to clear the woods, area by area.

Foster Care

If the party weakens, return to Foster's cabin and speak to him. He'll let the party rest and recover all HP and MP for free throughout the duration of your quest.

RECRUITING MAVELLE: DEPENDANT ON IOSHUA

Upon entering Ionis, the party stumbles upon Captain Ronyx and his newfound friend, Mavelle, confronting the Crimson Shield. Afterward, Ronyx joins the party. While he equips a bow and serves as archer, his true benefit lies in the extremely powerful spells he casts.

If Cyuss is in the party but Ioshua is not, then Mavelle will not join. If Ashlay is in the party but Ioshua is not, then Mavelle allows you to choose whether or not she joins. Otherwise, please refer to the story flowchart. Mavelle uses magical orbs to attack and cast spells.

Ronyx joins the party after a brief confrontation in Ionis.

Mavelle decides whether to join or leaves the choice to you after dinner.

PROOF TO THE KING

After the scene near the entrance, explore the town and equip your party with the best items available. After doing so, head up the central stairs to the upper level and continue up another flight of stairs to the castle.

The party is granted audience with the King of Van. He's been looking for some heroes to take out the Archfiend Asmodeus. But first, he needs the party to prove their mettle by surviving the Labyrinth of Champions in the castle basement.

Before venturing into the Labyrinth, head back upstairs into the castle. Open the chest on the far left of the Armory to obtain an Emerald Ring, an accessory that reduces the MP consumption of special arts and spells by one-third. Also, Magic Clay is freely available in a room on the second floor. Stock up and return to the Labyrinth of Champions. Enter the center door to begin the King's trial.

Visit the Van City Weapon Shop and reequip before heading to the castle.

Want that emblem? You're going to have to work for it!

Collect the items freely available in the castle before entering the Labyrinth of Champions.

RETURNING FROM THE LABYRINTH OF CHAMPIONS

After completing the Labyrinth of Champions, the party returns to the throne room and receives the Van Emblem. The new main objective of the game is to visit the other three kingdoms of Roak, starting with Silvalant Castle, and obtain the other three royal emblems.

The Van Emblem is the first of four you must collect to reach the final stage

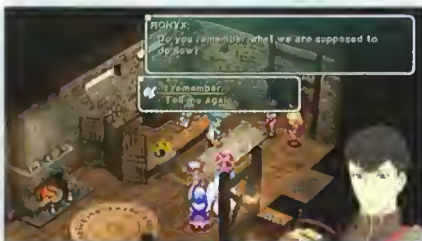

AP

THE ROAD AHEAD

CHOICES:

"I remember." Ronyx +1 for Roddick

"Tell me again." Ronyx -1 for Roddick

The morning after receiving the Emblem, Ronyx asks Roddick if he remembers what happens next. Roddick's answer determines affection points with Ronyx.

Go Beastly!

The King of Van also bestows the Four Beasts SFT skill on the party. Fighters like Roddick, Cyuss, Illia, Ashlay, Phia, Welch, Pericci, and T'nique saan learn special arts involving the Four Beasts with this skill. Higher Four Beast SFT skill levels make the character more likely to learn these special techniques.

Eliminate Spell Casters First!

In the first area, groups of Wisps and Sorceresses may make an appearance. Prioritize taking out the Sorceresses first, since they cast spells that can devastate the entire party. Maintain this practice of taking out spell casters first through the remainder of the game.

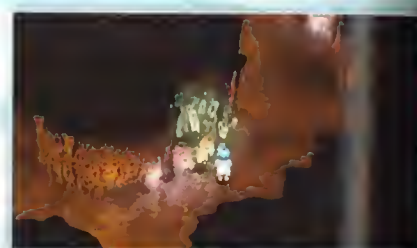

CASTLE DEPTHS

Use the maps to navigate to the two item locations in the first area of the Labyrinth. Then proceed through the north door and read the inscription on the central stone for a clue.

Proceed to the next ring-shaped area and equip a party member with a Pickaxe. Dig at the crystal area to the right to obtain Diamond, Green Beryl, and a ?MINERAL that appraises as Mithril.

The Amulet of Flexibility is an essential accessory for healers and party leaders in the Silvolant region and beyond.

Equip a Pickaxe accessory to access those deeply buried minerals.

THE MOON CYCLE DOOR PUZZLE

Continue north to use a Save Point and read another very important inscription on the nearby stone. A slab covers the trap door exit in the floor of the next chamber. To remove the stone slab, you must solve the puzzle regarding the seven upright doors in the room with carvings depicting moon phases.

Inscriptions on standing stones are as important as ever to puzzle solving.

PERYTON

HP	18400
WEAK VS.	Fire
ITEM DROP	Chicken Shish Kebab (98%)

Peryton and three Wisps surround the party, giving themselves first strike. The Wisps try to inflict Silence and Slow on the party members. If Ronyx, Millie, or Joshua are affected, immediately use Medicine Bottles to remove Silence. Ronyx's spell casting is critical in helping to eliminate the Wisps from the battlefield quickly.

Peryton's flying attacks are powerful, but it tends to employ annoying hit-and-run tactics, leading characters on a merry chase around the area. Roddick, Ashloy, and Cyuss should use projectile special arts like Spirit Blast, Dragon Roar, et al, to strike the birdman from afar.

After the battle, simply follow the tunnel to the next room, and then ascend the long slope to the exit.

Examine the central stone to view a sequence of four moon phases. Each door to the north leads to a chamber with a switch. If you go through the doors marked on the stone and throw the switches, it does not open the trap door in the floor. Instead, the central north door in the main room is unlocked. Inside this room is a more obvious clue than the ones given thus far.

The central stone reveals the switches to pull beyond the north doors, but in the opposite cycle.

The solution to this puzzle is to reverse shadow and light in the symbols engraved on the central stone. For instance, the first moon on the stone is three-quarters dark; throw the switch in the room where the moon on the door is three-quarters full, or the third door from the left. The second moon in the puzzle is waxing; throw the switch behind the door where the moon is waning, or the first door on the left. The third moon in the series is half-full; throw the switch behind the door where the moon is half-dark—the sixth from the left. The fourth moon inscribed on the central rock is one-quarter full; throw the switch behind the door where the moon is three-quarters waning, or the fifth door from the left.

Enter the rooms beyond the moon doors and throw the switches corresponding to the inscribed sequence, but with light and dark reversed.

The Simple Answer

Need a simpler answer? Refer to the maps on the previous page and throw the marked switches 1, 3, 4, and 5 to open the trap door.

BOSS FIGHT!

Recruiting T'nique

After surviving the Labyrinth of Champions and receiving the Van Emblem, you can recruit T'nique. With six or fewer characters in the party, return to Totroi on the Astral continent and fight in the Arena. During the Rank D tournament, T'nique jumps into the ring and becomes the boss enemy for the rank. Defeat him and he asks to join the party.

With seven or more party members, you can still compete in Rank D and fight T'nique. However, he does not offer to join the party afterward, unless you can somehow lighten your roster...

VAN Y SILVALANT CAVES

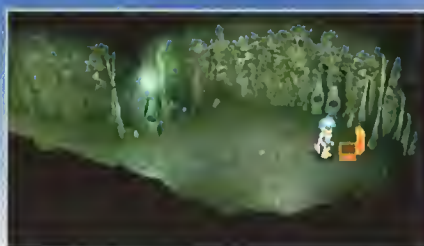

SIMPLE PASSAGE

Heading north across the World Map from Van City, the party eventually comes to the Checkpoint Bridge, which spans a river. The party must show the Van Emblem to the guards to pass.

A short distance north of the checkpoint is the Van y Silvalant Cave—a simple tunnel with only one side-chamber—connecting to the frozen kingdom of Silvalant. Head east from the cave and follow the road that branches south toward the nearest town of Durss.

Show the Van Emblem to the guards blocking the scenic bridge to Silvalant.

The Combo Link found in the caves allows you to initiate two special arts at once. Simply press both shoulder buttons simultaneously to use it!

NOWHERE-VILLE

Durss isn't a very useful town to a band of adventurers this far in the game. The shop inventories resemble those of Haute. The Inn is probably the most welcoming feature of this half-abandoned town.

However, Durss is populated with plenty of people from whom you can easily pickpocket items, provided that one of your characters has the Pickpocketing specialty and the Thief's Glove from Ionis equipped. A character with a Pickpocketing level of 6 or greater should be able to rob anyone in town!

Durss is a poor town, but a prime target for honing your party's Pickpocketing skills.

WARNING! Don't Let Opportunity Pass You By!

If you intend to pickpocket any or all of the people in Durss, now is the time. Future events could prevent you from returning to Durss to jostle the locals...

MILLIE REJOINS

MILLIE REJOINS PARTY IN SILVALANT:
Millie +3 for Roddick

Santa Claus Is Coming to Town!

Santa the Dealer stands concealed behind a tree in the northwest corner of the city, located between the Weapon Shop and a home where a Resurrection Mist is found. Santa sells some incredibly expensive items, but they all prove highly useful in Item Creation and otherwise. Santa's Boots, for instance, provide a chance that you'll receive a random item when waking up from a stay at an Inn. But if the hefty price (4500000 Foll) gives you heartburn, there's a way around that too! You can reduce sticker shock by activating "Lower Prices" in the Group Appraising super specialty, and use a Cinderella Glass to get him to come down. Afterward you should see the following prices:

ITEM	FOL
Santa's Boots	2700000
Tri-Emblem	4800460

Magical Rasp	60000
Jewel of the Frag	60000

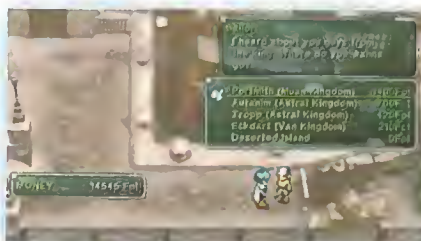

Don't forget that you can Replicate expensive items and sell them back to make up for any lost money in no time!

OPENING THE PORTS

After perusing the various shops, head north to the castle. The King bestows the Silvalant Emblem on the party. The King also enables multiple destination services from all key ports. After collecting the Damascus from the hidden chest at the back of the castle, return to the city and head to the docks at the southeast. Talk to the Sailor, who offers to transport the party to any port for the right price. The Group Appraising super specialty reduces the Sailor's prices only slightly. Note that the Deserted Island destination is only available in Silvalant.

The King of Silvalant is eager to see the heraes underway.

RETURN TO ASTRAL CITY

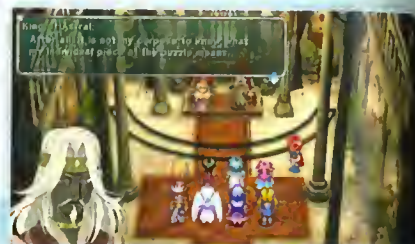

AP

ASTRAL EMBLEM

CHOICES (CYUSS IN PARTY):

Phia rejoins party: Phia, Cyuss +2 for each other

Sail from Silvalant to Tropp and return to Tatroi. Ride the canal ferry to Astral City, then go north to the castle for an audience with the King of Astral. The King gives the Astral Emblem to the party and imparts a few obscure clues.

If Phia is nat in the party and you have six members or fewer, you naw have an appurtunity to recruit her permanently.

Filling Out the Party

After receiving the Silvalant Emblem and opening the travel lines to any port in Roak, it's time to choose your final party for the remainder of the game.

Ride a ship to Portmith, and return to Kraat. Initiate a Private Action and speak to Millie near the village center. Choose the name "PERICCI" for the cat she's standing beside. If you rescued Pericci from the jail cell in the pirates' hideout and picked up the Ocarina she dropped while fleeing Portmith, then equip the accessory and try to approach the group from below. The cat follows you. Wait for Millie to call it back, then press the \otimes button to use the Ocarina. Pericci permanently joins the party if you have seven members or less.

Don't forget that T'nique is still waiting to fight a worthy opponent in the Arena at Tatroi. If you have six members or fewer in your party and defeat him in the Rank D ladder, he offers to join your party.

Return to Astral City and visit the castle. After speaking to the king, Phia offers to join as a permanent member, provided you have six members or fewer and she is not already in the party.

Sail back to Eckdart and head southeast to a large peninsula. Move around the southeast tip of the forest there until you stumble upon a hidden hut. Inside, the party encounters a strange girl named Welch Vineyard who offers to join the party if there are seven members or less. With a little experience gained, Welch makes a great eighth party member!

If Ashlay, Ioshua, and Mavelle are in the party, another party member can be recruited at the Old Race Ruins to the far northeast of Silvalant City. But great sacrifice may be required... Perhaps too great!

Bunny Whistle: The Ultimate Overland Travel!

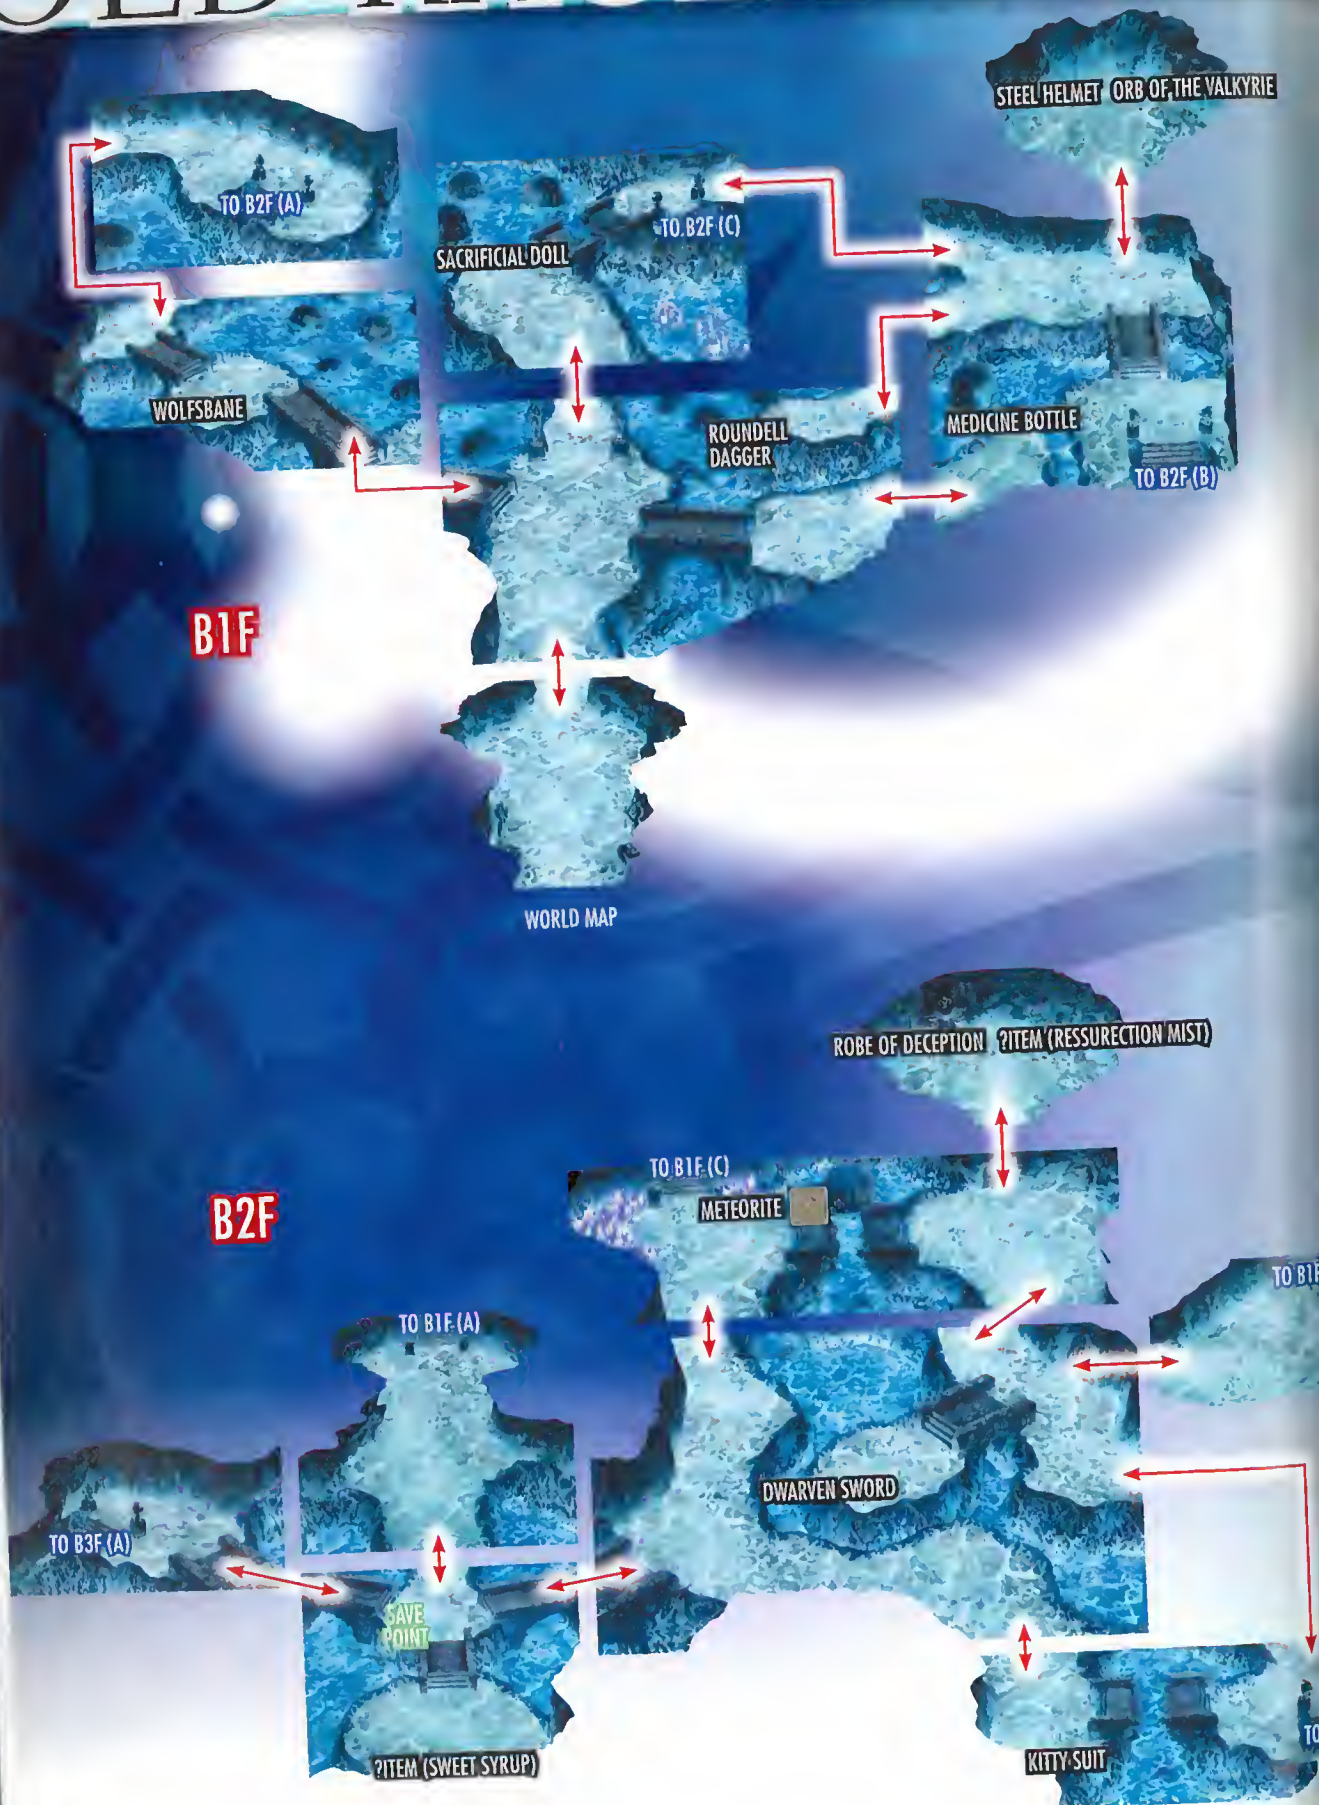

With Pericci in the party, it is possible to obtain the Bunny Whistle. Use this item from the item menu while traveling the World Map to transform the party into a bizarre, hopping bunny. Movement speed on the World Map doubles and random battles do not occur. While in "bunny mode," the party can travel instantly through caves such as the Van y Silvalant Caves and the Highland Caves.

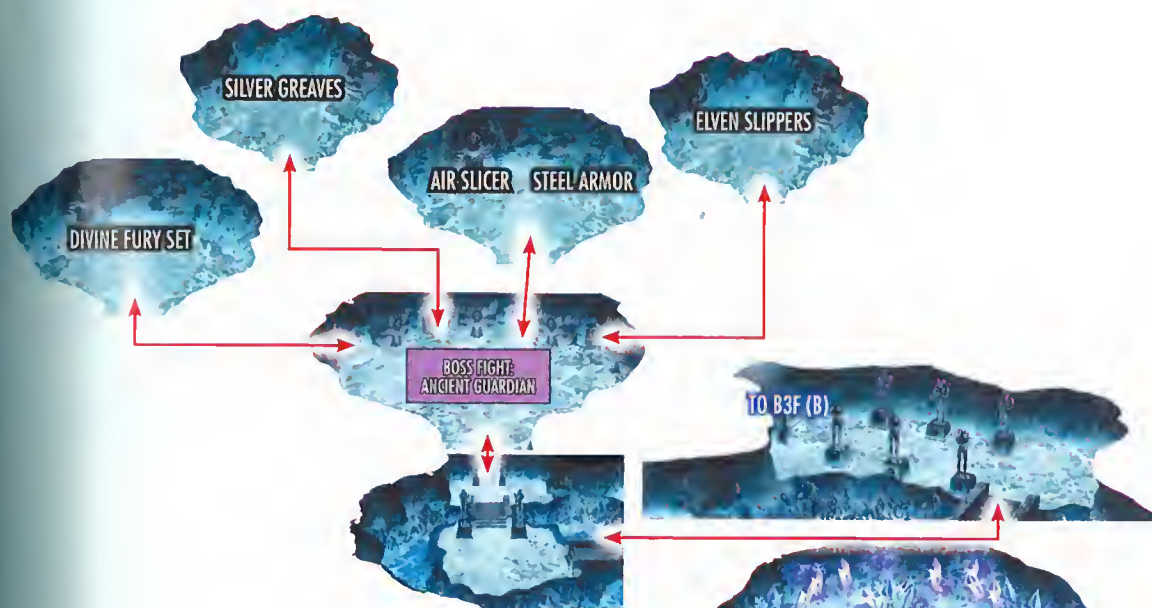

To acquire this item, return to Portmith and initiate a Private Action. Next, head to the castle entrance for a scene with Pericci. When she asks if you hate her, choose the second option.

Exit Portmith and return to Haute. Initiate another Private Action, and this time, speak to Pericci outside the Item Shop. You then acquire the Bunny Whistle and can ride the bunny across the World Map!

THE EASTERN CAVES

The Old Race Ruins are located at the far northeast end of the frozen Silvalant region. As you head northeast, stay close to the mountains on the left and follow them as they curve around to the north. Continue into the niche until the party finds the hidden entrance.

With the Silvalant Emblem in hand, you can explore all areas of the Old Race Ruins. The enemies are dangerous; high character levels and strong weaponry are recommended. Follow the path to the Save Point on B2, then go east and follow the path until the party reaches a large chamber on B4. If Ioshua is in the party, he becomes outraged at what he sees therein. During his outburst, a choice is presented. Choose the bottom option to reveal the truth about Ioshua's past.

AP FEATHERFOLK REUNION

CHOICES:

"Leave it alone.": Millie -3 for Roddick, Ioshua -2 for Roddick

"If it'll make you happy...": No affection points.

ANCIENT GUARDIAN

HP	45000
WEAK VS.	None
ITEM DROP	?MINERAL (Orichalcum) (100%)

The recommended party is Roddick, Cyuss or Ashlay, Millie, and Ronyx, all level 50 and higher. The first key to victory is to get behind it, where its devastating beam attack cannot wipe out the entire party in one shot. The Ancient Guardian is strong against all elements, so don't waste your time with special arts if you're controlling a melee character. Slash away until it turns, then move behind it again. Meanwhile, have Ronyx cast spells and let Millie heal. With the recommended levels, attacking it from behind should be all the strategy needed to eventually wear it down. Afterward, you can access all the treasure rooms behind the creature!

Note that choosing the second option removes Mavelle from the party permanently. This also provides the method of unlocking "The Featherfolk Girl" anime in the Movie Gallery. If you needed to clear room to recruit other characters, this can be an effective method. However, if Ashlay and Ioshua are in the party, Erys joins as a permanent member.

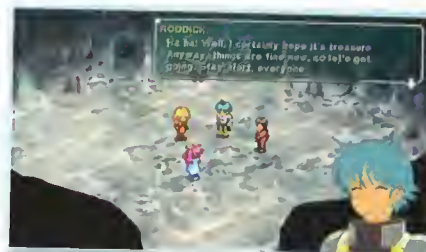

At the Save Point on B2, the east path leads to Ioshua's past while the west path leads to a deadly boss.

When presented with a choice for dealing with Ioshua's grief, choosing the bottom option exposes the truth.

THE PATH LESS TRAVELED

By heading west from the Save Point on B2 and exploring the "west" side of the Old Race Ruins, you quickly reach a chamber on B4 where the party is attacked by the Ancient Guardian. This is an incredibly strong monster; fighting it is only recommended for parties of levels 50 and higher.

Defeating the Ancient Guardian is well worth the trouble of attaining the spoils it protects.

ROYAL REQUEST

Sail to Portmith and visit the castle. The Minister agrees to grant the party a meeting with the King on the condition of a favor: The party must find the source of the monsters emanating from the basement Treasury and eliminate it.

Apart from a few side rooms, the dungeon is fairly straightforward. Simply navigate down to B4, but make sure to divert into the side rooms to pick up some of the most powerful weapons and equipment you'll ever see. Unfortunately, you must return all equipment named "Luxurious" upon leaving the Treasury. However, there is a way to bend the rules...

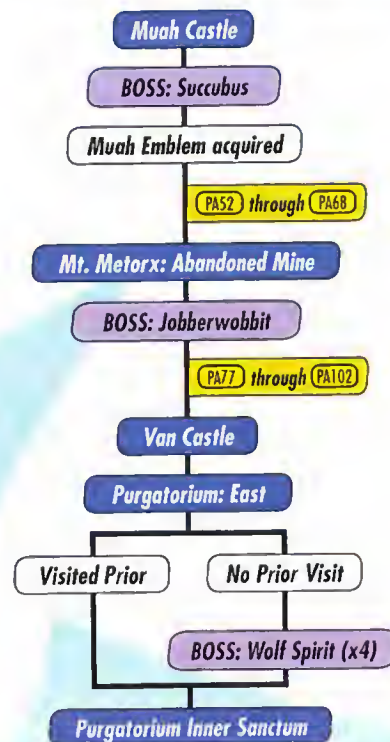

The Minister of Muah Castle has a little errand.

Equip the Luxurious items and feel an instant improvement in the combat difficulty level!

SUCCUBUS

HP 54000
WEAK VS. Light
ITEM DROP Ring of Happiness (100%)

The main challenge in this battle is to clear out the seven Shadow Beasts protecting the Succubus quickly enough to prevent them from causing too much chaos. Ronyx is the best person for the job, as he repeatedly casts his spells to quickly reduce all the Shadow Beasts' HP.

The Succubus is not a devastating enemy; Roddick's Spirit Strike and Ronyx's Light Cross spell work wonders against her. She drains HP from party members, but not much can be done about it except to eliminate her quickly.

Keeping the Luxurious Equipment

You cannot keep the Luxurious equipment, but you can keep anything made through Customization! After defeating the boss and collecting all the treasures, go to the Save Point on B4, save your game, and use the Customization specialty to transform all items named "Luxurious" into something else. For instance, try combining a Luxurious Sword with Domascus or Rainbow Diamond to create a powerful Dueling Sword. Or combine a Luxurious Rod with Moonrock, Mithril, or Orichalcum to create an awesome Rod of the Feather. Do the same with the Luxurious Armors and Robes. Just be sure to save your progress after each positive result, in case the next Customization doesn't go as well!

RIGHTEOUS VICTORY

After defeating Succubus, head back upstairs to report to the Minister. During the party's audience with the King of Muah, he hands over the Muah Emblem.

Time well served is well rewarded.

THE FUTURE PAST

Follow the lower path to the back of the room and descend the stairs. Continue along the path and descend to B3. On B3, follow the platform to the back, then descend the second set of stairs to the right. Go inside the control room. After defeating the mecha enemies that appear, examine the console at the back of the room to find the R-Card. This key item allows the party to enter all of the red-lit doors throughout the stage.

Access to many treasure chests in this stage is dependent on possession of the R-Card.

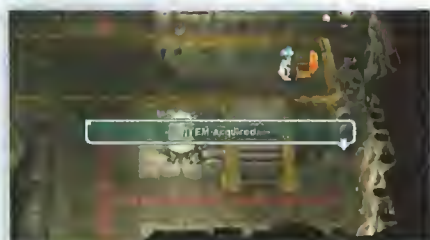

WARNING! Fighter Spirits Absorb Light!

One of the harder enemies to fight is the Fighter Spirit, the yellow spirit-warrior that occasionally appears in random battles. Because they absorb Light-based spells and weapon attacks, it is critical to unequip weapons and special arts that fall under this category. If a character is accidentally healing a Fighter Spirit with his or her attacks, assume control of them during the battle and sit on the sidelines. Change the character's equipment and setup when the battle is over.

BACK TO SQUARE ONE

Use the stairs near the entrance to reach the rest of the stage.

Return to the entrance point and take the stairs to the east up to the platform. Follow this path down to B2. Stop in the first red room and open the chest to obtain a Mist Insignia. Next, descend to B3 and use the nearby Save Point.

THE TRI-SWITCH ROOM

Head north to the next intersection and then go east from there through the side exit. This leads to a room with three floor switches. Pressing all three switches locks the party inside the room. Only press the top two switches, or the bottom one alone.

Press the top two switches in the room, then return to B3 and collect the items from the two rooms opened by the switches. These two rooms are marked on the maps that appear in this section.

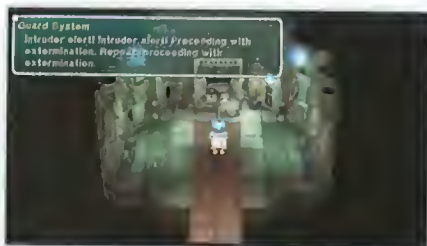

Head west from the switch room to a dead end to find a room opened by one of the switches.

Simply approach the door to exit the switch room when only the bottom switch is on.

OBTAIN THE B-CARD

Return to B3 and notice that the nearest room is now open. Go inside and defeat another set of enemies triggered into action by the security system, then examine the control panel to obtain the B-Card. This key item allows you to open blue doors, like the one at the north end of B3.

Another security system goes off when entering the room containing the B-Card.

PROCEED TO THE TRUTH

Save your game at the Save Point, then head north all the way up the corridor. Continue west and descend through the blue trap door. Press the switch in the room below, then return to B3.

Press the switch in the west room on the level below to open one of the doors to the final oreo.

Proceed to the east across the corridor and go downstairs. Follow the path into an area with two levels and open the chest at the base of the stairs to obtain Sour Syrup. Next, ascend the stairs and head east to a room with a chest containing a Ring of Lunacy. Return across the raised platform to the west side. Open the chest there to obtain an ITEM that appraises as a Faerie Elixir. Press the switch in this area and return to the center.

Press the second switch to reveal the path to your objective.

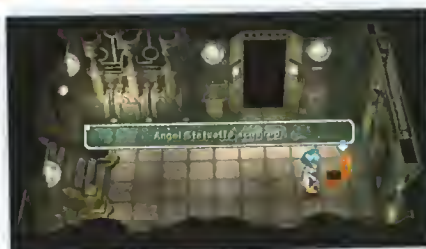

ORIGINS OF THE EMBLEMS

The two switches pressed on B4 unlock two of the doors leading into the chamber where the Eye of Truth rests. Head northwest on the lower level into a room with a chest containing an Angel Statuette, then continue into the next room.

After the group examines the north door, take a look at the control panel in the northwest corner of the room. To open the final door, you must place the four emblems according to the questions asked by the machine. Place the emblems in the following order to succeed.

1. Astral Emblem
2. Van Emblem
3. Silvalant Emblem
4. Muah Emblem

The party then obtains the Eye of Truth and returns to Van City. Travel from there to Silvalant and hire the Sailor to take the party to the Deserted Island.

The Angel Statuette allows you to heal the entire party one time. Hang onto this item until the final boss battle!

The King of Van puts the final pieces together for the party.

ENTERING THE DEMON WORLD

To enter the Demon World, travel to Silvalant City and speak to the Sailor in the southeast corner. Choose the option to sail to the deserted island.

The trip to the deserted island from Silvalant City costs nothing, except maybe your lives...

WARNING! Back-to-Back Battles!

Stock up on Resurrection Elixirs, Blackberries, and other recovery items before setting sail for the deserted island. The party is about to engage in two boss fights in a row!

ITEM DROP Gole Earring (100%)

Nane ather than Iashua's and Mavelle's longtime foe—the Crimsan Shield—awaits the party at the Demon World's entrance. Although he's a fairly straightforward apponent and doesn't inflict status ailments, his intense power and SFT attacks enable him to slice through several party members simultaneously. The ideal party should contain Ranyx and Millie or Iashua, along with Roddick and another melee fighter.

The best strategy is to position Del Argosy between your two fighters and strike him from both sides. Although he tends to slip out of a pinch fairly easily, continue to surround him throughout the battle. By incapacitating him with attacks from both sides, you give your healer and Ronyx enough time to cast their spells without danger.

ARACHMENE

HP	34950
WEAK VS.	Fire
ITEM DROP	None

Heeding Del Argosy's dying words, the party uses the Eye of Truth to return to Astral City to try to prevent the Archfiend's servant, Arachmene, from stealing the Bladeless Sword from Lias's mansion.

Against long-range targets, Arachmene deploys a spinning wind blade attack that proves truly devastating, reducing even a stout character's HP by 1000 or more. Her frontal defenses are also too strong to break through, even with the Guardbreak skill at level 10. The pincer strategy utilized in the previous battle also works wonders here. As she tries to defend the frontal attacks of your melee comrade, run behind her and attack from her flank. Arachmene proves most dangerous to close-range opponents, so beat down her HP quickly with repeated use of special arts or spells.

RETURN TO ANOTHER DIMENSION

Back in Astral City, the party acquires two Force Swords from Lord Lias. Outside of Customization, these are great weapons sure to help you get far in the coming stages.

Return to Silvalant City, sail back to the deserted island, and return to the Demon World. If you want to return to Roak, simply step on the glyph painted on the ground. Follow the northwest path to find a Sweet Syrup, then return and follow the east path through the rest of the area. At the next T-intersection, head north to grab an item, then return and go east again.

After defeating two powerful enemies, the twin Force Swords make nice rewards.

The glyph painted on the ground near the entrance point allows the party to return to Roak.

The spiked knuckles called Metal Fang, located east of the Space-Time Lab entrance, are certainly worth the side trip.

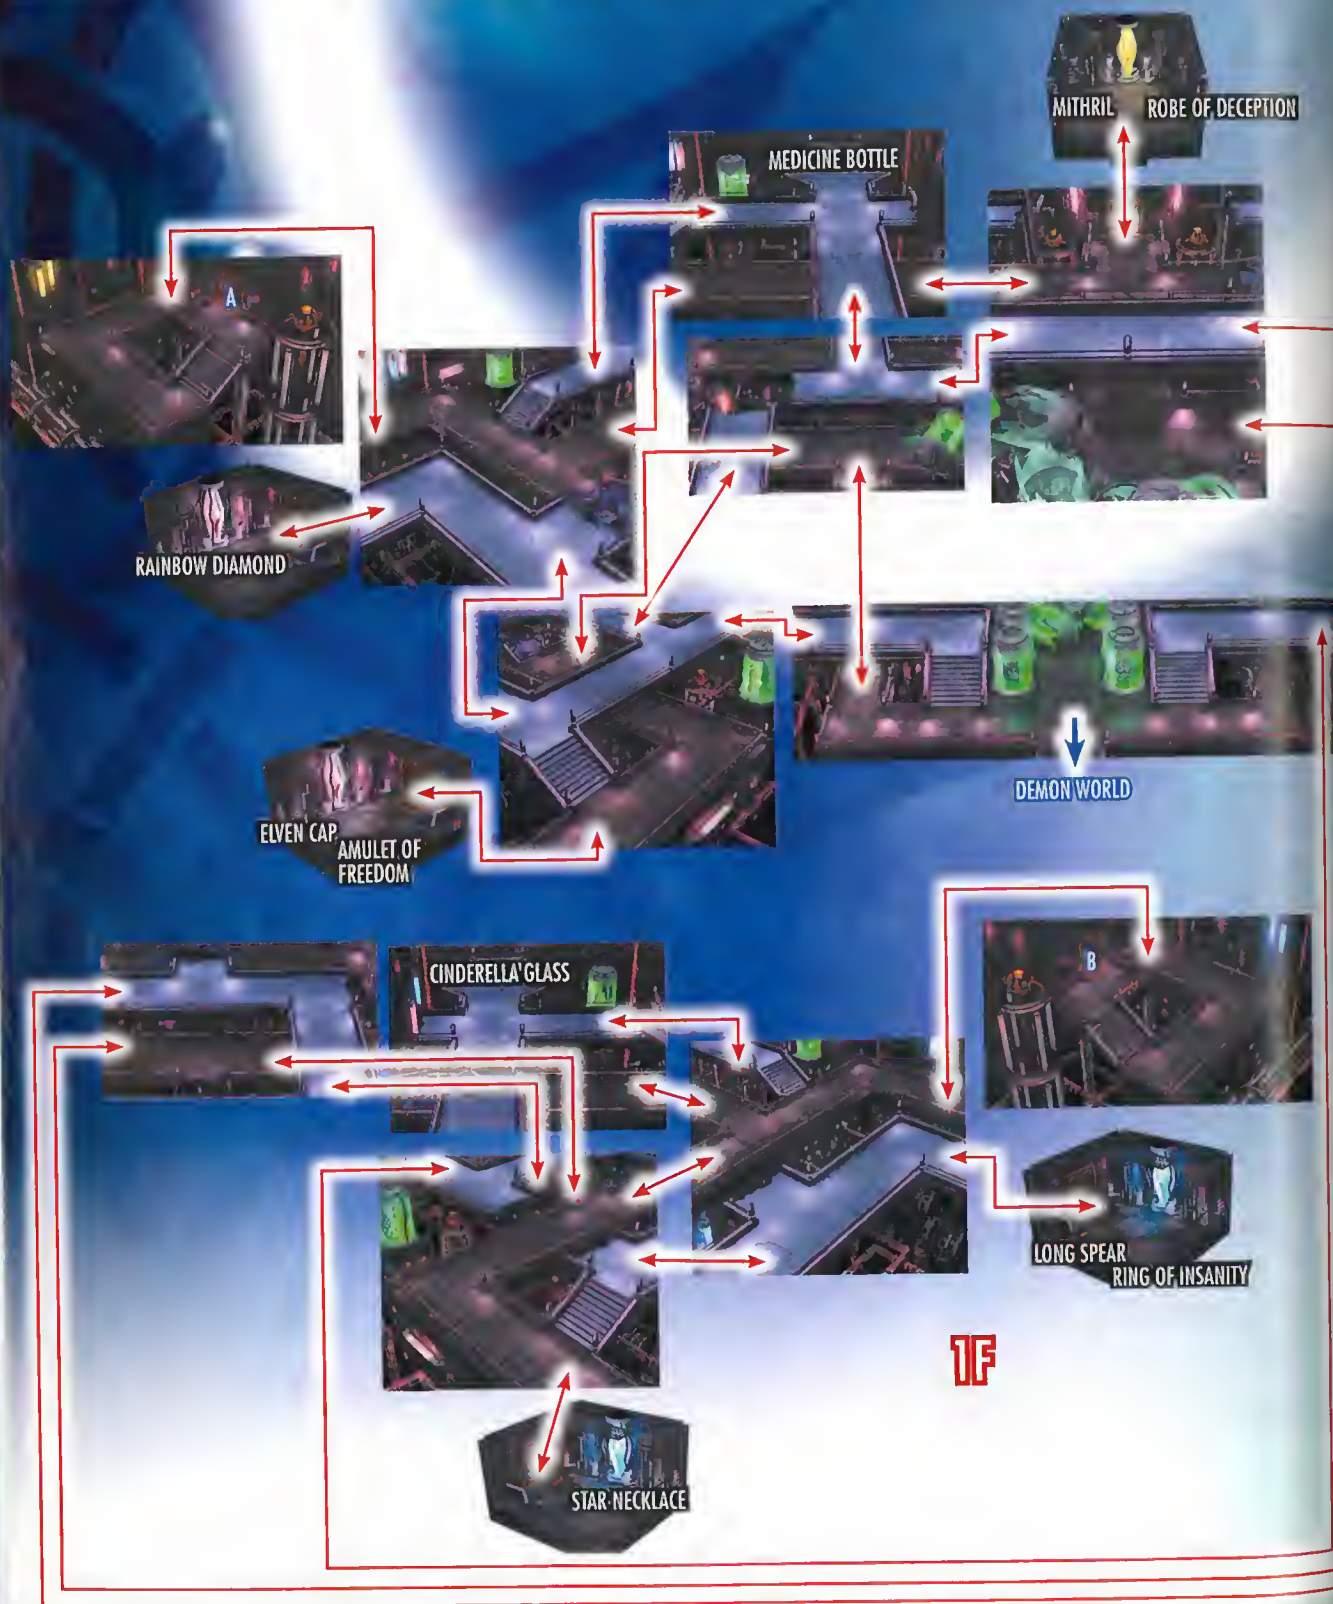

ENTERING THE SPACE-TIME LAB

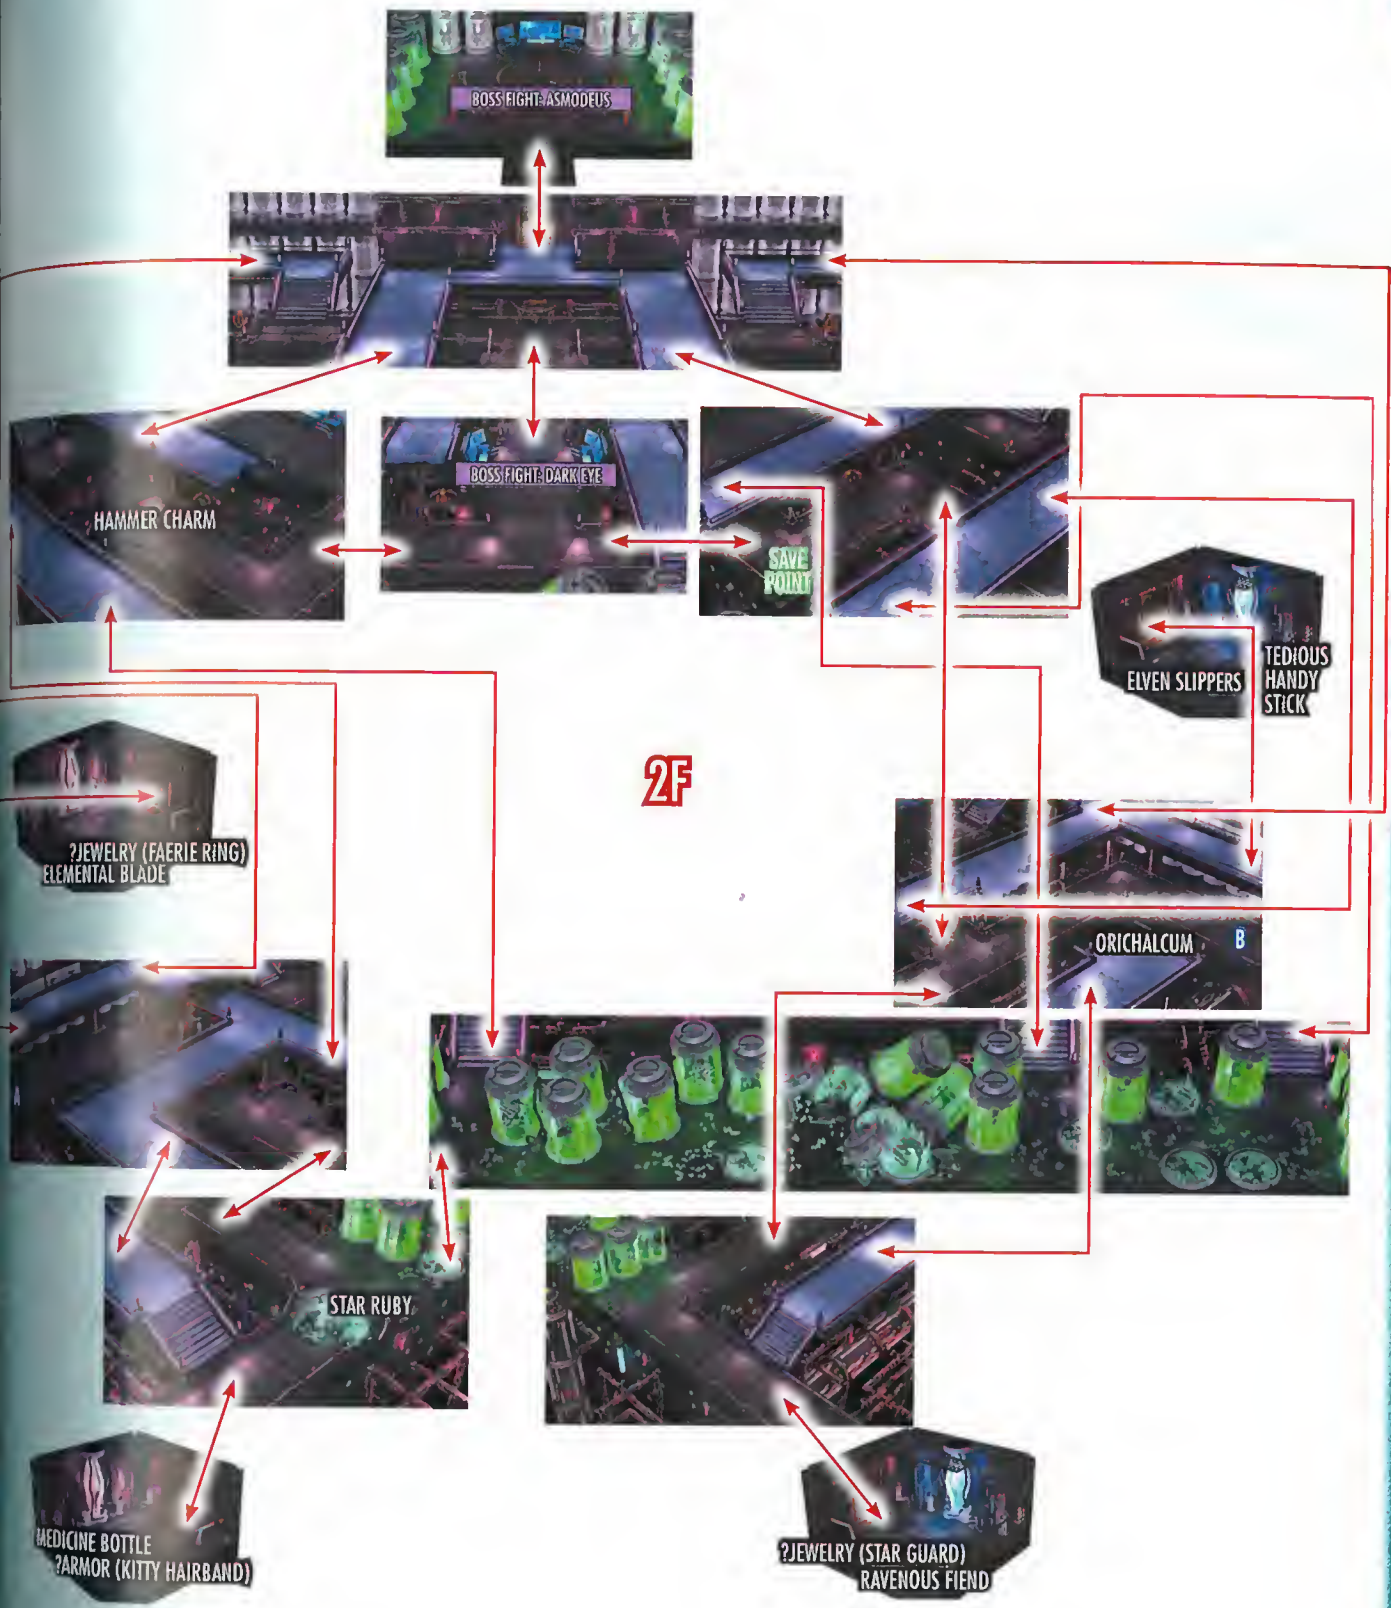

The Space-Time Lab proves to be a puzzle within itself, since such things seem out of place in a so-called Demon World.

If your party gets low on HP and MP, switch out with those waiting in the reserves before continuing. When you're ready, go back one area from the Metal Fang location and take the south option. After collecting the ?HERB that turns out to be Athelas when appraised, go north to find a Save Point. Collect the remaining items in the areas surrounding the Save Point, then record your progress and go north to the Space-Time Laboratory entrance.

MULTI-LEVEL LEVELS

Navigation in the Space-Time Laboratory is insanely complex, even to the point where following the maps in this guide can be confusing. As in the Purgatorium Inner Sanctum, there is an "upper platform" and a "lower platform" for each level (referred to throughout this text). Start off by following the lower platform to the west. The path eventually leads to a room where the party can pick up an Elven Cap and an Amulet of Freedom. Backtrack one area, and go upstairs. Follow the northwest path to find a room containing a Rainbow Diamond.

Roddick is following the "lower platform" in this screenshot. The "upper platform" is the raised, bluish platform above him.

Return to the entrance, ascend the east stairs, and follow the upper platform to the east. The party will travel through several sections until they reach a north area where a chest contains a Medicine Bottle. Head west from there and descend the stairs. Go northwest along the lower platform to the next room and go upstairs to 2F.

Take the stairs at this juncture to reach the northwest room and two items.

Ascending the stairs in this area is considered going to the actual level 2F.

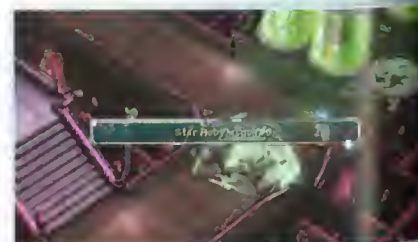

Eliminate Sorcerers Quickly!

Sorcerers within enemy parties cast dangerous spells that reduce everyone's HP by large amounts simultaneously. Guide your melee fighters toward Sorcerers and eliminate them quickly to lower the threat.

ROUTES UP TO 2F

Follow the lower path on 2F to find a chest containing a Star Ruby. Step over the broken specimen tank into the next area and take the north stairs to the upper platform. This route eventually leads to a side room containing a Medicine Bottle and a ?ARMOR that a skilled party member can appraise to be a Kitty Hairband for Pericci.

Cross the smashed specimen tank to reach the next area.

Although the Dark Eyes can petrify allies and heal their own comrades, the Death Charonas must be eliminated as quickly as possible to prevent their devastating target-all spells. Once this is accomplished, the Dark Eyes are fairly easy to take down using a barrage of attacks, as long as you keep everyone fluid by curing stone status with Medicine Bottles.

Following the battle, it is strongly recommended that you return to the previous Save Point and save your data. Then, return to the area where this battle took place and continue north.

Return to level 1F and follow the lower platform east to reach a red door. The room beyond the red door contains a Robe of Deception and Mithril. Although the bridge is blocking your view, you can head south beneath it.

Continue through several areas until you come to a T-intersection. First, head southeast to find a room containing a Star Necklace. Return to the previous area and go up the stairs to the east. This upper platform leads to a room containing a Long Spear and a Ring of Insanity.

Now return to the lower platform and follow it over to the exit to the northeast. At the next complex intersection, head up the stairs and follow the upper platform to a chest containing a Cinderella Glass. Backtrack to the previous area and follow the lower platform southeast to a stairwell leading up to 2F.

Head southwest from this oreo to find items, then return to this oreo and go northeast.

The path leads underneath the upper platform, although it's hard to see.

NAVIGATE TO THE CENTER

Move along the lower platform until you reach an intersection; go northwest first to find a Save Point. Next, return to the south area. Go southwest and follow the lower platform into a room containing a ?JEWELRY that appraises as a Star Guard and Ronyx's Ravenous Fiend spell. Return to the previous area and follow the upper platform to the northeast to obtain Orichalcum.

Return to the Save Point, record your new progress, then continue northeast. Head west across the bottom of the next area to reach a chest containing a Hammer Charm, then return and go north to learn a little more about this facility—and accidentally confront a boss!

The Ravenous Fiend spell is Ronyx's most devastating, delivering oreo damage followed by additional damage to every enemy.

Cross the bottom of the oreo before venturing up through the center, or else the party will hit the boss before obtaining a nearby item.

ROUNDABOUT TO ASMODEUS

After defeating the Dark Eyes and Death Charonas, head north and go west. Return to the center of the stage and explore to the east.

Upon reaching a new area to the east, go southeast to enter a room containing a Tedious Handy Stick for Welch and Elven Slippers. Exit the room and follow the upper platform southwest to the room with the smashed specimen tanks. Next, head west and go up the stairs.

Continue to follow the upper platform until the party reaches the raised door at the north end of 2F. Go through the door to confront the Archfiend, Asmodeus.

Go from one staircase to the other on the east side of the smashed specimen tank area.

The boss is in the room at the top, but how do you get up there?

Use items to bring the entire party up to full health and MP before proceeding through the north red door.

Prepare for this climactic confrontation by moving a healer, Ronyx, and your two strongest melee fighters into the party. Equip as many characters as possible with an Earring of Readiness, Damascus, Orichalcum, Rune Metal, a Star Ruby, or any other accessory that reduces dark damage.

The Archfiend's Shadow Flare spell inflicts massive damage to anyone not wearing an accessory that lowers dark elemental damage. Otherwise, if you can pin him between two strong melee fighters, he should go down without many problems.

COZY AND CRAMPED

Learning that forces from the planet Fargett were responsible for the outbreak on Roak, the heroes set out to stop Fargett's evil dictator from attempting an invasion of alliance space.

Teleporting down to the planet, the heroes find themselves in the middle of an ongoing civil war between rebels and the totalitarian forces of Jie Reverse. The rebels lead the heroes to their secret safe house.

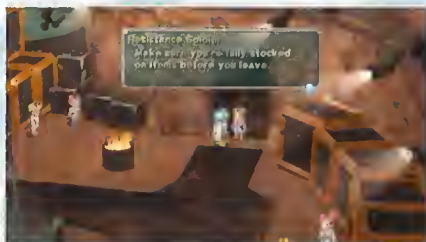

The forces of Reverse kidnap several members for a short time.

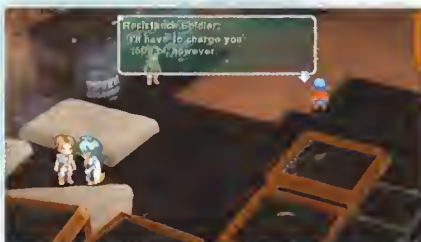

Speak to the folks in the top corner if you have yet to fill out your skill list.

The safe house serves as the only "town" on Fargett, complete with a merchant who sells just about anything you could want, a person who sells skill sets of every level, and another person who explains every skill set. The resistance soldiers are too savvy to get pickpocketed by some teens from a faraway world, so don't even bother trying! The second room features cots where the party can pay to rest. Use the safe house as your base of operations while exploring Fargett.

The merchant against the north wall in the first area sells lots of items.

Talk to the man near the beds to let the party rest. But even rebel comforts have a price.

STORY FLOWCHART

RESCUE OPERATION

When you're finished meeting the denizens of the safe house, exit and head south toward the army camp, located just a few clicks southwest of the cave.

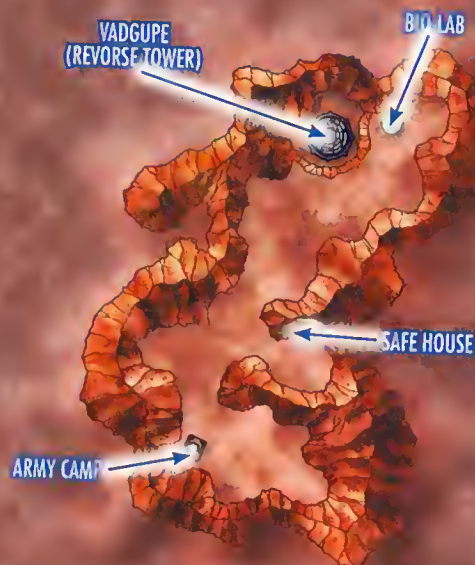

The army camp is the small, dark gray building just southwest of the resistance base.

Time for a Little Exercise

Again, a noticeable increase occurs in the difficulty of random battles. It may be worthwhile to spend a little time wandering just outside the safe house entrance (resting when needed) leveling up your characters in preparation for the tough battles to come. But note that several enemies in Fargett are capable of nearly defeating characters with a single attack—regardless of the character's level—and no amount of leveling up can prevent this!

Bunny Stowaway!

If you procured the Bunny Whistle on long ago Roak, you can use it to cross the Fargett World Mop. However, missing random battle may prevent your party from proper preparation as noted elsewhere.

BREAKOUT!

The army camp where Millie and the others are held captive is located just southwest of the resistance safe house. Inside the entrance, push the two blue switches next to the northwest door to open it; inside is a chest containing a Resurrection Mist. Return to the entrance and enter the northeast door.

Push the two blue switches to open the door

Continue to the "central corridor," a passage with five doors. Head south (toward the screen) and use the southwest door. Follow this passage through the cellblock back to the entrance, inside the caged area. Collect Lavender from the nearby chest (as determined by Appraising) and push the green switch in this area.

The green switch is one of two you must press to open the area where your missing party members are being held prisoner.

Return to the central corridor but this time, go through the northeast door and through the cellblock. In the divided room, press the two red switches beside the northeast door to open it. Collect the Mithril from inside the room and return to the central corridor.

Finally, go through the southeast door in the central corridor. Next, walk through the cellblock into the bottom portion of the divided room. Open the chest for a Medicine Bottle and press the green switch to open the doors at the north end of the central corridor.

Pressing the second green switch opens the doors at the north end of the central corridor.

The top door in the central corridor leads to where your mates are being held. But where's that other green switch?

Enter the north holding area to be reunited with your kidnapped chums.

A LITTLE REVERSE BACKGROUND

The party returns to the safe house for a briefing with the resistance leader, Yvena. After the initial scene, speak to Yvena again to trigger an additional cut scene to find out more about your enemy.

Yvena has lots of information about Jie Reverse and his cruel domination of the planet.

BIO-LAB

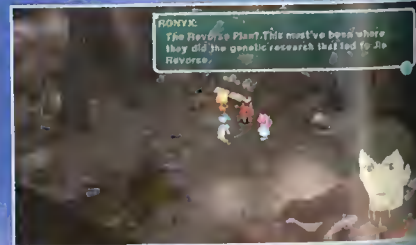

OVERGROWN SHRINE

Set out across Fargett, heading northwest from the safe house. The capital city of Vadgupe and the Reverse Tower pass by to the west as you proceed. Just north of the capital is the bio-lab.

In the exterior area, proceed up the central path until the heroes reappear inside. If you like, approach the central statue to view an optional cut scene. Move to the ladder in the west corner of the room and select the option to descend in the Underground Tunnel.

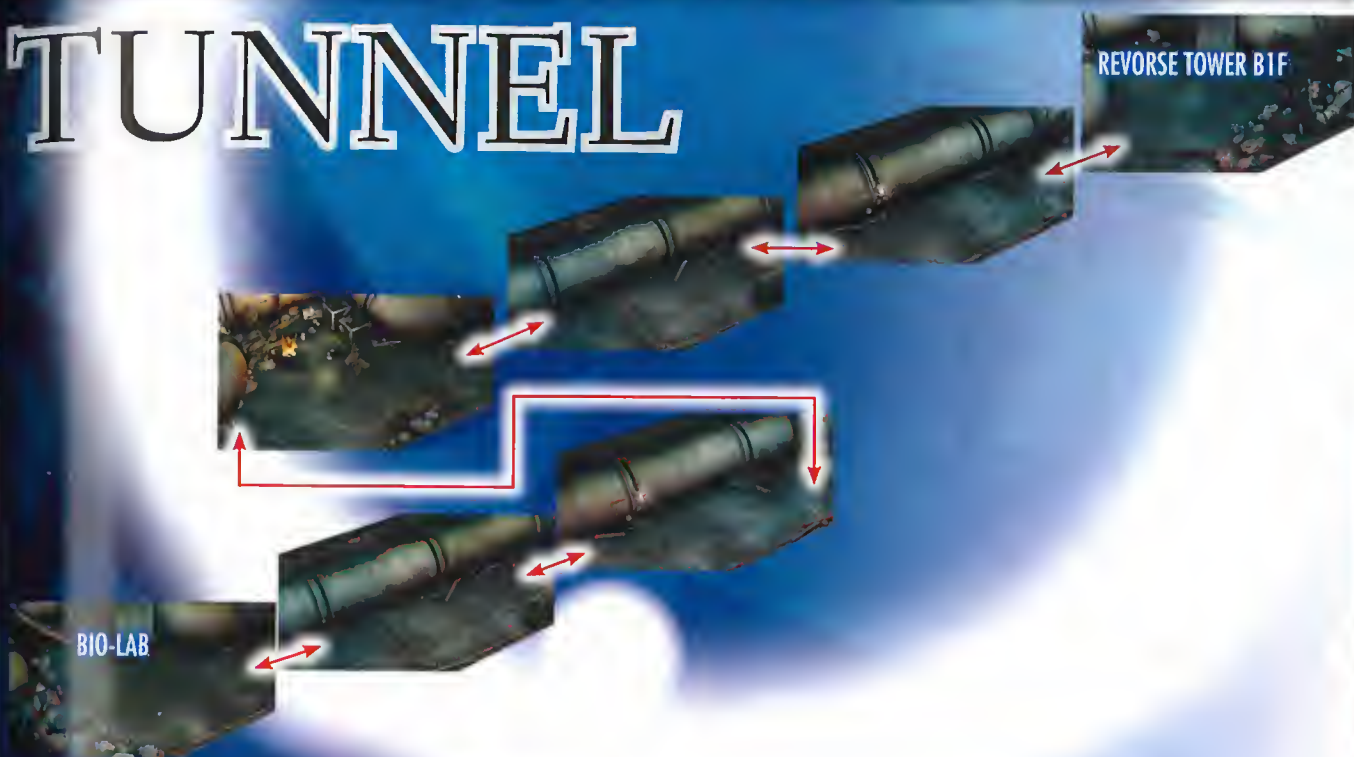

The bio-lab is the much smaller dome to the north of the sunken capital.

The central statue triggers a cut scene. Use the ladder in the corner to continue toward the Reverse Tower.

Ending

THE MANY-LEVELLED BEAST

The Reverse Tower is comprised of nine highly advanced levels, populated with some of the strongest enemies in the game. The maps in this section can be somewhat bewildering to the eye, however, navigating the Reverse Tower is somewhat linear.

The heroes emerge from a floor hatch on level B1. The door to the north leads to a teleport pad; step on it to escape to the bio-lab. Doing so activates a teleporter in the bio-lab lobby. Using this, the party can reenter the tower without re-navigating the underground tunnel.

Proceed south from the entrance to find a large, circular room. Dividers cut off the bottom half of the room. However, the dividers can be removed by using the Save Point on 8F and by teleporting back to this level from a teleporter on 7F.

The party emerges from a floor hatch in the Reverse Tower.

The teleporter just north of the entrance hatch transmits the party back to the bio-lab, serving as a shortcut back to the World Map.

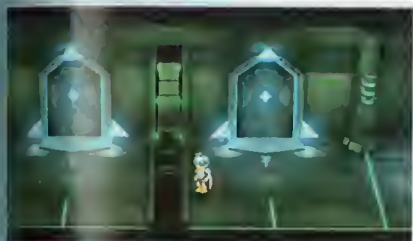

The dividers in this room can be removed by reaching 8F.

Continue east from the divided room until you locate another teleporter pad that takes the party to 1F. This is the only level in the tower that allows for free exploration. Visit all of the rooms and collect the numerous items, or head directly for the next teleporter to 2F, located just off the north central corridor.

Various side rooms throughout the stage contain great items and equipment.

Most of the corridors on 2F are divided, creating a somewhat spiral path through the level to reach the next teleporter to the southwest. Visit all of the rooms in between and clean out the enemy's treasure stock.

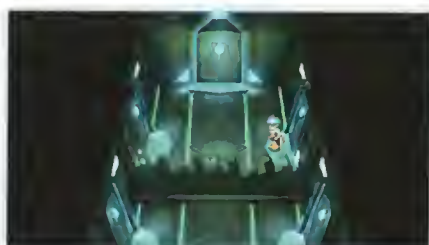

Divided corridors create a more linear path through the upper levels.

CONNECTED FLOORS

3F and 4F are interconnected by several teleporters, forcing you to explore sections of both levels at a time. Be sure to use the Save Point on 4F, since the next one is another four floors away!

Levels 5F and 6F are even more interconnected by their many teleporters. Apart from a few side rooms containing treasure, though, the path is again linear enough to avoid getting lost.

Upon reaching 7F, head north and use the final Save Point to record your progress. Doing so unlocks the Voice Gallery feature in the title menu, wherein you can play back several characters' voice tracks. More characters are added depending on those that remain in your party for the final battle.

The guiding principal of exploration is that if you see a door, use it.

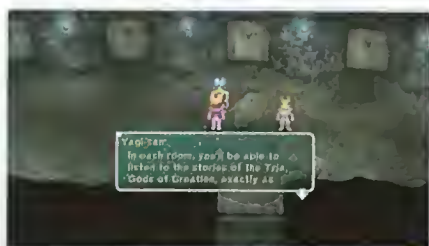

Save your game in the lower central room on 4F.

ACCESS TO THE ORACLE ROOM

After saving, return to the teleporter room and continue through the south doorway to find another pad. Stepping on this pad transports the party back to the bottom of the tower. Head east to the central room to find that the dividers are now removed. You can leave the tower by teleporting back to the bio-lab from the north pad.

The Oracle Room features extra oreos and challenges to portoko in before facing the final boss.

With the dividers removed on B1, head south to access the Oracle Room.

The south exit from the central room leads to yet another teleporter. Stepping on this one transports the party to a strange place called the Oracle Room. The Oracle Room features a shop similar to the one at the safe house. The far east door in the Oracle Room leads to the Cave of the Seven Stars, an extra dungeon featuring 30 levels of additional enemies, items, and bosses.

There's also a link back to the Labyrinth of Champions beneath Van Castle, where solving the moon door puzzle a different way unlocks access to a secret room. More details are contained in the "Extra Quests" chapter of this guide.

Regarding Endings

STAR OCEAN: First Departure features numerous endings based on the player's actions and character relationships formed during the game.

First off, if Millie, Ronyx and Ilia have a good relationship, then the characters from the past depart. If Cyuss is in the party and his relations with Roddick are good, then he challenges Roddick to a final duel. The ensuing battle is non-essential, and winning or losing changes nothing but Cyuss' dialog afterward. Then epilogues featuring all the characters you recruited will play. "Couple endings" take place if the relationships have reached 9 or higher between the following sets of two characters: Ilia and Ronyx, Cyuss and Phia, Ioshua and Mavelle, Ioshua and Erys. The game then determines if Private Actions 88 and 91 occurred, whether the entire party's affection for Roddick is 9 or higher, and whether any three of Cyuss, Ashlay, Ioshua, Mavelle or Erys are in the party. If so, the player gets to view an additional "message" scene and an extended ending before the credit roll. After the credit roll, the "epilogue" plays. If three of the required characters are not in the party at the end, the game skips the "message" scene and an animated movie plays.

If the relations between Millie, Ronyx, and Ilia somehow decreased, then the ending skips directly to determining if Private Actions 88 and 91 occurred, and whether Ilia's affection score for Roddick is 9 or higher. If so, an extended ending of another type plays, but there is no epilogue after the credit roll. If none of these criteria are met, then the animated movie plays.

After the animated movie and the credit roll play, the game checks to see if Private Actions 88 and 91 took place and whether Ronyx and Ilia have affection scores of 9 or higher for each other. If so, then an additional "Ronyx epilogue" plays.

JIE REVORSE

HP	55500
WEAK VS.	None
ITEM DROP	None

The final party should include Millie and Ronyx for their spell casting abilities and your two strongest melee fighters. While Millie and Ronyx cast spells from the back line, have the melee fighters approach and attack Jie Revorse. The strategy is for the melee fighters to keep him distracted and/or stunned to reduce the number of times he casts some of his more devastating spells.

If Revorse KO's a character, he starts shooting red orbs. These are incredibly devastating, so resurrect a fallen character quickly. Revorse is strong against all elements, so the best special arts for melee fighters to employ are non-elemental ones, such as Double Slash, Omega Double Slash, and any special art augmented by the Four Beasts or Bagua SFTs. Most importantly, keep Revorse moving and keep him focused on the melee aspect of the battle.

NEO REVORSE

HP	94500
WEAK VS.	None
ITEM DROP	None

The final battle is a true test of endurance and your ability to manage item usage. The real threat here is that you may run out of MP-restoring items, leaving both Millie and Ronyx useless. Use Faerie Elixirs to keep spell casters working longer on fewer MP restoring items throughout the battle.

Otherwise, the strategy is much the same as the previous battle. Although Revorse strikes quickly with his wings and deflects many attacks, your melee fighters must move in close and engage him to reduce the number of times he uses his spells. If given enough time, Revorse singles out the closest character and casts a spell that inflicts either instant death or near death. Use Resurrection Mists to get allies back on their feet right away.

EXTRA QUESTS

STAR OCEAN: First Departure is a complex game with many layers. With so many side challenges to take on, it's no surprise that all of them had to be outlined in a separate chapter. This section focuses on the optional elements of the game, such as Private Actions, the Battle Arena in Tatroi, Puffy's Game, the Oracle Room, and the extra dungeon in the Cave of the Seven Stars.

PRIVATE ACTION

Private Actions are extra scenes that become available at each town and city, usually after certain main scenario events. When standing near a town or city where a Private Action may be available, the Private Action logo appears in the upper-right corner of the screen. Press the  button at this moment to initiate a Private Action.

During a Private Action, look for party members around town and speak to them to initiate extra scenes.

Press the  button when the logo appears outside a town or city to initiate a Private Action.

During a Private Action, the party splits up to explore the town and Roddick is left in the party alone. The other party members appear at various locations in town, and you can approach and converse with them. Doing so sometimes initiates bonus scenes between Roddick and that character. As a result, affection points are sometimes gained or lost depending on the player's choices. Also, there are certain items that can only be obtained by initiating a Private Action, or by activating a series of Private Actions in sequence. When the Private Action scene is finished, you must exit the town to trigger another one, if one is available.

This section provides some minor details about all 107 Private Actions, including when they become available. Each Private Action is titled according to the character(s) involved and the location where the Private Action occurs. Private Actions are also depicted in the main scenario timeline within the walkthrough, including callouts on the maps to indicate where the person(s) who initiates the Private Action stands. Between this section and the notes in the walkthrough, you should not miss any of the Private Actions.

Choices made during Private Actions sometimes cause increases and decreases in affection points between characters and Roddick, or between two other party members.

Ilia in Haute Item Shop

1. "Completed Badam's mission" event occurred.
2. Cyuss is in the party.

AP BAR FIGHTCHOICES

- "Join in"
- Cyuss +1 for Roddick
- "Watch the action"
- Ilia -1 for Roddick

Returning to Portmuth after speaking to the Sailor at the docks about the pirates' hideout with Cyuss in the party, initiate a Private Action and speak to Cyuss in the bar. Watch him drink until three bottles appear on the table. Exit the bar, then return and speak to him again. Exit and re-enter to find Cyuss picking a fight with the other bar patrons. When given a choice, you can generate affection points with Cyuss or lose them with Ilia.

PA 05

Ashlay at Haute,

1. "Phia's jailbreak" event occurred.
2. Phia is in the party.

Necessary for PA11

Phia scolds Cyuss for drinking all day and relates to him recent events in Astral City.

PA 09

Phia at Autanim Inn

1. "Phia's jailbreak" event occurred.
2. Phia is in the party.

Phia expresses despair at her recent dishonor. You may encourage her to increase affection points. The dialogue changes slightly if PA08 occurred previously.

AP BAR FIGHTCHOICES

- Encourage Phia
- Phia, Roddick +1 for each other
- Leave her alone
- No affection points

PA 10

Cyuss in Tatroi Weapon Shop

1. "Darth Widow boss fight" event occurred.
2. Cyuss is in the party.

After the attempt on Lord Lias's life in Astral City, return to Tatroi and engage a Private Action. Speak to Cyuss at the Weapon Shop to trigger an event. Cyuss and Roddick overhear a rather embarrassing conversation...

PA 11

Phia in Tropp Bar

1. PA08 occurred.
2. Phia is in the party.

AP THE OLD RACECHOICES

- Cheer up Phia
- Phia -1 for Roddick
- Ask her about Cyuss
- Phia +1 for Roddick
- Leave her alone
- Phia -1 for Roddick

Phia tries to find solutions at the bottom of a bottle. Due to her contrary personality, the obvious choices aren't the best. Phia does not require kid gloves, so the best choice is to ask about her problems.

PA 12

Ioshua at Autanim Entrance

1. "Celestial Ship crash" event occurred.
2. "Featherfolk Reunion at Old Roce Ruin" event has not occurred.
3. Either Cyuss, Ashlay, or Phia is in the party.
4. Ioshua is in the party.

Necessary for PA70

AP NEVER SEEN A FEATHERFOLK BEFORECHOICES

- "I better help!"
- Ioshua +1 for Roddick
- "I'll mess around a bit."
- Ioshua, Cyuss, Ashlay, Phia -1 for Roddick

PA 13

Ioshua at Tatroi
Arena Entrance

1. "Celestial Ship crash" event occurred.
2. "Featherfolk Reunion at Old Roce Ruin" event has not occurred.
3. Ioshua is in the party.

AP WHAT IS STRENGTH?CHOICES

- "Because I want to protect others."
- Ioshua +1 for Roddick
- "Because I want to improve myself."
- No effect
- "Strength itself has no meaning."
- Ioshua +1 for Roddick

After the Celestial Ship crash event at Tropp, return to Tatroi with Ioshua in the party to trigger a Private Action. Ioshua stands just inside the arena entrance. Speak to him to start a scene, during which the choice made affects Roddick's relations with Ioshua.

PA 14Ioshua at Tatroi
Town Entrance

1. "Celestial Ship crash" event occurred.
2. "Featherfolk Reunion at Old Race Ruin" event has not occurred.
3. Ioshua is in the party.

Necessary for PA15

After viewing PA13, leave Tatroi and activate another Private Action. This time, Ioshua stands in the entrance area, across from Puffy. Speak to him to view one of two recollection scenes.

PA 15

Ioshua at Kraat Village Area

1. "Celestial Ship crash" event occurred.
2. "Featherfolk Reunion at Old Race Ruin" event has not occurred.
3. PA14 occurred.
4. Ioshua is in the party.

After viewing PA14, return to Kraat (either before or after visiting the Crash Site) and set in motion a Private Action. Find Ioshua standing near the middle of the village and speak to him.

PA 16

Millie at Kraat Village Area

1. Millie is in the party.

Millie stands near the south entrance of the village. Speak to her to engage a short scene wherein she relates a dream she had about Dorne.

PA 17Millie and Ilia at Portmith
Skill Guild

1. Millie is in the party.
- Necessary for PA30

Speak to Millie inside the Skill Guild of Portmith to initiate a short scene.

PA 18Millie and Ilia at Haute Item Shop

1. PA02 occurred, ending with Roddick giving Ilia a present.
2. Millie is in the party.

AP BLAME CYUSSCHOICES

- Cyuss is in the party
 Millie -1 for Roddick, Cyuss & Roddick +1 for each other
 Cyuss is not in the party
 Millie -1 for Roddick

In a follow-up to PA02, Millie becomes jealous that Roddick gave a present to Ilia. The situation is -1 with Millie either way, but if Cyuss is in the party, the two become closer when the swordsman intervenes to help Roddick escape.

PA 19 Millie and Ilia at Haute Item Shop

1. PA02 did not occur.
2. Millie is in the party.

AP CHOOSE A GIRLCHOICES

- Buy Millie a present
 Millie +1 for Roddick
 Buy Ilia a present
 Millie -1 for Roddick, Ilia -1 for Roddick
 Make a snarky comment
 Millie -1 for Roddick

PA 20Millie at Portmith,
Outside Weapon Shop

1. Millie is in the party.

AP MILLIE'S SITUATIONCHOICES

- First Choice
 Millie +1 for Roddick
 Second Choice
 Millie -1 for Roddick

This extra Private Action between Roddick and Millie is an easy way to improve their relationship, regardless of what has transpired in other Private Actions.

PA 21Millie, Ilia, and Cyuss or Ashlay at Autanim Pier

1. PA02 occurred, ending with Roddick giving Ilia a present.
2. Millie is in the party.

This Private Action merely serves as a continuation of the present-giving situation developing since PA02. Approach the trio on the pier to trigger a scene. Cyuss or Ashlay being in the party changes the dialog slightly.

PA 22Ilia and Ronyx at Portmith Pier

1. PA02 occurred, ending with Roddick giving Ilia a present.
2. Millie and Ronyx are in the party.

AP RONYX'S JEALOUSYSCENE OCCURRENCE

Ronyx -1 for Roddick

The fallout continues from Roddick giving Ilia a present when they were alone in Haute. Speaking to Ronyx about it at the Portmith pier lowers Ronyx's opinion of Roddick.

PA 23Ilia, Ronyx, and Mavelle
at Eckdard Overlook

1. Mavelle and Ronyx are in the party.

Speak to Ilia at the Eckdard overlook area to trigger this short scene about the mysterious newcomer to the party.

PA 24

Ronyx and Mavelle at Haute

1. Mavelle and Ronyx are in the party.

Speak to Ronyx or Mavelle in Haute to trigger a short scene. Ronyx is still obsessing over Fellpool tails, and then notices Mavelle doesn't have one.

PA 25Mavelle at Autanim Market

1. Mavelle is in the party.
Necessary for PA84

Although this short scene between Mavelle and a local artist divulges little in itself, it sets the stage for another PA with Erys later in the game.

PA 26*Ioshua and Mavelle Inside Tatroi Arena Stadium

1. Mavelle and Ioshua are in the party.

AP IOSHUA'S DOUBTSSCENE OCCURRENCE

Mavelle, Ioshua +1 for each other

Speak to Ioshua or Mavelle as they stand at the north end of the Tatroi Arena stadium area. This scene serves as a good way to lower Ioshua's distrust of Mavelle and raise their relationship toward viewing their "Couples Ending."

PA 27Ilia and Ashlay at Tropp Bar

1. The party possesses 5000 Fol.
2. Ronyx and Ashlay are in the party.

AP DRINKING CONTESTCHOICES:

- Ilia will win
- Ilia +1 for Roddick
- Ashlay will win
- Ashlay +1 for Roddick

Ilia and Ashlay are engaged in a drinking contest in the Tropp Bar. Betting on who will win increases affection points either way; however, the winner is determined randomly. Roddick has a 50% chance to double his bet or lose 5000 Fol. The party must possess the necessary funds for this Private Action to be available.

PA 28Mavelle at Eckdart Bridge

1. The party has not entered Demon World.
2. Ronyx is in the party.
Necessary for PA90

Find Mavelle, talking to a woman on the bridge at Eckdart, to trigger the first of two scenes regarding the whereabouts of the Crimson Shield.

PA 29*Ilia and Ronyx at Autanim in Front of Weapon Shop

1. Ronyx is in the party.

Approach Ilia and Ronyx outside the Weapon Shop in the north area of Autanim to trigger a scene. Ronyx gets a bit overzealous about a fish in the pond and jumps in after it.

PA 30*Millie and Ronyx at Kraat

1. PA17 previously occurred.
2. Millie and Ronyx are in the party.
3. Millie and Ilia have good relations.

This scene is a follow-up to the previous Private Action in Portmuth.

PA 31Millie and Ronyx at Kraat

1. Freed Pericci from the pirates' hideout.
2. Millie and Ronyx are in the party.
3. Seven characters or less in the party.

AP NAMING PERICCICHOICES:

- "How about Spot?" No affection points.
- "How about Pompa?" Millie -1 for Roddick, Pericci -1 for Roddick
- "How about PERICCI?" Millie +1 for Roddick, Pericci +1 for Roddick
- "How about Lumi?" No affection points.

PA 32Millie and Ilia at Haute

1. Millie, Ronyx, and Mavelle are in the party.
Necessary for PA88

With Millie, Ronyx, and Mavelle in the party, return to Haute for a Private Action and speak to Millie or Ilia on the upper bridge. This is the first in a series of three Private Actions that greatly affect the relationship between Ronyx and Ilia and may even unlock an additional ending.

PA 33*Ronyx at Haute

1. Millie and Ronyx are in the party.

With Millie and Ronyx in the party, return to Haute and speak to Ronyx just below the food merchant. His obsession with Fellpool tails has gotten so bad that he makes a rather improper suggestion to Roddick.

PA 34*Pericci at Portmuth Pier

1. Pericci is in the party.

After recruiting Pericci, return to Portmuth and speak to her near the docks.

PA 35Millie, Ronyx, and Ilia at Tropp Upper Square

1. Millie and Ronyx are in the party.

With Millie and Ronyx in the party, return to Tropp for a Private Action. Go north from the entrance to find Millie, Ilia, and Ronyx standing near the fountain talking about his newfound symbology. However, the situation quickly turns embarrassing for Ronyx.

PA 36*Millie and Mavelle at Portmuth Upper Area

1. Millie and Mavelle are in the party.

AP WHO'S RIGHT?CHOICES:

- Side with Millie
- Mavelle -1 for Roddick
- Side with Mavelle
- Millie -1 for Roddick

Return to Portmuth and enter the upper area. Speak to Millie or Mavelle to trigger a scene. You must choose who is right and hurt someone's feelings.

This is the Private Action where Pericci can be recruited into the party. To trigger this scene, you must have visited the pirates' hideout and released Pericci. You also must possess the Ocarina she dropped at Portmuth. Speak to Millie, who is standing near a kitten. Choose to name the cat PERICCI, then try to move away. Let the kitty follow, and then return to its position. Stay in that spot and equip the Ocarina. Press the X button to use it and make Pericci join the party.

PA 37Millie and Mavelle at Tropp Entrance

1. Millie and Mavelle are in the party.

AP TRUE BEAUTYCHOICES:

"Mavelle's right."

Millie +2 for Roddick, Mavelle +1 for Roddick

"It really doesn't suit you, Millie."

Millie -3 for Roddick, Mavelle -1 for Roddick

SPEAK TO MILLIE 5 TIMES AFTERWARD:

Millie +2 for Roddick

Upon initiating the Private Action at Tropp, Millie and Mavelle may be found standing near the entrance of town. Millie wants Mavelle to help her become a gorgeous woman. Mavelle is trying to reassure her that she's fine, but she also needs Roddick's convincing. Choose the top option, "Mavelle's right", to score points with Millie and Mavelle. Additionally, if you speak to Millie again five more times before leaving town, you'll score another 2 affection points with her.

PA 38*Millie and Pericci at Tropp Inn

1. Millie and Pericci are in the party.

Enter the combination Inn/Item Shop during a Private Action and find Millie and Pericci in the quarters on the upper level. They're telling secrets about Roddick, only Pericci doesn't seem too sure what a secret is.

PA 39*Millie at Tropp, Outside Bar

1. Millie and Ronyx are in the party.
Necessary for PA47

This is the first in a series of connected Private Actions involving Millie's concern for a maid in Tropp. The maid serves a flamboyant and arrogant man named Mazzoi, who chides her in public. Millie resolves to do something to help her out in the near future.

PA 40*T'nique at Kraat Inn

1. Van Emblem obtained.
2. T'nique is in the party.

AP T'NIQUE SLEEPSCHOICES:

Tickle him

T'nique -1 for Roddick

Wonder what he dreams about

No affection points

Close his mouth

No affection points

Remove his glasses

T'nique +1 for Roddick

T'nique is napping at the Inn. Approach the bed and you'll have four choices. Removing his glasses is the only way to score affection points. After removing them, T'nique gets up and searches for them, bumping into furniture. Whether or not you give him his glasses does not change the overall affection.

PA 41Phia and Ashlay at Portmith Bar

1. Van Emblem obtained.
2. Ashlay and Phia are in the party.

Speak to either character in the Portmith Bar to trigger a scene wherein Phia wants to know more about Ashlay.

PA 42Phia Inside Autanim Inn

1. Van Emblem obtained.
2. Phia is in the party.

What occurs during this Private Action depends on whether Phia was rescued from jail. If so, she reveals Cyuss's reasons for leaving his father, Lord Lias. If Phia was recruited after the Van Emblem was obtained, then she merely peeks out from behind a curtain while Cyuss and Roddick talk about their reasons for traveling.

PA 43Pericci, T'nique at Tropp Plaza

1. Van Emblem obtained.
2. Pericci and T'nique are in the party.

Necessary for PA44

This is the first in a series of three connected Private Actions. Enter the plaza to trigger this event automatically. T'nique asks Pericci to teach him more techniques.

PA 44Cyuss, T'nique, and Pericci at Eckdart
Retail Square

1. Van Emblem obtained.
2. PA43 previously occurred.
3. Pericci, Cyuss, and T'nique are in the party.

Necessary for PA95

T'nique shares the techniques he learned from Pericci with Cyuss, but onlookers get the wrong idea.

PA 45T'nique at Eckdart Bridge

1. Van Emblem obtained.
2. T'nique is in the party.
3. Ashlay and Cyuss are not in the party.

T'nique attempts to carry an overload of liquor bottles as part of his training.

PA 46Ioshua and Mavelle at Van City Entrance

1. Van Emblem obtained.
2. Ronyx, Ioshua, and Mavelle are in the party.

AP GOOD TIMINGCOMPLETION OF SCENE

Ronyx +1 for Roddick

Ioshua +1 for Roddick

Mavelle +1 for Roddick

Ioshua gets serious about determining Mavelle's past. Following the scene, speak to Mavelle to lighten the mood and score some affection points.

PA 47

Millie at Ionis Food Shop

1. Van Emblem obtained.
2. Millie is in the party.
3. PA39 occurred.

Necessary for PA89

AP HELP THE MAID

CHOICE 1

- "Ignore her."
- Millie -1 for Roddick
- "Talk to her."
- No affection points

CHOICE 2

- Give her Creamy Cheese
- Millie +1 for Roddick
- Don't give her Creamy Cheese
- Millie -1 for Roddick

Try to have a Creamy Cheese item on hand before initiating this Private Action. Millie once again encounters the overworked maid, this time tasked with procuring Creamy Cheese. Millie wants Roddick to take action. If you choose to not talk to the maid, the event ends and Millie's affection for Roddick decreases. If you choose to talk to the maid but do not have Creamy Cheese on hand, the event ends but can be initiated again later. If you have the item on hand, the second choice appears. Give the Creamy Cheese to the maid to gain points with Millie. If you do not, then you won't receive any items during PA89. Creamy Cheese can be bought in Silvalant City, made with the Cooking specialty, and it can also be pickpocketed from several people in various towns, albeit not easily.

PA 49

Millie, Pericci, and Ioshua at Van City Common Area

1. Van Emblem obtained.
2. Millie, Pericci, and Ioshua are in the party.

Millie and Pericci have some devious plans to bring out Ioshua's feminine side.

PA 50

Ashlay at Van City Skill Guild

1. Van Emblem obtained.
2. Ashlay is in the party.

Necessary for PA103

AP TESTING THE APPRENTICE

CHOICE 1

- First option
- No affection points (Go to Choice 2)
- Second option
- No affection points (end event)
- Third option
- No affection points (end event)

CHOICE 2

- First option
- No affection points (end event)
- Second option
- No affection points (Go to Choice 3)
- Third option
- Ashlay +3 for Roddick

CHOICE 3

- Yes: Ashlay -3 for Roddick
- No: Ashlay +1 for Roddick

This Private Action with Ashlay is crucial to your relationship with him, plus it's the next step toward obtaining the Wurm King SFT for Roddick. Speak to Ashlay in the Skill Guild and make the appropriate choices to garner affection points. The first choice doesn't change the overall affection. Select the first option to proceed to the next choice. In the second choice, choose the third option to raise Ashlay's affection for Roddick by 3 and end the event. Choosing the second option leads to the third choice. However, in the third choice, selecting the first option causes Roddick to lose 3 affection points with Ashlay, whereas the second option only adds one. Therefore, the best option is to end the conversation in the second round to gain the most affection points.

PA 52

Pericci at Muah Castle Entrance

1. Muah Emblem obtained.
2. Pericci is in the party.

Necessary for PA53

AP PERICCI'S FRIEND, PT. 1

CHOICES

- "That doesn't enter the equation"
- Pericci -1 for Roddick
- "Oh, well... Let's give it a shot"
- Pericci +1 for Roddick

This is the first of two Private Actions involving Pericci that is required to obtain the Bunny Whistle. After receiving the Muah Emblem, return to Portmith for a Private Action when Pericci is in the party. Roddick encounters Pericci outside Muah Castle's entrance, wanting to go inside. Choose the second option to foster affection points with Pericci and continue the scene. Afterwards, you should return to Haute immediately to activate PA53.

PA 53

Pericci in Haute

1. PA52 occurred.

AP PERICCI'S FRIEND, PT. 2

COMPLETION

Pericci +1 for Roddick

Speak to Pericci outside the Item Shop in Haute to initiate a scene. Pericci goes inside and awakens her friend, who happens to be the "statue" Roddick, Ilia, and Cyuss delivered to Badam. Although Badam still tries to collect on his investment, he can only watch helplessly as it hops away with Roddick. The party then receives the Bunny Whistle. Use this item while on the World Map to ride at double speed without random encounters!

PA 51

Millie at Durss North Area

1. Van Emblem obtained.
2. Have not returned to Van Castle with all four emblems.
3. Millie is in the party.

Proceed to the north area during a Private Action at Durss and speak to Millie or Remia, the little girl making snowmen. With your help, Remia can make an entire line of them!

PA 48

Cyuss Inside Van City Skill Guild

1. Van Emblem obtained.
2. Cyuss is in the party.
3. At least 1000 Fol possessed.

AP CYUSS'S SHOPPING SPREE

CHOICES

- Yes: Cyuss +1 for Roddick
- No: Cyuss -1 for Roddick

Cyuss wants to do some shopping and asks to borrow 1000 Fol. If you agree, Cyuss takes the money and heads to the Weapon Shop. When you exit the town later, he hands over the items he bought:

- Silver Rabe x2
- Sinclair
- Zweihander
- Plate Greaves x2
- Crassbaw
- Plate Helmet
- Knight's Shield

At first, it may seem like Cyuss spent a lot of Fol on a bunch of useless pieces, given the late stage at which this Private Action occurs. But the fact is the total purchase value of these items is greater than 1000 Fol at any shop. And the combined sale value is more than 5450 Fol, not including increases gained from super specialties.

PA 54

Welch at Kraat

1. Welch is in the party.
Necessary for PA80

Welch takes a snooze on someone's lawn in Kraat. During the scene, the choices offered do not change any affection points.

PA 55

Welch by the Fanfic Girls at Autanim

1. Welch is in the party.

Mystery-girl Welch holds a great deal of pull with the young ladies selling the fanfics outside the Weapon Shop in Autanim. Perhaps she gets her peculiar personality from reading too many mangas?

PA 56

Welch at Tropp Plaza

1. Welch is in the party.
Necessary for PA58, PA94

AP WELCH'S LOVE POTIONCHOICES

- Don't be her test subject
- No affection points
- Let her demonstrate on Roddick
- Welch +1 for Roddick

Roddick finds Welch trying experimental love potions in Tropp's main plaza. Unless you choose the second option to become a guinea pig, Welch demonstrates on one of the other males in the party. Since opportunities to bond with Welch are few and far between outside of boss fights, man up and choose to be her subject.

PA 57

Welch at Eckdart Entrance

1. Welch is in the party.

Initiate this Private Action at Eckdart after recruiting Welch in the party for a revealing scene.

PA 58

Cyuss, Pericci, T'nique, and Welch at Eckdart Residential Area

1. Cyuss, Pericci, T'nique, and Welch in the party.
2. PA56 occurred.

Welch is a mysterious character who only reveals bits and pieces of her personality and history under very specific conditions, such as when certain other characters are around. Here, she continues to aggravate more party members with her mysterious ways.

PA 59

Welch at Ionis Plaza

1. Welch is in the party.
2. PA91 has not occurred.
Necessary for PA63

Welch's reign of mischief continues as another one of her schemes upsets Ilia and Ronyx.

PA 60

Welch at Ionis Alleyway

1. Welch is in the party.

Roddick finds Welch sulking in the alleyway.

PA 61

Welch at Ionis Weapon Shop

1. Welch is in the party.

Ilia becomes keen to Welch's out-of-this-world fashion.

PA 62

Welch at Van City Entrance

1. Welch is in the party.

Welch enjoys the ambiance of Van City.

PA 63

Welch at Tatroi Central Passage

1. Cyuss, Phia, Welch in the party.
2. PA59 has occurred.

Welch mystifies Phia with her bizarre riddles and clues.

PA 64

Ioshua at Silvalant Castle North Corridor

1. Silvalant Emblem has been obtained.
2. "Featherfolk Reunion at Old Race Ruins" event has not occurred.
3. Ioshua is in the party.

Head to the back hallway of Silvalant Castle, where Ioshua learns about the story of a young Featherfolk girl who attacked the castle.

PA 65

Mavelle at Silvalant Castle Foyer

1. Silvalant Emblem has been obtained.
2. "Entrance to Demon World" event has not occurred.
3. Mavelle is in the party.

Mavelle is overheard seeking information about the staff at Silvalant Castle.

PA 66

Millie at Silvalant Castle Plaza

1. Silvalant Emblem has been obtained.

AP CATS OR DOGS?ACTIONS

- Talk to Millie after all other members
- Millie +1 for Roddick
- Leave without talking to party
- Millie -1 for Roddick

Millie wants to know whether the party likes cats or dogs better. Talk to Millie in the plaza, and she eventually asks if you prefer cats or dogs. Choosing dogs over cats causes Millie to look upset. Either way, she then asks you to talk to the rest of the party. You can then approach and speak to the surrounding party members in the area before returning to Millie with the results. However, if you leave the plaza without talking to all of the party members, Millie becomes angry and loses affection for Roddick.

PA 67

Millie at Silvalant Market

1. Silvalant Emblem has been obtained.
2. Millie joined the party at Eckdart.
3. Millie and Roddick have affection level 9 or higher.

AP I MADE THIS FOR YOU!COMPLETION

Millie, Roddick +1 for each other

Stumbling upon Millie at the central marketplace in Silvalant City, Roddick finds her trying to pick something out. If you speak to her, she doesn't seem much interested in talking. However, if you try to walk away afterward, she calls out to Roddick and gives him the Good Luck Charm. This is a great accessory that you can receive if Millie is in the party and her affection is high.

PA 68

Phia at Silvalant City Northeast Street

1. Silvalant Emblem has been obtained.
2. Phia is in the party.
3. "Phia's jailbreak" event has not occurred.
Necessary for PA79

AP STAND UP FOR PHIACOMPLETION

Cyuss is in the party
Cyuss, Phia, +1 for each other

As a kind of sequel to PA10, Roddick overhears two Silvalant soldiers drooling over Phia. Phia overhears this time, causing Cyuss to step in if he is in the party. This scene results in a greater bond between the two.

PA 69Erys at Silvalant City Bar

1. Erys is in the party.

AP MAVELLE'S MEMORYCOMPLETION

Millie +1 for Roddick
Erys +1 for Roddick

This short scene becomes available during the Private Action at Silvalant after Erys joins the party at the Old Race Ruin. Approaching her and Millie inside the Bar causes her to talk about Mavelle's memories and increases affection all around.

PA 70Erys at Autanim Entrance

1. Erys is in the party.
2. PA12 occurred.

AP CURIOUS CHILDRENCHOICES

Help her
Erys +1 for Roddick
Make fun of her
Ashley -1 for Roddick

This event echoes the previous one in Autanim, where Ioshua was surrounded by a group of curious children. Help disperse the crowd to foster affection with Erys. If not, Ashley must step in and he loses patience with Roddick as a result.

PA 71Erys at Eckdard Entrance

1. Erys is in the party.

Approach Erys near the Eckdard entrance to trigger a short scene with her.

PA 72Erys at Ionis Entrance

1. Erys is in the party.

AP ANGRY MOBCHOICES

Help her
Erys +1 for Roddick
Watch what happens
Ioshua, Erys +1 for each other, Erys -1 for Roddick power. With this option, the relations between Ioshua and his sister increase, which is probably even better.

PA 73Erys at Ionis Alley

1. Erys is in the party.

AP LEGACY OF DEATHCOMPLETION

Ioshua -1 for Roddick
Erys +1 for Roddick

Speak to Erys when she stands alone in the alleyway. The past may be good for her to remember, but it is too much for Ioshua.

PA 74Erys at Van City Waterside Area

1. Erys is in the party.

Find Erys at the area in Van City where a Mind Bomb is located in a chest. At this location, you can view a scene between her and a symbologist.

PA 75Erys in Van City Street Area

1. Erys is in the party.

AP PINK FLOWERSCHOICES

Wonder what to say
Millie -1 for Roddick
Compliment her
Millie +1 for Roddick

During the scene in the little raised square, choose the second option to increase Millie's feelings for Roddick.

PA 76Ioshua at Van City Entrance

1. "Featherfolk Reunion" event occurred.
2. Mavelle is not in the party.

This painful scene serves as a requiem for the Featherfolk Reunion scene that takes place on the lowest level of the Old Race Ruin. Ioshua is overcome with his grief.

PA 77T'nique at Kraat

1. Not all emblems acquired.
2. Must have Salt Rice Ball in possession.
3. T'nique is in the party.

AP RICE BALL STUFFINGCHOICES

Use a stuffing
T'nique -1 for Roddick
No stuffing
T'nique +3 for Roddick

This event only occurs during a Private Action at Kraat if T'nique is in the party and a Salt Rice Ball is in the item inventory. Try to make this item with the Cooking specialty to make this event occur. Speak to T'nique near the center of the village, where he is stuffing his face with rice balls. When T'nique asks Roddick what kind of filling he would put into a rice ball, choose the second option to score major affection points with him. T'nique prefers his rice balls sans stuffing and becomes angry if you choose a filling.

PA 78Pericci at Kraat

1. Not all emblems acquired.
2. PA66 occurred.
3. Pericci is in the party.

AP PERICCI'S POUTCOMPLETION:

Pericci -1 for Roddick

Since Pericci has a fit with Roddick in this Private Action, it is best avoided.

PA 79Phia at Kraat

1. Not all emblems acquired.
2. PA68 occurred.
3. Phia is in the party.

Phia finally gets the drooling soldiers under control.

PA 80Welch in Haute

1. Not all emblems acquired.
2. PA54 occurred.
3. Welch is in the party.

Welch decides to take another nap in a nice patch of grass.

PA 81Millie Outside Portmith Weapon Shop

1. Not all emblems acquired.

AP TOGETHERCOMPLETION

Millie, Roddick +1 for each other

Talk to Millie in the alleyway to trigger a mutual bonding scene worth an additional affection point on both sides.

PA 82Ronyx Outside Tatroi Item Shop

1. Not all emblems acquired.
2. Ashley is in the party.

Necessary for PA94

Speak to Ronyx about his feelings for Ashley.

PA 83T'nique Outside Autanim Skill Guild

1. Not all emblems acquired.
2. T'nique is in the party.

AP WHAT IS T'NIQUE?CHOICES

- He's a wolf
T'nique +1 for Roddick
He's a dog
T'nique -1 for Roddick

A child witnesses T'nique's transformation, but mistakes him for a dog. Correct the child to score an affection point with T'nique.

PA 84Erys Outside Autanim Item Shop

1. Not all emblems acquired.
2. PA25 occurred.
3. Erys is in the party.

AP WOMANKINDCHOICES

- Choose personality
Erys +1 for Roddick
Take the artist's side
Erys -1 for Roddick

The same artist looking for models in the plaza who once approached Mavelle so enthusiastically has little interest in Erys. After the scene, talk to Erys and tell her personality is what's important to bolster her morale.

PA 85T'nique at Tatroi Arena Lobby

1. Not all emblems acquired.
2. T'nique is in the party.

After this Private Action, if T'nique is used to fight in the A Rank match in the arena, his character ending changes slightly at the end of the game (with the proper requirements fulfilled).

PA 86Cyuss at Tatroi Arena Stadium Area

1. Not all emblems acquired.
2. Cyuss is in the party.

AP THE CHALLENGEWIN

- Entire party +1 for Cyuss
Phio +1 for Cyuss

LOSE

- Entire party -1 for Cyuss
Phio -1 for Cyuss

Cyuss gets cocky and joins the arena battle to prove something. Make sure Cyuss is properly equipped and healthy before initiating this Private Action outside Tatroi, since Cyuss must fight a Giant in the ring. Winning means an increase in affection among all party members for Cyuss, while losing results in a decrease. If Phio is in the party, she gains or loses an additional point based on the outcome, so do your best to impress her!

PA 87Cyuss and T'nique at Tatroi Central Passage

1. Not all emblems acquired.
2. Cyuss and T'nique are in the party.

Speak to T'nique in front of the arena to engage a short scene involving a lot of macho talk about fighting.

PA 88Millie, Ilia, and Ronyx at Tropp Bar

1. Not all emblems acquired.
2. PA32 occurred.

Necessary for PA91

AP THE CHALLENGESPEAK TO RONYX AFTER THE SCENE

- Ronyx +1 for Roddick
Ronyx +1 for Ilia

Although Ilia's trying to turn on the charm, Ronyx still can't get over his deceased wife. After the scene, speak to Ronyx to garner some affection points with him.

PA 89Millie Outside Tropp Bar

1. Not all emblems acquired.
2. PA47 occurred, Creamy Cheese given to maid.

This is the last in the series regarding the couple in Tropp. If you gave the maid some Creamy Cheese during PA47, she is much happier and hands over some items:

- Luscious Gratin
- Scrumptious Pizza
- Delectable Cheese
- Treasured Gargonzala

PA 90Mavelle Inside Karner's Mansion at Eckdart

1. Not all emblems acquired, have not entered Demon World.
2. Mavelle is in the party.
3. PA28 occurred.

AP MADAM KARNER'S RECEPTIONCOMPLETION

- Mavelle +1 for Roddick

If you have not visited the Old Race Ruins, then Mavelle may still be in the party. Stop by Karner's Mansion in Eckdart to view a scene that finally gives Mavelle some hope.

PA 92*T'nique at Eckdart Landing Area

1. Not all emblems acquired.
2. T'nique is in the party.

Speak to T'nique here to initiate a scene, then follow him through several areas of the town.

PA 93Ioshua and Pericci Outside Eckdart Inn

1. Not all emblems acquired.
2. Ioshua and Pericci are in the party.

Necessary for PA96

Speak to either of these two to view a short scene where Pericci threatens to eat Ioshua, who she thinks is a bird.

PA 94*Ronyx and Ashlay at Ionis Bar

1. Not all emblems acquired.
2. Ashlay is in the party.
3. PA82 occurred.

Enter the bar in Ionis during a Private Action to witness a scene between these two leaders.

PA 91Ilia, Ronyx Inside Eckdart Item Shop (Jewel)

1. Ilia and Ronyx at 8 affection points or higher for each other.
3. PA88 occurred.

AP ENGAGEMENTCOMPLETION

- Ilia, Ronyx +5 for each other

Ronyx finally declares his love for Ilia in a most surprising way. This triggers an additional scene following the credit roll during the game's ending.

PA 95T'nique at Ionis Plaza

1. Not all emblems acquired.
2. T'nique is in the party.
3. PA44 occurred.

This scene completes the trilogy started when T'nique looked to Pericci for combat advice.

PA 96Ioshua and Pericci at Stairs to Van City Weapon Shop

1. Not all emblems acquired.
2. Ioshua and Pericci are in the party.
3. PA93 occurred.

Necessary for PA98

Pericci continues to dream of eating Ioshua, who still can't convince her that he's not a bird.

PA 97Welch at Ionis, Outside Skill Guild

1. Not all emblems acquired.
2. Welch is in the party.
3. PA56 occurred.
4. Party possesses at least 2000 Fol.

AP THANKS FOR COVERING FOR ME!COMPLETION

Welch +1 for Roddick

Welch is playing pranks all over Ionis. When Roddick enters the central alley to discipline her, she springs a trap on him and runs away. Ilia and Ronyx free him from the trap. Afterward, Roddick automatically pays Ronyx 600 Fol. Go to the bar and Ronyx buys the following: Egg Fried Rice, Hamburg Steak, Fried Egg, and Stir-Fry. When you return to town, Welch hands over Twice-cooked Pork to make amends.

PA 98Ioshua and Pericci at Ionis Plaza

1. Not all emblems acquired.
2. Ioshua and Pericci are in the party.
3. PA96 occurred.

APTASTY BIRD*CHOICES

Chase Ioshua

Ioshua -1 for Roddick

Don't chase Ioshua

Ioshua +1 for Roddick

Roddick finds Pericci chasing Ioshua around the Ionis plaza, having mistaken him for a bird. The first choice is the more humorous option, but this lowers Ioshua's affection for Roddick. The proper thing to do is tell Pericci not to chase him.

PA 99Millie and Ilia at Van City Inn

1. Not all emblems acquired.
2. Millie, Ilia, and three other female characters are in the party.

Enter the Inn at Van City during this Private Action to witness a bizarre girl's night.

PA 100Pericci Inside Silvalant City Weapon Shop

1. Not all emblems acquired.
2. Pericci is in the party.

Enter the Weapon Shop to view a cute scene where Pericci cuddles up to the local felines.

PA 101Millie at Silvalant City Inn

1. Not all emblems acquired.
2. Millie joined the party in Silvalant.

Necessary for PA102

Looks like Millie became close with the citizenry during her time alone at Silvalant.

PA 102Welch at Silvalant City Plaza

1. Not all emblems acquired.
2. Welch is in the party.
3. PA101 occurred.

Seeing how friendly Millie is with the locals, Welch reveals a bit more about herself.

PA 103Ashlay at Silvalant Castle Courtyard

1. Durss destroyed.
2. Ashlay and Roddick's affection scores for each other are 9 or higher.
3. PA50 occurred.

APFAILURE TO REPORT

FAILURE TO INITIATE SCENE WITH ASHLAY
Ashlay -3 for Roddick

When a Private Action is initiated at Silvalant that meets the above criteria, Ashlay asks Roddick to meet him in the courtyard of Silvalant Castle. If Roddick leaves town before meeting Ashlay in the courtyard, Ashlay gets angry and his affection for Roddick drops three points. At this late stage in the game, raising Ashlay's affection for Roddick back up to 9 is extremely difficult, so don't forget to meet Ashlay. Once there, Roddick learns the Wyrn King SFT from Ashlay, which allows him to learn his most powerful special arts.

PA 104Ashlay and Erys at Tropp

1. Received the Force Swords from Lias.
2. Ashlay and Erys are in the party.

Catch this scene in front of the house in Tropp, featuring two characters who rarely interact.

PA 105Safe House

1. Arrived at Fargett safe house.

Speak to the two little girls standing to the right just inside the entrance.

PA 106*Ronyx and Erys at Safe House

1. Erys is in the party.
2. Viewed the "Asmodeus background" scene at bio-lab.

Return to the safe house after visiting the bio-lab and approaching the statue in the lobby. In the second area, Ronyx and Erys share a short scene.

PA 107Millie and Pericci at Safe House Entrance

1. Pericci is in the party.
2. Used the Save Point on Reverse Tower 8F.

After using the Save Point on level 8F of the Reverse Tower, exit and return to the safe house to initiate a Private Action. Go to the second area, and then return to the entrance to witness a bizarre scene between Millie and Pericci. What a way to wind up the Private Actions!

BATTLE ARENA

At the Tatroi Battle Arena, characters may sign up with the guards at the desk for a tournament. Only one character can enter at a time using only the equipment he or she carries and the items provided by the arena. The items provided vary based on which character is chosen to fight and the rank in which he or she competes.

All arena battles are one-versus-one.

Speak to the guards at the desk to enroll one party member in a fighting tournament.

Dying or becoming immobile (via paralysis or petrification) results in a loss. Equipping accessories that prevent paralysis or petrification is recommended in the higher ranks. Otherwise, defeating all the monsters in a rank means the character becomes rank champion and wins a prize set. The prizes awarded depend on the character chosen to fight. Winning characters increase one rank in the arena. The next time the same character signs up to fight, he or she fights in the next-higher rank. Each character starts at H Rank, and fights his or her way up to A Rank.

Fighting in the arena yields an array of bonuses, including the ability to recruit T'nique (D Rank boss) after acquiring the Van Emblem, and also the option of acquiring the Omega SFT, which allows several characters to learn new special arts.

For winning a tournament, the character receives items and advances one rank.

PUFFY'S GAME

Puffy stands between the doorways of the Inn and the home in the first area of Tatroi. For 600 Fol, she indulges the party with a multiple-choice game. Puffy describes an adventure and leaves the choices at each stage up to you. Pick the right choices in order to win items and prizes.

Speak to Puffy outside Tatroi's Inn to engage in a short mini-game.

The first time you play with Puffy, select the following options to win 120 Fol and Flare Bomb (one time only):

- "I'm going left."
- "Search the corpse."
- "Let me search it already."

After that, select the following options to receive a Murky Potion at the expense of the Flare Bomb:

- "Pray for him."
- "I'll use a Flare Bomb."

Next, if you have a Nuclear Bomb in your possession, pick the following options to win the game and collect 600 Fol and a Saber (as many times as you like) and receive 100 Skill Points the first time:

- "I'll use an item."
- "Nuclear Bomb."

A Nuclear Bomb can be made using the Machinist specialty. In the choices afterward, avoid using a Murky Potion, or you cannot play this game until the next time you return to Tatroi!

WORD FROM THE GODS

After saving your game at the final Save Point inside Reverse Tower, head south back to the last teleport pad. Continue through the south doorway and down the ramp to find another teleporter. Step on the pad to send the party back to level B1F of the Reverse Tower. Head east to find the central chamber that was previously divided. The dividers are gone, which means the party can go south to find yet another teleporter. Step on it to visit the Oracle Room.

After using the final Save Point in Reverse Tower, head to the south end of 7F to teleport back to B1F.

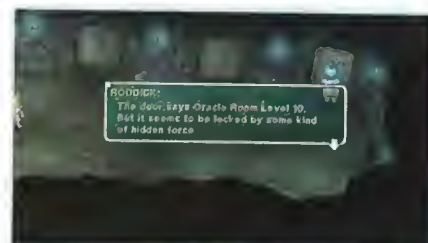

The dividers in the central room of B1F are now gone; head south to teleport to the Oracle Room.

The resistance soldier from the safe house also appears here, selling items. Seven doors line the north wall. The first one on the left leads to the Cave of Seven Stars, an extra dungeon where the enemies are extremely difficult but the rewards are great. The other five doors are locked, unless a character in your party possesses the Oracle specialty. The various doors unlock based on what level the character's Oracle specialty has reached. Inside the rooms, the game developers make comments and ask questions about the game. There is a chest in the Level 10 Oracle Room on the far right that contains the Magic Jar, a very handy accessory that spits out random items while the party is walking.

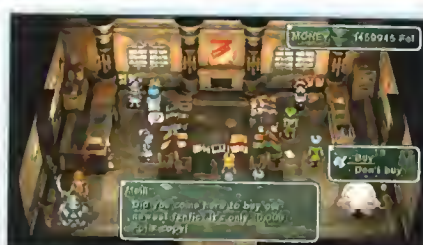

The south stairs from the Oracle Room lead back to the Labyrinth of Champions. You may now open the Mystery Shop. To do so, enter the center door and head north to the room with the seven moon doors. Numbering the rooms from left to right, make sure the switches in rooms 1, 3, 5 and 6 are all up. Next, flip down the switches in rooms 2 and 7. Return to the Labyrinth's entrance and go through the right door to enter the Mystery Shop. Some interesting characters hang out here, and a young lady at the back sells the Fanfic!!! for 10,000 Fol.

Return to the moon door room in the Labyrinth of Champions. Reverse the positions of all the switches from the last solution to open the Mystery Shop.

Improve the Oracle specialty to unlock five of the doors in the north wall.

The Mystery Shop features an odd assortment of characters, including a duo in the back selling a rare book.

THE ULTIMATE CHALLENGE!

The mightiest dungeon in the game is connected to the Oracle Room. The Cave of the Seven Stars is a 30 level dungeon with only one Save Point at the beginning. Each random encounter in the dungeon is as difficult—or harder—as any boss fight in the game. The dungeon contains dozens of useful items, including the best weapon for every character. The enemies encountered change every 10 levels. There are three optional boss fights (handy for boosting character affection points) and a major boss fight in the final room on level B30F.

Character levels of 100+ are recommended. If your party is nowhere near that level, simply wander inside the first few levels of the cave. Characters gain 4-6 levels per victory, so they should be ready in no time.

Augmented special arts are the key to long-term survival. Make sure the chocters know every possible special art before going too deep.

until the enemies remaining number two or less, then finish the battle with physical attacks.

A big problem is maintaining a good supply of MP through 30 levels. Buy full supplies of Blackberries and various mixed drinks from the resistance soldier in the Oracle Room before descending. Fight plenty of Dark Magicians, Elder Witchettes, and Friars on levels B1F-B10F, since they drop Sour Syrups on a regular basis. Have 20 Sour Syrups and 20 Blackberries on hand before entering B21F through B30F.

Buy at least one or more Jewel of the Frog items from the merchant in the Oracle Cave. Use one of them to escape the Cave of the Seven Stars if the following conditions occur:

Chocters gain tremendous experience and Fol from even a single random encounter.

Parties of Vile Beasts (B11F-B20F) or Grave Borers (B21F-B30F) can wipe out characters even at levels 110+ in just a few seconds. The keys to surviving these battles are special arts learned from SFT skills. Ensure melee fighters learn their Four Beasts and/or Omega special arts before venturing into the deeper levels of the cave. Oftentimes, the easiest way to quickly end a battle and survive is to use Roddick's Phoenix Blast repeatedly MP must be full at all times to save the party from dangerous bottles.

- MP recovery items run out.
- Resurrection items run out.
- Defeated any of the Demonic Eye bosses.
- Defeated the B30F bosses, Resphina and Bandit Kings x2.

Remember to reduce the resistance soldier's prices by activating "Lower Prices" in the Group Appraising super specialty, and use a Cinderella Glass to lower his prices even further.

THE CHESTS ON B4F

The south door on B4F is locked. To the north are four doors, each with an empty chest behind it. From left to right, close the chests in the second, third, and fourth rooms to unlock the south door.

Open the south door by closing the chests in the three rooms to the right.

A chest on B6F contains the Backstab skill, which should plug the final hole in your chocters' skill lists.

LADIES FIRST ON B9F

The south door on B9F remains closed and locked, unless you fill the party with female characters.

If by some reason you do not have four female characters, you can go no further than B9F.

DEMONIC EYE X2

HP	54750
WEAK VS.	None
ITEM DROP	Ring of Lightspeed (2%)

An event prior to the battle reduces every party member to 1 HP. With Millie or Ioshua in the party set to a "Focus on healing friends!" strategy, they should take care of the problem while the melee fighters contend with the monsters. Help your healers by increasing their Recast and Haste Speech skill levels.

The Demonic Eyes' first order of business seems to be to petrify party members. As long as you have a healthy supply of Stone Cures or Medicine Bottles, continue softening your party members so that all remain in the battle. Melee fighters can reduce the number of times characters are petrified simply by continuous physical attacks. Both creatures absorb Fire, Wind, and Dark attacks, so avoid using special arts or symbology that damages with these elements.

STONE LOVERS ON B14F

To open the south door on B14F, turn the boy and girl statues at the top to face each other and do the same with the "couple" on the bottom. To turn a statue, simply stand next to it and press the \otimes button.

Turn the top couple and the bottom couple to face one another and unlock the south door.

HIDDEN PASSAGES ON B15F

Hidden passages connect several rooms on B15F. Refer to the maps in this guide to determine how they connect. For starters, head south and take a hidden passage to a room where a chest contains the Extinction spell for Ioshua or Erys. Go through a secret passage to the west and continue past the next room into a third passage.

Secret passages connect the rooms on B15F. Refer to the maps in this section for the hidden paths.

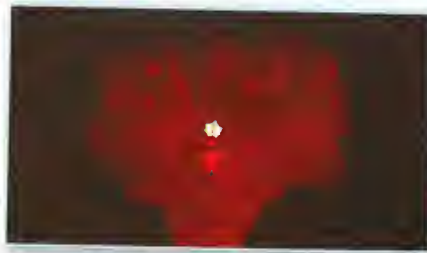

Go west from that room to reach another chamber, then go south to open four treasure chests containing Damascus, a Ring of Healing, Holy Orb, and the Xtra Knuckles. Now go back two areas, then through a secret area on the south wall to descend to the next level.

The Holy Orb and the Xtra Knuckles are the supreme weapons for Mavelle and Pericci, respectively.

THE DANGER ON B18F

B18F is the home of the first of several bosses in the Cave of Seven Stars. Upon entering the level, head south and west to collect a Rainbow Diamond. Then, return to the entrance and go east. A wounded adventurer lying on the ground warns of danger in the room to the north. Place a healer with full MP in the party, such as Millie or Ioshua, and prepare to fight!

That red glow is more than just a security warning—it's draining the party's HP!

THE SECOND CHEST PUZZLE

On B19F, the party encounters yet another area with four side areas, each containing a chest. As the inscription on the central stone indicates, the chests must be opened and closed so that one is not in the same position as the next in order to open the south exit. To solve the puzzle in the shortest time, simply examine the chests behind doors number 3 and 4, from the left.

Examine the chests in the two rooms to the east to unlock the south door.

ANOTHER UNSEEN MAZE

On B20F, head through the hidden passage to the east. Then, find another hidden passage to the south and go west to the room where a chest contains the Kaiser Knuckles, Ilia's best weapon. Next, return to the entrance.

The connecting corridors between rooms are hidden once again.

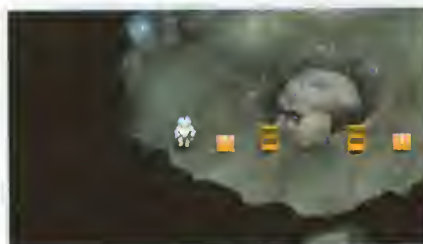

Head west from the entrance through a hidden passage to the next room and descend the stairs to the south. The cave below houses chests containing Orichalcum, a Faerie Ring, and the Star Lance, T'nique's best weapon. Return to the previous room and go west to find a Ring of Infinity, and then the exit.

The Ring of Infinity gives the wearer extra experience points while walking.

THE FINAL CHEST PUZZLE

Opening or closing one of the chests on B24F affects some of the other chests. To close them all, close the second one from the left, followed by the third one from the left.

Closing one chest may open others.

THE LAST INVISIBLE CORRIDORS

From the entrance of B25F, head west through one of two hidden passages in the next three areas. Take the hidden passage in the northeast corner of the third room to reach a chest containing Welch's best weapon: the Violent Handy Stick. Return to the previous room and go south to obtain Mithril, a Ring of Wisdom, the Murasama, and the Cyuss Special. Two more characters now have their ultimate armaments!

The party must pass below the room where Welch's Violent Handy Stick awaits before they can reach the location.

Return to B25F and navigate back through the hidden passages to reach the entrance. From there, go south and then west to find the path continuing downward.

A party of Grove Benders can wipe out the party quickly. But because they are weak against fire, Roddick's Phoenix Blast works like a charm.

On B27F, head east from the entrance and open the chest to obtain Roddick's best weapon: the Aurora Blade.

BANDIT KING X2

HP	117750
WEAK	None
DROP	Velvet Tear (100%)

RESPHINA

HP	35300
WEAK	Dark
DROP	Resurrection Mist(2%)

Although the Bandit Kings are technically the bosses, Resphina is the one who does major damage to the party by firing projectiles from the sidelines and utilizing spinning blade attacks that petrify characters. It makes sense that Resphina must be taken out first! A good strategy is to set the party's Targeting Mode to Semi-auto prior to the battle. Then, target Resphina and pursue her around the battlefield. Constant physical attacks helps prevent her from petrifying characters and inflicting so much damage. Also, equip your healer with a Robe of Deception or Amulet of Flexibility. Afterward, simply take out the Bandit Kings with your strongest spells and special arts.

THE SHY ONES

Turn the stone statues on B29F so that the top two and the bottom two are not facing each other. Open the south door by turning the two gents on the east side to face right.

Turn the two statues on the east side of the room away from their lovers to open the south door.

ITEM AND EQUIPMENT DATA

ENEMY DATA

WEAPONS

① Buy/Sell: The item's normal rate when buying or selling in a shop. A dash in the Buy column indicates you cannot purchase the item in shops and must acquire it another way. Some items cannot be sold!

② Copy: This number is used when attempting the Replication specialty to make a duplicate of the item. The higher this number, the easier it is to Replicate. Some items cannot be Replicated, though.

③ Equip: Certain pieces of equipment (weapons, armor, accessories) can only be worn by certain characters. Those characters who can equip it are listed in this column.

④ Stats: Changes to your character's stats (ATK, DEF, GUTS, etc.) for weapons and armor.

⑤ Special: Some equippable items have special abilities, such as elemental-based attacks for weapons, regenerative abilities for armor and accessories, and so on. Stat changes for accessories are also listed here.

⑥ Acquire: How you can obtain the item. Acquisition methods are divided into types for ease of use.

ARMOR

1 Buy/Sell: The item's normal rate when buying or selling in a shop. A dash in the Buy column indicates you cannot purchase the item in shops and must acquire it another way. Some items cannot be sold!

2 Copy: This number is used when attempting the Replication specialty to make a duplicate of the item. The higher this number, the easier it is to Replicate. Some items cannot be Replicated, though.

3 Equip: Certain pieces of equipment (weapons, armor, accessories) can only be worn by certain characters. Those characters who can equip it are listed in this area.

4 Stats: Changes to your character's stats (ATK, DEF, GUTS, etc.) for weapons and armor.

5 Elements: Certain pieces of armor and accessories alter your character's tolerances to elemental-based attacks. Numbers indicate the amount of change in damage received for those elements. "Heal" means attacks of that element type are absorbed as HP!

6 Special: Some equippable items have special abilities, such as elemental-based attacks for weapons, regenerative abilities for armor and accessories, and so on. Stat changes for accessories are also listed here.

7 Acquire: How you can obtain the item. Acquisition methods are divided into types for ease of use.

ITEM AND EQUIPMENT DATA

Resisting the Elements

Some pieces of armor are strong against certain elemental attacks. Only those pieces with reduced damage rates are given percentages (0% means the character takes no damage from that attack style). Certain pieces of armor even absorb elemental damage and convert it to healing HP!

ACCESSORIES

Every character can equip two accessories. These pieces have a vast range of effects on your characters. Some change their wearers' battle statistics or their elemental strengths and weaknesses. Other pieces can affect skills, making them more proficient. Certain ones even grant new powers! Play around with various combinations!

Crafting Accessories

Many of these accessories are acquired by Crafting them from Minerals. But did you know that you can use most Minerals as accessories as they are? It's true! All of the equippable Minerals are also listed in this chapter.

- ① Buy/Sell: The item's normal rate when buying or selling in a shop. A dash in the Buy column indicates you cannot purchase the item in shops and must acquire it another way. Some items cannot be sold!
- ② Copy: This number is used when attempting the Replication specialty to make a duplicate of the item. The higher this number, the easier it is to Replicate. Some items cannot be Replicated, though.
- ③ Equip: Certain pieces of equipment (weapons, armor, accessories) can only be worn by certain characters. Those characters who can equip it are listed in this column.
- ④ Elements: Certain pieces of armor and accessories alter your character's tolerances to elemental-based attacks. Numbers indicate the amount of change in damage received for those elements (Earth, Water, Fire, Wind, Light, and Dark). "Heal" means attacks of that element type are absorbed as HP!

- ⑤ Special: Some equippable items have special abilities, such as elemental-based attacks for weapons, regenerative abilities for armor and accessories, and so on. Stat changes for accessories are also listed here.
- ⑥ Acquire: How you can obtain the item. Acquisition methods are divided into types for ease of use.

SANTA'S BOOTS & MAGIC JAR

These two rare accessories are pretty amazing. They can really fill out your inventory by generating items at regular intervals. Many items are only available courtesy of these mystical accessories and some are extremely valuable!

The Santa's Boots, an expensive accessory sold in Silvalant City and the safe house on Fargett, provides a new item each time you spend the night at an inn or similar bed; wake up and find that Santa has left you a present! Equip this accessory prior to the party using the effects of the Inn. Because of its high cost, it's wise to activate some price-reducing specialties before buying it.

The Magic Jar, available in the Cave of the Seven Stars' Oracle Room (accessible only if someone has an Oracle specialty at level 10) does one better by providing items from its list periodically when you're doing nothing more than walking around!

Foods

Foods are mostly used to recover HP and MP. Most food items must be cooked from ingredients, though some can be bought or found in battle as well. A few are only available by special means!

My Favorite!

Every character has a favorite dish. Take note of them! Giving a character his or her favorite dish increases the restorative value of the meal beyond the normal amount! A character's portrait appears with their favorite food item.

Old Enough?

Take note that some food items can only be made by characters 20 years or older (Ranyx, Ilia, Cyuss, Phia, Iashua, and Ashlay). These are noted with a "20+" next to their required cooking level.

SKILLS

Purchased by the lot in Skill Guilds, skills can dramatically change the tide of battle and make your party more powerful and better prepared for the challenges ahead.

Combat skills provide new automatic abilities in battle, or—in the case of the SFT skills—unlock powerful new fighting moves. Most non-combat skills either enhance your characters' stats in some manner or give some other bonuses.

The non-combat skills serve double-duty, though, as they are what determine which specialties your character is capable of performing. These skills unlock a wealth of abilities, such as creating new items, finding items, temporarily altering character statistics, and more! All specialties require at least one skill to perform and the skill level helps dictate the level at which they can perform the specialty.

Skills require Skill Points to level up. The more powerful the skill, the more points are needed to boost it. All skills max out at level 10.

Read a Book!

Raising your skills up can burn a lot of Skill Points. Thankfully, the Writing specialty lets a character at Level 5 or higher in a specific skill attempt to write a book on that skill. These books, when used on other characters, instantly bump up their level in that skill. Skill books only boost up to Level 5, but that's still a lot of Skill Points saved! This is especially useful on the super-expensive skills like Biology, Imitation, and Technology! Of the 52 different skills available, only 21 have books to speed up the learning process. The rest you must learn the hard way! (See the next section for more detailed information on Writing and which skill you can write books about.)

SPECIALTIES

Specialties are an amazing way to expand your parties' abilities. Most are used to acquire items, either by finding them through unusual methods or creating new items out of less valuable ones; many pieces of valuable equipment can only be obtained in this way. There are other specialties, though, that can tweak a character's statistics or even change the world around your party for a brief period of time.

A character's level for any given specialty is determined by the average of all the skills required to attempt the specialty. If you're attempting Alchemy and you have Technology at Level 1, Mineralogy at 3, and Faeriology at 4, the resulting Alchemy Level will be $2 (1 + 3 + 4 = 8, \text{divided by } 3 \text{ that's } 2.6 \text{ repeating, rounded down to } 2)$. So naturally, the higher your character's skills, the better he is at the specialty.

Required Skills: The character must have these skills to make use of the specialty. The average of these "component" skills' levels determine the level of the specialty.

Required Talents: The character attempting a specialty must have these talents to succeed in the specialty. They can still try it, but this ultimately results in failure. Unfortunately, many of these talents cannot be developed until they make unsuccessful attempts!

Learned Talents: Attempting the specialty without the required talent offers the character the chance to learn the talents listed in this area. (The odds of learning are given in the characters' "Talents" sections.) Remember that some characters cannot learn certain talents no matter what!

Required Items: These items are required to utilize the specialty. Some (such as Herbs, Minerals, Ingredients, etc.) are consumed when an attempt is made.

Enhancing Items: Simply owning certain items can improve your chances of a successful specialty attempt. Many are expensive, but they are worth the Fol if you're going to do more than dabble in specialties.

Exploit the Rainbow

Raising specialties can take a fair amount of time and a lot of Skill Points. If you really want to boost your chances of success in specialties without spending all that time and effort, equip the character attempting a specialty with a Rainbow Diamond accessory. This magic Mineral artificially increases the wearer's specialty level by 1. Equip two of them for a two-level jump! Of course, you can't go above Level 10.

Keep in mind that depending on where you are in the game, you may want to un-equip the Rainbow Diamond as soon as you're done making your attempt, and equip an accessory designed more towards keeping your character alive.

Thrifty Spending

Although your specialty level is dictated by the average level of the component skills, sometimes you may want to prioritize which skills you spend your Skill Points on. For example, Pickpocketing requires Poker Face and Courage. While Poker Face increases your GUTS with every Skill Level, Courage does nothing outside of enabling Pickpocketing. If you're not going to take advantage of Pickpocketing, don't spend the Skill Points on Courage. If you are, prioritize Poker Face and save spending on Courage's higher levels for another time.

Enhancing Items: Triangle Flask, Lezard Flask

Alchemy Success Formula

(Alchemy Level x 16) / target Mineral difficulty = Odds of success

If you have the Triangle Flask item, your odds of success are automatically increased by 20%! Failure, however, produces nothing but high-worthless Pebbles.

Philosopher's Stone

Need some cash fast? The Philosopher's Stone sells for a whopping 300000 Fol! Unfortunately, with a maxed-out Level 10 in Alchemy and the Triangle Flask, you still only have a 40% chance of successfully making one. Still, Iron is a mere 150 Fol and available in most cities; hardly a bad investment even if it takes a few tries.

Appraising Success Formula

(Appraising Level x 5) + 30 = Odds of success

Required Items: Spectacles + "?" items

Enhancing Items: Element Analyzer

Throughout the game, you occasionally accumulate unidentified items marked with a "?" ("ITEM", "MINERAL", among others). These items are completely unusable until they go through an appraisal.

If you have the Element Analyzer, your odds of a successful appraisal increase by 20%! Thankfully, an unsuccessful appraisal doesn't cost anything more than the 10 Fol Spectacles item; the unidentified item remains unidentified for another attempt.

Required Talents: Design Sense

Learned Talents: Design Sense

Required Items: Magic Canvas or

Magic Clay

Enhancing Items: Graphic Tool

Art Success Formula

(Art Level x 8) + 10 = Odds of success

Art enables you to create certain items to assist your party in battle.

If you have the Graphic Tool item, your odds of success are automatically increased by 20%! Failure, however, results in almost totally worthless Doodles (if using Magic Canvas) or a Weird Shape (if using Magic Clay).

A successful creation still has one more step, though: just what item is created. The higher your Art level, the greater your chances are of producing a powerful item.

Compounding enables you to use the various Herbs you collect to make more powerful items.

If you have the Sterile Glove item, your chances of a successful Compounding increase by 20%! A successful Compounding creates one of four different items, depending on what combination of Herbs you're using. Keep in mind that some items can be made from multiple combinations.

Cooking

Required Skills: Keen Eye, Knife, Recipe
Required Talents: Taste
Learned Talents: Taste

Required Items: Ingredients
Enhancing Items: Keen Kitchen Knife

Cooking Success Formula

$$((\text{Cooking Level} \times 10) + 50) / \text{Dish Difficulty} = \text{Odds of success}$$

Hungry? Cooking creates a wide range of dishes to restore your characters' lost HP and MP. A few dishes even cure ailments! The higher your Cooking level, the bigger and better the dishes you can make.

With the Keen Kitchen Knife, your chances of a successful Cooking attempt increase by 20%. Be warned, though, that regardless of your final score, there is always at least a 10% chance of your Cooking attempt failing. Any score above 90% automatically reduces to 90%!

Drinking Age

Some drinks can only be made by characters who are 20 years of age or older. Make sure you have at least one of these six characters properly leveled up in Cooking in order to make these drinks, especially since Ilia and Cyuss's favorite dishes require an older person to make them! (Dishes requiring older characters are marked with a (20+) beside their name.)

Fave Foods

Each character has his or her own favorite food item. Feeding them their faves results in a higher than normal recovery effect! Favorites are noted next to the dish name.

Note on Cooking

While failed cooking usually produces a food item of questionable benefit, failed attempts at cooking higher-quality ingredients ultimately result in no item being made whatsoever.

Required Talents: Originality, Nimble Fingers

Learned Talents: Originality, Nimble Fingers

Required Items: Minerals

Enhancing Items: Soldering Iron

Crafting Success Formula

(Crafting Level x 10) / Item difficulty score = Odds of success

Sometimes, do-it-yourself fashion really shines. Crafting allows you to turn certain Minerals into items! While most of the items you can make are accessories, some unique weapons and armor can be made through Crafting.

Owning the Soldering Iron item adds another 20% to the total. However, remember that regardless of your final score, there is always a 25% chance of the Crafting attempt failing. Failed Crafting yields such dubious pieces as the Heavy Ring, the Lame Earring, and the Ugly Accessory.

Customization

Customizing Success Formula

Skill Level + 60 = Odds of success

Customization lets you combine certain weapons with the Minerals you have on-hand to create different weapons, ideally better ones. It's a risky specialty, putting your weapons to the hammer, but it can result in some unique and powerful items.

Owning the Magical Rasp increases your chances of success by 20%. Unusually, having the "required" talent "Originality" isn't actually required for a successful Customization. It does, however, add another 5% to your odds of success. Your Skill Level only adds a single percentage point per level to the odds, but 10% is 10%. Thus, without any outside influences like Music (see the Music specialty), you always have at least a 5% chance of failure, even at Level 10. Failure nets you a useless piece of junk.

Once it's been determined if you've succeeded in Customizing, what you've made is determined using the value of both the ingredient weapon and Mineral.

This formula results in a number that determines what item you've made via the charts that follow. Owning the Magical Rasp adds another 20 to the grand total, netting a much better item! Keep in mind that different characters have different combinations and ratings.

Customizing Result Item Formula

Mineral Quality rating + Weapon Quality rating + 1 + ((Random number from 0 to character's Customizing Level) x 5)

Back Up Your Data!

Confused? Let's say you're going to have Roddick attempt to customize the Air Slicer by adding a Star Ruby to it. He has a Customization level of 5 and he succeeds in his attempt.

The Star Ruby has a Quality of 8 and the Air Slicer has 16, for a total of 24. Add 1 for 25. The computer picks a random number from 0 to 5 (the max being his Customizing level), multiplies that number by five, then adds that total (from 0 to 25 in increments of 5) to the previous total.

That random variable can have a huge effect on what you receive. In this example, you can get a total of 25 (the Walloon Sword, weaker than the original Air Slicer), 30 or 35 (Longsword +2, also weaker), 40 or 45 (Holy Sword, which is stronger), or 50 (Sword of Marvels). Of course, if you have the Magical Rasp, that number jumps another 20 points, resulting in a bare minimum of 45 (Holy Sword) and a maximum of 70 (Moonfolk).

As such, it cannot be stressed enough that you save your game before attempting customization with valuable items. Even with a Customization level of 10 and the Magical Rasp, Roddick's attempt to make the 1600-ATK Silvanice (Force Sword + Philosopher's Stone) could result in a mere 750-ATK Sword of Stealth, which is significantly weaker than the Force Sword's ATK of 1000. If the new weapon ends up being weaker than the old one, then it takes only a few seconds of time to re-load a previous game and try again.

ATK/MAG: The ATK/MAG value of the item.

Quality: The Quality rating of the item when used as an ingredient in item creation calculation.

Create: "Y" means the item can be created via Customization. Weapons listed that cannot be created can be used as ingredients for other items.

Range: "Creation range". If your item creation calculation falls within this range, you will create this item. (This value is ignored if your combination and range satisfy the requirements for a "Creation Combo" item; see next entry.)

Creation Combo: Some items can be created from specific combinations of ingredients and a high enough calculation total. "WQ" indicates that you can use any weapon with a quality rating that falls within the noted range.

Familiar Success Formula

Familiar Level x 8 = Odds of success

So you really need a certain common item, but you're out in the wild or are deep in a dungeon. Familiar lets you call a bird to do some shopping in your place! The higher your level, the bigger the bird you can call, and the more items you can have them pick up for you. The items you buy via Familiar cost the same as you'd pay in any store.

Required Talents: Design Sense, Nimble Fingers

Learned Talents: Design Sense, Nimble Fingers

Required Items: Mechanic's Toolbox

Enhancing Items: N/A

Machinist Success Formula

(Machinist Level x 16) / Item Difficulty = Odds of success

A fairly new development on Roak, the art of working with Machines can result in some interesting gadgets...some of which are designed to go boom in interesting ways!

Keep in mind that Machinist is the only way to get some very helpful items, particularly those that can improve your success rate with other specialties. Also, remember that despite this, there are no items to improve your odds of a successful Machinist creation. Even at Level 10, the odds of successfully making a Triangle Flask are only at 32%!

Music

Required Skills: Music Knowledge, Performance

Required Talents: Rhythm Sense, Listening

Learned Talents: Rhythm Sense, Listening

Required Items: Instrument, Feather Pen (composing), Conductor's Baton

(performing), Completed Song (performing)

Enhancing Items: Music Editor

Music Composition Success Formula

(Music Level x 8) / Song difficulty rating = Odds of success instrument, which of the two songs for that instrument you'd like to try, and have a Feather Pen handy!

Owning the Music Editor item increases your chances of a successful composition by 20%. Sadly, there is no talent that increases these odds.

Once you have a song, it's time to perform it. Choose your instrument and the song. Performing always succeeds and you receive the song's effects for as long as the tune plays. As the song affects your success rate for specialties, this is the prime time to attempt some higher-level item creation!

SONGS

When performed in an area with random encounters, "Hero's Arrival" and "The Devil's Aria" songs immediately thrust your party into battle with pre-set foes once you leave the menu screen. These encounters provide a good way to gather experience points and dropped items. The enemies you fight are determined by your Skill Level. Keep in mind that "The Devil's Aria" song brings forth some mighty powerful enemies!

Oracle

Required Skills: ESP, Piety, Purity
Required Talents: N/A
Learned Talents: N/A

Required Items: N/A
Enhancing Items: N/A

This unusual specialty allows you to receive messages from the gods. Hints, predictions, random musings...the higher your level, the more messages you can receive. There's no chance of failure with this specialty; you just get the flashes.

This specialty may seem useless at first. It doesn't affect your character's stats, it can't really help you in battle and doesn't produce any items. However, it's important to get a character up to Level 10 with this specialty by the time you reach the Oracle Room. With a Level 10 Oracle specialty, you can access the far-right room, which contains the valuable item-generating Magic Jar accessory!

Pickpocketing

Required Skills: Courage, Poker Face
Required Talents: Nimble Fingers
Learned Talents: N/A

Required Items: Thief's Glove or Magician's Glove
Enhancing Items: Magician's Glove

Pickpocket Success Formula

(Pickpocketing Level x 16) / Victim Difficulty = Odds of success of items can be acquired this way. You can even pick your allies' pockets when they're wandering around down during Private Actions!

The Magician's Glove is an enhanced version of the Thief's Glove, providing an extra 5% to your success when equipped. Even with that, though, the odds of a successful Pickpocketing are generally not high. The better the item the victim carries, the worse your odds of lifting it from them.

Stealing Isn't Cool

There are some risks involved with Pickpocketing. In particular, every time you attempt to Pickpocket, there is a 1 in 4 chance that one of your party members will lose 1 "affection point" for another member. The two characters who are affected are chosen completely at random! Loss of "affection points" can impact your party's cohesion in battle, and you need high scores there to get bonus endings. Since you cannot check the affection ratings in the game, this can be frustrating.

However, this only affects characters who are actively in the party at the time of the Pickpocketing. So save your attempts for during Private Actions, when Roddick is alone.

Replication

Required Skills: Imitation
Required Talents: N/A
Learned Talents: N/A

Required Items: Magic Camera/RIRICA +
 Magic Film + copyable item
Enhancing Items: RIRICA

Replication Success Formula

Item Copy value ÷ (Replication Level x 3) > (random number from 0~255) = Success can be duplicated with the use of a Magic Camera or the more powerful RIRICA. The item listings in the back of this book show each item's "Copy value". The higher the number, the better your chances of copying the item are, regardless of your Replication level. More powerful items have a much lower Copy value and a fair few can't be replicated at all!

Using the RIRICA item adds another 20 to your total. This total is checked against a randomly generated number from 0 to 255. If your total is greater than this randomly generated number, the replication is successful. If your number is lower, then you get nothing more than a Blurry Photo. Since most items have a Copy value of 40 or lower (even with the RIRICA), the odds are generally not in your favor even with a Level 10 Replication ($40 + (10 \times 3) + 20 = 90$ out of a possible 255).

Got an item you really wish you had another one of? Replication creates the opportunity to do just that! Most items

Scouting

Required Skills: Danger Radar
Required Talents: Animal Instinct
Learned Talents: Animal Instinct

Required Items: N/A
Enhancing Items: N/A

Scouting Variable Formula

Scouting Level x 5 = % of change in encounter rate

Sometimes, you just don't want to be bothered by roaming bands of enemies. And there are times when you crave battle! Although there are items that change the frequency of random encounters, the Scouting specialty does so free of charge. Use this in any place where you can engage in random-encounter battles.

Unlike many other specialties, this skill always succeeds if you meet the normal skill/talent requirements. After scouting an area, you can increase or decrease the encounter rate. You can turn off the effect of Scouting any time you want. Simple enough, right? Be careful, though. If you attempt this specialty without the Animal Instinct talent, the encounter rate increases or decreases completely at random!

Terrain Difficulty Ratings

TERRAIN	RATING
Forest	1
Beach, Cave	2
Plains, Mountains, Desert, Snow	3

Demon World, Machinery	5

Survival Success Formula

((Survival level x 5) + 40) / Terrain difficulty = Odds of success

While civilization is always welcome, a hardy adventurer with the Survival specialty can live off the land. By expending a mere 4 MP, you can search the nearby area for items. If you own the Survival Kit, your chances of a successful search increase by 20%. Just what you find, though, depends on the type of terrain.

Training

Required Skills: Determination, Effort, Resilience

Required Talents: N/A

Learned Talents: N/A

Required Items: N/A

Enhancing Items: N/A

Training Coefficient Formula

(Sum total Training Level of all current allies) x 0.25 = Amount of change that? Well, because that stat sacrifice increases the amount of experience the characters receive for victory.

Unlike many other specialties, this one always succeeds. The Training level of each party member is used to determine the amount of effect Training has.

The amount of change can be anywhere from a mere 0.25% to 20%. This percentage determines how far everyone's ATK and DEF stats are reduced and how much your received Experience is increased. Note that magic power is unaffected, meaning your magic users operate on effectively full strength yet still reap the benefits!

This specialty is best used when traveling through areas with enemies below your party's current level, making plowing through them much more worth the time. You can turn off the Training effect at any time.

This specialty is a little different from the others. Training lets you decrease your characters' battle strength. Now why would someone want to do

Writing

Required Skills: Penmanship

Required Talents: Composition

Learned Talents: Composition

Required Items: Fountain Pen

Enhancing Items: Word Processor, Beret (must equip)

Once a character achieves Level 5 in a skill, the Writing specialty allows them to compose a book about that skill. These tomes can then be used on characters to automatically increase their Skill

Level by one, but only up to Level 5. After that, they must learn the hard way by spending Skill Points. Still, this is a great way to boost your characters' low-level skills without expending valuable Skill Points.

Owning the Word Processor increases your final odds by 10%. However, if the character attempting to write is wearing the Beret head armor, his or her success rate goes up 10% as well. Combine the two for a 20% jump in your odds!

Failure creates a wide variety of mediocre manuscripts. You may get the New Book of Prophecy, or one of six volumes of the normal Book of Prophecy.

Reading Is Fundamental—and Frugal!

Some skills are much more expensive to get up to Level 5 than others, making Skill Books on those subjects incredibly valuable. In particular, once a character gets properly leveled up in the expensive skills of Biology, Technology, or Imitation, work on having them produce Skill Books for other characters on those subjects, thereby saving a lot of Skill Points.

SUPER SPECIALTIES

Super specialties combine the specialties of multiple party members to enhance their abilities. These are powerful abilities with some very interesting effects. Not only can they produce some amazing items, but they can undeniably make life in the higher levels of the game much more bearable.

To successfully perform a super specialty, you need at least two characters who are at Level 4 in the "key" required specialty. Non-"key" specialties need only one character at Level 1. If you have the right combo, you can attempt the super specialty.

The super specialties' levels (used in determining success and/or effectiveness) are determined by adding together their "key" level ratings for all characters within the party, then dividing by three. Naturally, the higher the "key" levels per individual, the better the super specialty level!

Blacksmith

Required Specialties: Customizing (key),
Alchemy

Required Items: Smith's Hammer, Mineral
Enhancing Items: Magical Rasp

Blacksmith Items

Normally, Minerals are used to customize existing items or craft accessories. Blacksmith lets you create entire pieces of Armor out of your Minerals!

Owning the Magical Rasp increases your chances of a successful Blacksmithing by 20%, but that's not all it does. Some items require you to have the Magical Rasp to create!

Considering the protection these pieces of Armor offer your characters (particularly Pericci, who doesn't have a lot to wear), that's Fol well spent!

Keep in mind that regardless of your final score, there is always a 10% chance of failure, resulting in such fashion nightmares as the Holey Armor, Weird Armor, Weird Boots, and Weird Gauntlet.

$$((\text{Blacksmith Level} \times 8) + 40) / \text{Item difficulty score} = \text{Odds of success}$$

Contraband

Required Specialties: Pickpocket (key), Replication

Required Items: Premium Paper
Enhancing Items: N/A

$(\text{Contraband Level} \times 8) / \text{Item difficulty} = \text{Odds of success}$

Feeling really unscrupulous? Contraband lets you use the intimidating world of paperwork and good old-fashioned deceitfulness for monetary gain. This is a rather risky one to use, as you cannot actually choose what item to make. In fact, the choice is completely randomized, which means your first attempt might make trying to create a difficult item well beyond your ability! This super specialty has other risks as well, like making your party members think less of one other!

Failure produces a Bounced Check. Unlike most other specialties and super specialties, there is no item that increases your odds of success here. The only way to increase your chances is to raise the level of your Pickpocket specialty.

Contraband Items

ITEM	DIFFICULTY	USE
Forged Bill	1	Sell at shops
Stack Certificate	1	Sell at shops
Forged Check	2	Sell at shops
Item Order	2	Get three random items with a Copy value of 30 or more
Forged Document	3	Sell at shops
Contract	3	Use in town to stay at Inn for free
Health Insurance	3	Use on conscious ally to get their Level x1000 in Fol
Secret Account	4	Decreases shop and Inn prices, increases sell price for your items
Counterfeit Medal	4	EXP needed to level up becomes 1
Seizure Warrant	4	Get one random item with a Copy value of 30 or more

Using Contraband

As with Pickpocketing, every time you use Contraband, there is a 1 in 4 chance that someone in your party will lose an "affection point" towards another character. Making things worse, the person who loses the point is completely randomized. And since you need two people for a super specialty, you can't use this during Private Actions when Roddick is alone; actually, there is no truly "safe" time to use this.

Enlightenment

Required Specialties: Train (key), Survival

Required Items: N/A
Enhancing Items: N/A

$\text{Train Skill} \times 4 = \text{Modifier}$

Not enough Skill Points to your liking? By sacrificing some of your battle ability, you can increase the number of Skill Points your characters receive when they level up. This super specialty is always successful; the only variable is of the amount of change. This modifier is then used to determine how the stats are lowered.

HIT decreases by (Modifier / 5)

AVD, GUTS, and movement speed decrease by (Modifier x 1).

Each time your characters level up under these conditions, the Skill Points earned increase by (Train level x 6) percent... roughly. The actual amount of extra Skill Points received varies from character to character, but it approximates to roughly that percentage on average. Figure that with a Train level of 10, and you'll receive on average a 60% boost in received Skill Points.

Group Appraising

Required Specialties: Appraising (key), Crafting

Required Items: Spectacles
Enhancing Items: N/A

$\text{Group appraising level} \times 3 = \% \text{ of price change}$

By using Group Appraising in Shops, Inns, and Skill Guilds, you can alter the price of their wares (up or down) by a significant margin. Choose to decrease the price when buying, or increase the price when you're looking to sell. These altered prices only last for one transaction, though.

Unlike many other specialties, Group Appraising always succeeds. The only difference is how much the price tag changes. Use this super specialty when buying or selling high-ticket items!

Master Chef

Required Specialties: Cooking (key),
Compounding

Required Items: Ingredients
Enhancing Items: Keen Kitchen Knife

239

$((\text{Master Chef level} \times 10) + 50) / \text{Camba difficulty} = \text{Odds of success}$

Cooking can provide quite a wide variety of dishes for recovering your party's HP and MP. With Master Chef, you can combine two ingredients to make even more powerful dishes!

Owning the Keen Kitchen Knife increases your chances of a successful dish by 20%, but it also does something more. Normally, there is always a 10% chance of failure when attempting a Master Chef dish, just as there is when attempting normal Cooking. If you possess the Keen Kitchen Knife, however, that 10% failure chance goes away, enabling you to achieve a 100% chance of success!

Amazing Nectar!

Each time you create a successful Master Chef dish, there is a 1 in 255 chance that you will create the amazing Nectar instead of the normal combo dish. This dish fully restores all lost HP and MP but, more importantly, it sells for a whopping 100000 Fal!

Orchestra

Required Specialties: Music (key), Art
Required Items: Conductor's Baton
Enhancing Items: N/A

This more powerful version of the Music specialty creates a tune that has some very powerful effects on your characters' abilities in the world of talents and specialties. As with performing Music, as long as you have the required specialties and items, all attempts are 100% successful. When the Orchestra song is playing, the following occurs: specialties and Item Creation attempts' odds of success are raised; specialties and Item Creation attempts can succeed even if the character lacks the proper talents; talents level up faster. These effects only last as long as the song is playing, so get cracking! Use this when trying to make difficult items!

Publishing

Required Specialties: Writing (key),
Machinist

Required Items: Fountain Pen
Enhancing Items: Word Processor

(Publisher's Machinist Skill x 16) / 3 = Odds of success

Do you want your party members to have a better understanding of each other? Publishing produces books on your party members that, when used on other party members, instantly sets their "affection level" towards the book's author/subject to 8. This is just 1 point below the amount needed to get bonus endings and battle effects!

Owning the Word Processor increases your chances of a successful Publication by 20%. (This is 10% more than it adds to the normal Writing specialty. Because of this, the Beret doesn't give its bonus to Publishing.) This super specialty is a little unusual in that the "key" specialty (Writing) only affects who the book is about; it's the publisher's Machinery level that determines success.

Books & Affection Level

Character books set the reader's affection level for the subject character at 8 regardless of the current score, even if that score is higher than 8! So be wary as to who's reading about whom! This could cause you to miss several character vignettes during the ending sequence, as those are activated by having an affection of 9 or higher!

"Couple" Character Endings (9+ towards each other)

Ronyx + Ilia

Cyuss + Phia

Ioshua + Mavelle

Ioshua + Erys

In addition, every optional party member has a special vignette that can be viewed if he or she has an affection level of 9 or higher towards Roddick. Roddick does not need to have a 9 or more towards them, though.

ENEMY DATA

All enemies encountered throughout STAR OCEAN: First Departure are detailed in this chapter, arranged alphabetically, including boss enemies and foes appearing only in the Tatroi Arena.

Element Notations
